a most delightful hike to Barnes.
They were accompanied by their Guardian, Mrs. Lennherr and their mothers. Such a delightful time was had as to make some mothers remark, they feel like girls again.

Troop 15, Huber Boy Scouts, held an overnight hike on Gales Creek and reported a wonderful time.
Some of the mothers and dads comparing the boys and girls of today with the advantages of their youth are tempted to be envious.
Six boys will be presented at the Court of Honor, in Portland on Thursday, to take tests for second class scouts.
