GIRLS MADE CARROT MARMALADE

The Girls Canning club met at the home of Mrs. George Johnston Monday and Winifred Thoms, May McKeown and Wilma Tuttle made carrot marmalade. The recipe is as follows: Two pounds carrots, 1 lemon, 2 oranges and equal parts sugar. Carrots should be cut in thin slices. Boil until clear and jell.

The girls discussed plans for a play to raise money to send one of their members to Oregon Agricultural summer school next summer.

ALAS! IT WAS TOO LATE—BATTERIES WERE GONE

L. L. Lowrey, of Aloha, went to Portland Tuesday to pick up two batteries left at the Sunset Electric store but the batteries were not there, they had been burned up two days ago in a big fire. If he had only called three days ago—but what's the use of crying—it won't bring back those batteries.
