IT CAN'T BE DONE!

We wish these things might be said to youth everywhere—in America, in Canada, across the seas, and wherever tongues can speak and ears can hear. CRIME DOESN'T PAY, AND IT CAN NOT BE MADE TO PAY! It can not be made to pay in rewards of conscience, contentment or material gain. Crime DOES pay in sorrow, disgrace, imprisonment, and sometimes with loss of life. THE IMPRISONMENT OF SOUL IS NO LESS THE CAUSE OF REMORSE AND ANGUISH THAN IS THE CONFINEMENT OF BODY A PENALTY FOR FORFEITED FREEDOM.

Hickman was caught. Leopold and Loeb got life imprisonment. The D'Autremont brothers were finally brought within the grasp of the law. Vigilance and detection are even more certain than merited punishment. Here are three outstanding examples of boys who "DIDN'T GET AWAY WITH IT." Even leaving out questions of morality, of uprightness, of the rights of others and of citizenship, can any boy or girl AFFORD TO COMMIT OFFENSES AGAINST SOCIETY AND WAGE THEIR OWN FUTURES AGAINST THE POSSIBLE SPOILS OF WRONG-DOING?

The path of rectitude always pays. How did the "sly fox" feel when peeping thru the bars at Pendleton, Oregon! Can a 19-year-old youth, in his "dangerous age," beat the law? Perhaps for a while. Perhaps for a few sleepless nights. Perhaps in the orgy of other crimes during the "thrill" of escape. Perhaps in the distorted judgment of an excited populace. But he will be captured. He WAS captured. Nearly all of such are caught. The few who "get away" never quite get away from their own penalties.

Neither the moral nor legal codes can be violated without a compensating ill effect. Crouching like a beaten dog, the escaped criminal cringes at the voices of men and is startled at the falling of a leaf.

No, it can't be done! When all his other virtues sink in the mire of depravity, the criminal yet serves one purpose to humanity. He teaches a lesson to others in inverse ratio to his own wrongs.

Teach this lesson to your boy and ours! Tell it to your neighbor's boy. Set the example in the home, the school and the church. Proclaim it in club and lodge. Live it in the community by precept and example. If it takes the Bible to do it, use the Bible! If it takes stricter court procedure, Amend your own laws! If it takes the abolishment of the parole system, quit sending candy to murderers, and deport every "sob sister" in the land.

The fault can not be laid to youth alone. If something slips between the cradle and the steering wheel, let us find out what it is and why! and in the meantime let us keep our families safe from the ravages of fiends and our properties free from plunderers!

Hickman proved to be a hick boy.

Many a gray dawn brings a dark-brown taste.

This would be a happy world indeed if all the Christmas cards meant what they said.

Christmas and New Year's go to prove that some people are work-day dry and holiday wet.

The Republican National Convention will begin in Kansas City on June 12 and end when somebody chooses to run.

It's a wonder anybody got very much out of the pre-Christmas season with one-fourth of the country looking for Hickman and the other three-fourths talking about him.

What this country needs is an epidemic of home sickness.

Dry cleaners will agree that all wealth comes from the soil.

In many cases the war tax doesn't hurt as much as the peace profits.

Figures are all right, but there often is too much static in statistics.

MULTNOMAH

The pageant "The Gifts we Bring" which was put on by the pupils of Multnomah school Christmas week was greatly enjoyed by nearly 700 parents and friends. The different parts were well acted as a result of the careful training given by the teachers of the school.

The ladies organization of the community church will entertain their husbands and friends Friday evening at 8 p. m. There will be a pageant and Rev. M. Mathews will speak after which a social hour will be enjoyed.

On Jan. 12 the L. O. of the Community church will serve a dinner to be put on by the all Oregon Products Co. All of the proceeds will go to the church.

Miss Elizabeth Watson left Monday for Medford where she has accepted a position with a lumber concern.

Mrs. A. Lunn and son have moved back to their home in the Nelson tract.

Miss Ethel Speakman and Earl Hardy returned to O. A. C. Monday.

The basketball team of the Community church played with the team from the Sunnyside Methodist church and lost last week.

O. O. Oliver was in Multnomah visiting Rev. and Mrs. D. S. Sharpe Sunday.

W. Earl Parker and family spent Christmas at Seaside.

Mr. Beebe, of Shahapta, has purchased the Barron lot on the hill.

Floyd Weatherly and family visited with his parents at Scottsburg Christmas.

Mrs. A. G. Persels and F. N. Persels visited Mrs. Peresels daughter Mrs. Frank Page and family at Aloha over the week-end.

One of the fir trees on the lot next to the 5-10-15 cent store snapped off during the silver thaw.

Lights were off for over 50 minutes in Multnomah Monday night.

Most of the roofs of the buildings in the business part of Multnomah leaked badly Monday and Tuesday but when the snow was removed there was no further trouble.

Mr. Ruring drove his car into the front entrance of his theatre Monday night as the snow made it impossible for him to drive the car home.

The Capitol Theatre has suffered from the silver thaw. Saturday night there was no power and Mr. Ruring had to close the theatre. Monday night there was power but no lights, but the people waited patiently for 50 minutes before the lights came on. The worst part of the incident was the fact that the heat had also to be closed as the fans are driven by electricity.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Burns were dinner hosts New Year's at their home when they placed covers for eight.

Hinema Cloringu has entirely recovered from an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson, of Tillamook and Myrtle Wilson, of St. Mary's academy, were guests of Mrs. Gladys Kelly during the holidays.

E. E. Fitzwater has purchased from the Fairvale Land Co. the Spanish stucco house in Fairvale on Vista Avenue—Fairvale Herald.

FARM MARKET REPORT

Onions

An official estimate of the commercial onion crop in 15 late shipping states lopped off a million bushels from previous estimates leaving 17,310,000 bushels or only 1,600,000 more than a year ago. Trade sentiment is reported firm.

Potatoes

Total shipments of potatoes for the week ending December 24, were 2631 cars or just 500 cars less than the previous week. Compared with the same week last year, however, 160 more carloads were shipped. Movement of potatoes in Pacific Northwest states during the same week a year ago. For the entire country 166,452 carloads had been shipped by December 24 compared to 152,979 last year at the same time.

Butter

Steady to firm butter markets with more favorable domestic statistical position and production increasing slowly, but foreign butter becoming a factor in eastern markets about summarizes the situation last week. Storage holdings on the Pacific coast are reported 1,000 pounds less than a year ago. A cable from the agricultural commissioner reports Copenhagen equivalent to 267 cents still 15 cents under 92 score New York.

Grain

Holiday dulness marked the grain markets but trade is expected to pick up soon. No important changes were noted in the barley markets and oats held steady generally, but corn inclined to weaken.

Hay and Feed

The general tone of the feeds markets was not so firm but the trade expects more demand soon.

RECIPES

Roast Beef with Macaroni

Three pound roast, 3 cups macaroni. Salt and pepper. Water to cover.

Melt fat in roaster on top of stove. Sear roast, place in oven and cook until almost done. One-half hour before serving, place macaroni in roaster and add enough water to cover. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Cook until tender. Serve hot.

Crab Louie

Put 2 large lettuce leaves on a plate, then shred the rest of the head and pile in the center of the plate; then a layer of sliced tomato (peeled); then a layer of crab meat that has been soaked at least an hour in French dressing; over this add another layer of tomatoes; pour thousand island dressing over the whole and garnish with lemon and pickles.

Muffins

One-fourth cup shortening, two cups flour, ¼ cup sugar, 2 teaspoons baking powder and a pinch of salt, 1 egg, well beaten, ¼ cup milk; cream shortening, add sugar gradually then egg, sift flour, baking powder and salt thoroughly and add to first mixture alternating with milk; bake in hot greased gen pans for 25 minutes.

Oatmeal Cookies

Cream 1 cup sugar and ¼ cup lard, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon soda (soda dissolved in a little water), 1 cup raisins, 1 cup ground walnuts, 2 cups flour and 2 cups oatmeal; when all are thoroughly mixed add 3 well beaten eggs; put flour on the molding board and spoon out a bit of the dough half as large as an egg and press into shape with well floured hands bake in well buttered pans in a moderate oven until a delicious brown. These are delicious and wholesome.

MIREN IN MUD FOR 8 HOURS

A party of five young people of Aloha, worked for 8 hours before they got their coupe out of the mud while returning from a party at the Peterson home.

In the party were Roy K. Antrim, Ellis Antrim and their sisters Joyce and Emma, and Billie Peterson and Louise Penny.

NEW LUNCH ROOM OPEN

Hary Sidwell has equipped and opened for business a dandy short order lunch room in Aloha Service Station. The room has been thoroughly renovated, painted and decorated; new up-to-date fixtures are in place, and back of the mahogany counter will be found the genial chef, Ted Sidwell, which means an ample guarantee for the best of appetizing foods and courteous service. It is planned a little later to maintain 24 hour service in all branches of this super-station. This meritorious addition to the business activities of Aloha, however, will doubtless put out of commission the favorite rendezvous of the Town Criers club, as Ted asserts this is strictly a business venture and not a Grandma's Kitchen.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A most enjoyable social event of more than usual significance was the observation on Saturday last, of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rodolf, at their palatial home on Wheeler avenue, Aloha, by a large number of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Rodolf have only recently located in Aloha, but have been residents of Oregon for some forty years, are very active and enjoying the best of health. They were presented a number of beautiful and valuable tokens in commemoration of their anniversary, and needless to say the event was a most happy one, this being the first time since 1905 that so many of the family have been able to be together on one occasion. Among the relatives and friends present were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rodolf and two children, of Yuba City, Calif., Mrs. Stella Kaufmann and daughter, of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Rodolf and three children, and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rodolf, of Portland, Miss Helen Hope Rodolf and Miss Lou Thompson, of Salem.

ALOHA

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Shomber and family yesterday moved to Portland where Mr. Shomber has secured employment.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Mason have about completed the remodeling of the interior of their residence on Stacy avenue. The improvement was carefully planned and executed and joying the comforts and conveniences these estimable people are now en- of an excellent, modern home.

The Portland Electric Power Co. has experienced considerable difficulty in maintaining service by reason of the snow and ice this week, and yesterday drafted Harry Sidwell to help out on the line work for a few days.

Postmaster H. A. Lowry states that the increase in receipts of the Aloha postoffice this past quarter have been by far the greatest of any in the history of the office. In fact they have about reached the point where we may expect to be boosted up a class. A sure indication of the growth of Aloha.
