HITEON SCRATCHES

Stop Look Listen Taste!
Have you done your Christmas shopping? Are you hungry? Come to Hiteon November 3 and purchase your hand made Christmas gifts at the annual bazaar of the H. P. C. Stop at the home of Mrs. Lena Olson first and enjoy a chicken supper with all the trimmings, yes we'll have pie. Then go on to the school house and hear a fine free program and buy your gifts. Supper from six to eight o'clock and program following immediately. Adults 50c - children under eight 20c.

The Misses Vivian and Ardis Nelson entertained twenty of their friends at a delightful Halloween costume party Saturday evening. A variety of games were enjoyed by all and much merriment caused when a small red devil, larger white ghost and clown "blew in" in the midst of the games. Elizabeth Struthers won first girls prize in the peanut hunting contest and Lloyd Metzentine won first boys prize. Dean Willoughby received the booby. A delicious halloween lunch was served at a late hour. The dining room and tables were appropriately decorated in yellow and black.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Nielsen of Tigard and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leets of St. Johns were Sunday guests at the C. W. Struthers home.

The cast in the play "Mrs. Mason's Poodle" to be given at the Hiteon bazaar, have been spending their evenings practicing.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gibbons, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. C. W. Struthers, have returned to their home in Bull Run.

Mrs. Ruth Anderson and Mrs. Cora Metzentine were Hiteon's representatives at the county Federation meeting last Thursday. Mrs. E. D. time also attended.

Mr. Chris Christensen returned to his home last week feeling much better.

Miss Dorothea Struthers and a party of friends spent Wednesday evening at her parents home.

Hiteon Club held an all day meeting last Wednesday with a pot luck lunch at the home of Mrs. Zell Struthers. Eleven members spent a busy day finishing bazaar sewing. The next meeting will be held November 7 at the home of Mrs. Ida Hite and the roll call is a "Quotation."

John Labbe, Kenneth Struthers and Elizabeth Struthers spent Sunday at Bull Run.

Don't forget the road meeting to be held Monday, November 5 at two p. m. at the Kinton Grange hall. A special tax is to be voted on.

Also don't forget Tuesday, November 6 is election day and all the United States citizens should vote.

A number from Hiteon enjoyed the Rebekah dinner at Beaverton Saturday night.
