MAY MANUFACTURE PLANES IN BEAVERTON

Aeroplane may be manufactured in Beaverton in the near future according to reports given out Thursday by C. H. Frye, real estate broker.

J. Kegerries, president and general manager of the Rankin Systems, Inc., was in Beaverton Thursday looking over several acres on which he secured options. One place one half mile east of town seems to be about what they want, only it is not large enough. They will need at least 2500 square feet of level ground.

If they locate in Beaverton they will manufacture planes and employ at least 100 men at the start. They will also conduct a school in flying.

Mr. Kegerries is favorably impressed with the Beaverton tract as it is close to the highway and there are less fogs and high winds here than any other place he has looked over.

DECLINES NOMINATION

Tillamook, Sept. 22—Carl Haberbach, secretary of the Tillamook Creamery association, who was nominated by a caucus of citizens September 10 for the joint senatorship of Tillamook, Lincoln, Washington and Yamhill counties, announced Thursday night that he would not

BAZAAR AND DINNER

The ladies of the Sisterhood of the Church of Christ will hold their annual bazaar and dinner Thursday, November 1 in the basement of the church at Second and Main streets. Further announcements later.

POT LUCK SUPPER IS HELD

A pot luck supper was featured at the Church of Christ last Thursday evening at 6:30. While around the tables some talks were made. The first one of these on "How to Improve the Church Yard" was made by D. C. Howard. Another on, "How Members can Aid in the Care of the Buildings" by M. C. Smith of Garden Home. A third talk was made by Miss Mary Kingston on "Aim for Christian Endeavor." All of these proved very practical.

The older people then assembled for prayer meeting while the younger people all remained in the basement for a Bible drill and a story by Mrs. O. A. Cooper.

Other services like these are being planned for the future.

SWIPE PEARS AT NIGHT

Somebody wanted some cheap pears Tuesday night. They slipped into W. W. Gaskill's orchard, looked in all directions, except toward the skies, then swiped all the Winter Nellie pears which Mr. Gaskill was planning for his winter preserves.

READY FOR WINTER FLOODS

E. Grandgeorge and Henry Zimmerman have had a crew cleaning out the big ditch that drains the beaverdam land along their holdings south east of town, now ready for Jupe Pluvius.

CITY WATER PIPE MAKE BULLY CULVERTS

Travelers along the new Canyon road highway note many sections of 12 inch water pipe scattered in front of many homes, the people are using the water mains for culverts in front of their houses, this is a part of Beaverton's $65,000 water system.

Announcements were received last week of the marriage of Mr. Phillip Thompson to Miss Elizabeth Eden Goble of Morristown, New Jersey. Mr. Thompson was a former resident of this place attending Beaverton high school.

Mrs. Robert Summers is confined to her home with lumbago.

TUALATIN VALLEY GARDEN CLUB ORGANIZED

Twenty-one join at first meeting of Tualatin Valley Garden Club

Maplewood, Shahapta and Garden Home residents met at the Maplewood school Wednesday evening and listened to a very interesting, instructive illustrated talk by R. J. Clary, business manager of Better Flowers Magazine. With Mr. Clary presiding, a garden club was discussed and decided upon. He appointed as a nominating committee Mrs. J. D. Claghorn, chairman; Ralph Reynolds and Mrs. A. A. Andrews, who retired for immediate conference. The election of officers resulted in the selection of J. J. O'Donnell as president; Mrs. E. C. Thayer, vice-president; Mrs. D. C. Ingram, secretary-treasurer. The following were appointed a committee on constitution and by-laws; J. D. Claghorn, chairman; A. H. Wendland and Harry Reynolds.

The name of the organization is to be the Tualatin Valley Garden Club, dues to be $1.00 per year including Better Flowers magazine, a monthly publication. Meetings will be held in the Maplewood Sunday school building twice a month for the present, owing to the fall planting. Next meeting will be Wednesday evening, October 1. Speakers will be provided from the Associated Federation of Garden clubs. Twenty-one joined at this first meeting and it is hoped that every one from Capitol Hill to Beaverton, north and south, who want help regarding any phase of home gardening, will avail themselves of the opportunity of joining this much-needed organization in the community.

THE HOOVER ESSAY CONTEST

The Republican County Central Committee for Washington county is sponsoring an essay contest, in which the school children of the county will participate, the subject to be "Why Herbert Hoover Should be Elected President of the United States."

The following simple rules will govern:—

The title shall be "Why Herbert Hoover Should be Elected President of the United States."

Essays must consist of not less than 500 or more than 1000 words.

Essays must be presented to the precinct committeeman in the district in which the contestant is located by 6 p. m., October 2, 1928.

Contestants must be regularly enrolled in some grade or high school of Washington county.

The first prize in each district will be $3.00.

The first prize in the county wide contest will be $10.00, second $5.00 and third $2.50.

The announcement of the contest was made following a meeting of the executive committee at Hillsboro Saturday, and they have been agreeably surprised by the great amount of interest already manifest, which will doubtless mean a large number of excellent essays from all sections of the county.

OLD LAND MARK GOES WEST

Tuesday night skies East of Beaverton were illuminated—where is the fire? The old barn located on one of the pioneer Bacon ranch near M. A. A. C. golf course, went up in structure in other days sheltered the famous herd of silver gray Jersey cattle allied at many thousands of dollars, owned by the late Mr. Bacon.

PIONEER HOUSE CUT IN TWAIN

The coming of the new highway has made many radical changes. The old Mike Kennedy home east of Beaverton on the Canyon road is cut in twain exposing construction of heavy timber.

MRS. E. E. SWENSON SURPRISED ON HER BIRTHDAY

Neighbors and friends gave Mrs. E. E. Swenson a surprise party on the anniversary of her birth last Thursday evening. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hughson, Mrs. Wm. Davis, Mrs. Brodley Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Brien, Mrs. Ollie E. Riggs, master Harvey Hughson and Misses Mahler and Gene Anderson.

OFFICIALS MISTAKEN FOR DEER, 2 YOUTHS JAILED

A special game warden lies in a Corvallis hospital suffering from a serious gun wound and two youths Randall Heiser, Portland and Heury Neif, Beaverton, were charged with hunting at night and maybe more serious charges.

Robert M. Howe, Toledo, Oregon, the injured deputy and John M. Price, regular deputy, were on their way to check up on hunters. When only a few yards away from the boys camp the deputy said he felt the rush of air from the explosion. Evidently the boys thought they were deer and blazed away at the sound. The deputy believes Heiser fired the shot.

Neukom Is Bankrupt

David Neukom, of Huber, filed petition in bankruptcy in the U. S. District Court on Sept. 19, listing liabilities of about $300.00 with no assets. The referee in bankruptcy has set Oct. 9th as the date for the first meeting of creditors.

BEAVER THEATRE HAS BIG ATTRACTION FOR SUNDAY

On September 30 and October 1 the Beaver theatre will feature the big production "The Underworld," an extremely dramatic story of how "the other half of the world live."

Since Mr. Harris has assumed charge of the theatre he has had the interior of the show house painted and kalsomined and the outside painted. He has also had four ornamental lights installed in front of the building. Two large shrubs adorn the front entrance giving the theatre a metropolitan appearance equal to the best showhouses in the larger cities.

On October 2-3 "Jewels or Desires" will be shown, and on October 4-5 "She's My Shiek," October 6, "The Nervous Wreck" will be shown.

Special for Saturday and Sunday Canning Tomatoes 35c per box, Netted Gem potatoes $1.49 per sack, Red Rose Flour $1.78 Beaverton Feed & Produce Market.

Monday that section of the Canyon road highway completed beginning at Perry Miller's place 2 miles East of Beaverton and extending Westward and to Beaverton, was inspected and passed muster. Edelfsen & Weygandt Co were the contractors on this job. The other sector beginning at Perry Miller's place and extending Eastward to Horse Shoe bend (now gone) will be completed this week, except certain tracts which are still under litigation, namely: Eberhard, Minor, and Bentz property. Berke Bros. are the contractors on the latter job. The work completed includes grading ditches etc.

TWO SANITARY MARKETS IN TWO DIFFERENT CITIES

In last weeks issue an article was printed about Pete Potvin, who had purchased the Sanitary Market at Tigard, Oregon, but the name of the town was not mentioned. This article has caused many people to think that Mr. Knorr had sold his interest to Mr. Potvin but this is not the case. He will still continue to run the Sanitary Market at Beaverton and Mr. Potvin will have charge of the Sanitary market at Tigard. The two markets are not connected in any way.
