TUALATIN

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson of Scholls, Mrs. John Say and daughter, Margaret, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Nyberg and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Longstaff and daughter have departed for their former home at Milwaukee, Wis. Mr. Longstaff was formerly professional golf instructor at the Tualatin Country club. He plans to open a sporting goods store in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wesch and daughter Nellie who have recently returned from an extended Canadian motor trip are now entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nelson of Hollywood, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph and Arthur Hass of Lincoln, Neb.

William Barngrover is driving a handsome new Nash sedan which he recently purchased.

John Nyberg is operating his "mint distillery."

A right smart shower visited Newburg Monday night but missed Tualatin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tallman of Portland motored around the Mount Hood loop Sunday.

Mrs. J. F. Costello is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Back from the Gifford resort of White river.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Duley and children were in town visiting relatives from Portland Sunday.

Mrs. L. S. Harding and Mrs. W. R. Hawxhurst attended a luncheon given by Mrs. Alice Smith of Dunthorp, Friday in compliment to Mrs. Amanda Kerr who is spending the summer here from New York. Following the luncheon the ladies drove to the Portland theatre.

Mrs. E. A. Robinson, Mrs. W. R. Hawxhurst, Mrs. Earl Meyer and Mrs. E. A. Blank were among those who attended the production of "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" at the Heilig last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James La Cina have been at home from eastern Oregon for a few days where they have had a cooking contract. Fires make it necessary to give up the camp for the present. They will take another contract soon.

B. L. Barrick of the Meridan road where he has a partially improved five-acre tract is leaving this week with his wife and two children for their former home in California. He sold his fine bunch of White Leghorn pullets.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McClelland of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tiedeman and family of Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Chet Garber all were Sunday visitors at the Charles Geiberger home. In the afternoon a visit was paid to the Tualatin river where members of the party went in swimming.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Shuster were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kaiser of Pete's Mountain where a birthday party was planned complimentary to Mr. Shuster. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Salzer and family, Misses Nettie and Mary Salzer, Zack Elgson, Jake Kreiger, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Day and family were among those present.

Taft, the new town on the Roosevelt highway was the scene of many picnic parties, Sunday. The way points also claimed large numbers, particularly Neskowin which is the most popular beach on the Roosevelt highway. The road from Neskowin to Taft is rather dusty as the oiling program will not be considered before another year. Crab fishing in the bay and the big pleasure boat are the main attractions at Taft. The beach is not so good but there are many alluring ones near by. Taft boasts of the most extensive business district along the highway with hotel, garages, general stores and meat shop. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richardson and Mrs. W. R. Hawxhurst enjoyed Sunday there and had a crab supper at Three Rivers in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruthven Byrum of Anderson, Ind., who have been visiting relatives in Portland for a few weeks were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Meyer, Thursday. Mr. Byrum is a portrait painter of note and has a number of his portraits on exhibition in the Fields Museum of Art, Chicago.

Never deplore the fact that people don't stay at home as much as they used to. They don't put in as much time at family quarreling when they're out.

In applying for work, an Arkansas man voluntarily admitted that he had observed two terms in the penitentiary. Having the courage of his convictions he got the job.
