Capitol Theatre Again Offers Attractive List of Good Shows

THEATRE IS COOL

A Pleasant Place Where One Can Enjoy a Good Picture in Comfort

The Capitol Theatre is always cool these warm evenings and anyone can enjoy a good picture in real comfort. They have as special features during July—"The Fire Brigade" 10, 11, and 12, "Don Juan" on July 17, 18, and 19, and "The Better Ole" July 28, 29, and 30.

During July they will show an unusual number of good pictures as follows:

Saturday, July 9—"Tom Tyler in 'Out of the West.'" A fast-moving story of the sagebrush and the diamond, with the zip and speed of a Tyler Western interspersed with comedy and romance.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 10, 11, and 12, May McAvoy—Charles Ray in "The Fire Brigade." A film epic, telling the story of the American fire-hero; revealing the trails, humors, the true thrilling life of unsung heroes. The greatest fire picture ever made.

Wednesday, July 13—Clair Windsor—Conrad Nagel in "Dance Madness." He met her at a dancing school. He made love to her while they whirled to syncopated music. They Charlestoned right into matrimony. And then they went to Paris. What happened there makes a riot of fun.

Thursday, and Friday, July 14 and 15—William Haines in "Slide, Kelly, Slide." He could win a baseball game—hands down. But what trouble he met when he tried to win a girl's heart. A modern sheik's hilarious adventures in baseball and love. William Haines in "Tell It to the Marines" in another laugh riot.

Saturday, July 16—Ken Maynard in "The Unknown Cavalier." A round-up of thrills—a riot of riding and roping—a stampeede of breathless adventures—with a Romeo of the ranges breaking horses and hearts.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 17, 18, and 19—John Barrymore in "Don Juan." "Don Juan" is the screen's spectacle. It is a pageant of purple and gold. A phantasmagoria of the beauty and the terror of Rome in the days of the infamous Borgias. It is a swift as galloping horses, bright with the flashing of swords; with the greatest array of noted stars ever assembled in one picture.

Wednesday, July 20—Jean Hersholt in "The Wrong Mr. Wright." The story of an old-fashioned chap who took another's name to elude a breach of promise suit, and who discovered youth and romance with the female detective set on his trail.

Thursday and Friday, July 21 and 22—Olive Borden in James Oliver Curwood's "The Country Beyond." Go with beautiful Olive Borden through a pulsing drama, where dreams come true and the pot of gold is found at the rainbow's end. A dream of beauty to the happy land of a make-believe.

Saturday, July 23—Tom Mix in "The Broncho Twister." A breath-taking, nerve-tingling picture in which the ace of Western stars again demonstrates hard riding, straight shooting and hazardous feats of daring in a story throbbing with life.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 24, 25 and 26—Lillian Gish in "The Scarlet Letter." One of the big pictures of this, or any other year. Hawthorne's classic has been made into a screen masterpiece, and Lillian Gish, great screen star, was never seen in a better role. A tale of love and sacrifice—a story of tremendous drama.

Wednesday, July 27—Laura La Plante in "The Beautiful Cheat." A delicious comedy for every age and kind of audience adapted from Nina Wilcox Putnam's story, "Doubling for Cupid." Harry Myers and Alexander Carr are included in the cast.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 28, 29, and 30—Syd Chaplin in "The Better Ole." This picture constitutes the funniest, most uproar-

Le Roy Fields Dies Suddenly

LeRoy Fields, president of the Fields Motor Car Co., died suddenly at 7:15 o'clock Monday night at his country home near Tigard. Death was caused by heart trouble. Mr. Fields was born March 23, 1885. eggs stuff that has ever been brought out of the trenches and war villages of France. A delicious blast of low down fooling. Much funnier than anything Chaplin has ever made.

Sunday and Monday, July 31 and August 1—All star cast in Gene Stratton-Porter's "The Magic Garden." A dual triumph. A marvelous story, written as only the genius of Gene Stratton-Porter could weave the words—filmed by a master hand into a picture that will live as long as screen history.

"FRENCHY" BIANCHI IS BADLY INJURED

Wheeling Cement Across Highway When Hit By Car

RIB THOUGHT BROKE

Car Slowed Down and Then Man Stepped on the Gas and Knocked Him Down

"Frenchy" Bianchi, of Beaverton, was knocked unconscious Tuesday morning as he was trudging a wheelbarrow full of cement across the highway near Hillsboro. An x-ray showed one rib was cracked. He is now at the Commercial hotel at Beaverton.

A crew of men were repairing the pavement and the markers were all set out, but a man drove close to the crew and slowed down so that "Frenchy" thought he was going to stop and continued his work, but the man stepped on the gas and the car shot ahead across the marker, hitting "Frenchy" and knocking him to the pavement and dragged him several feet.

The cement mixer was grinding and no one noticed the accident for several minutes on account of the noise.

He was taken to Hillsboro and an x-ray taken and then he was brought to Beaverton to the hotel.

Bad Road From Rockaway to Garabaldi

The road from Rockaway to Garabaldi was in a bad condition Monday, due to the heavy rains and it took two hours for a group of Beaverton people to motor from Rockaway to Garabaldi, otherwise the roads were in fine condition. Carl Mazza, Opza Hesse, of Michigan, and Ralph Mapes made the trip.

Pioneers Hold Their Annual Reunion

Members of the Washington County Pioneer Association and the Native Sons and Daughters held their annual picnic at Shute park, June 26. A very interesting program was given.

Albert Tozier had a number of pictures which he used during his talk and advising people to make their homes in Washington county, he used the illustration of Mrs. Ramsey Wood, who was slated as living 120 years, seven months and 10 days. He also mentioned several others who have passed the hundred mark.

The former officers who were re-elected for the coming year included Mrs. C. W. Redmond of Hillsboro, president; Ira Purdin of Forest Grove, first vice president; Bruce Wilkes of Portland, second vice president; Mrs. Anna Sigler of Hillsboro, third vice president; Mrs. J. B. Stewart of Hillsboro, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. J. W. Goodin of near Hillsboro, assistant secretary-treasurer.

Dances Now Under New Management

F. Burgholzer, of Fairvale, is now in charge of the Fairvale Community club dances and he has secured a new 8-piece orchestra called "The Portland Pirates," which are attracting large crowds. As an added feature he has engaged Lawrence Gray, radio artist, who will sing every Saturday night.

The floor is now in excellent condition and everyone is assured of a wonderful time if they attend these dances.

Mr. Burgholzer is manager of the White Rock Springs Service Station at Fairvale and he takes a great pride in these dances and sees that everyone has partners and enjoy the evening.

STRANGER ATTACKS AN ELDERLY MAN

Driving on Wrong Side of Street and Evidently a Pebble Hit Windshield

SAID HE THREW ROCK

Mr. and Mrs. J. Maggetti Quietly Walking Along Highway When Attacked Monday

Accusing an elderly gentleman of throwing rocks at his car, a big burly man shook Mr. J. Maggetti of Multnomah, by the shoulders Monday night, while he and his wife were walking along the highway in front of the West Side Pacific Highway Service station.

The car had passed Mr. and Mrs. Maggetti and they say it was on the wrong side of the highway. Suddenly the car stopped, a man got out, rushed up to Mr. Maggetti and shook him by the shoulders, demanding "why did you throw rocks at my car." Mr. Maggetti, who is 83 years old protested that he knew nothing about it. This angered the man and he rushed for Mr. Maggetti again. Mr. and Mrs. McMahon saw the action and rushed to Mr. Maggetti's help. The stranger shouted "if you were not an old man I would slap your face for throwing rocks at my car." He finally quieted down and drove away but the license number on his car was obtained and there promises to be interesting development to the case.

ANALYSIS SHOWED TRACES OF POISON

An analysis of the contents of the bottle which Mrs. Henry Zimmerman drank last week showed traces of strychnine and the coroner returned a verdict of strychnine.

Mrs. Zimmerman became violently ill after taking the contents of the bottle but did not pass away until 12 hours later.

Her funeral was held June 29 in charge of W. E. Pegg and remains laid to rest in Crescent Grove.

Quicker Transportation For the Baby Chicks
