HAD TO CHOP DOWN TREE 50 YEARS OLD

Mr. Mooreland had to chop down a big cherry tree on his place near Beaverton this week that was 50 years old. It had been planted in front of the house but grew and grew until part of the roots, those under his house, rotted and the tree was dying.

Last week he cut down a Gravenstein apple tree that he says was 6 1/2 feet around. It was planted 45 years ago.

Mr. Mooreland stated that people waste a great deal of energy when they purchase uncleared land. When he came here his place was covered with brush and trees and it has taken years to clear the place and put it into shape.

STRAWBERRY GROWERS NOT ANXIOUS TO SIGN UP

No one would sign up their strawberry crop with the cannery representative who was present at the meeting of the Tualatin Valley Fruit Growers. They only offered 5 1/2 cents cash.

Mr. Edwards of Bodel & Co. Portland, gave a very interesting talk showing Oregon has only one half the acreage in strawberries it had a year ago, 11,000 acres; Washington had 8,800 acres; California 1,000 and Missouri 27,000.

He said that all over the country farmers are plowing up their strawberries and predicted that good prices would prevail by another year. He said Oregon raised the best black caps, they are larger and better than others. He informed his hearers that nearly all the Oregon and Washington fruit and vegetables are canned under a California label.

BEAVERTON HIGH SCHOOL

The seniors won the debate championship of the high school last Friday when they defeated the sophomores by an unanimous decision of the three judges. The question for debate was, resolved, that in the interest of world peace, the United States should materially reduce the army and navy. The senior debaters, Lewis Poole, Milo Harris, and Jim Underwood upheld the affirmative and the Sophs, George Harris, Ronald Webb, and Elizabeth Huff, defended the negative side of the question. Lewis Poole and George Harris delivered the two rebuttals. The debate was not as near one-sided as the decision indicates as the sophs put up a good fight.

A Christmas program will be given in the auditorium of the high school next Friday afternoon. The work has been divided up as follows: The public speaking class furnishes the entertainment, the freshmen have to clean up; the sophs do the decorating; and the juniors provide the eats. The seniors have nothing to do. Names were drawn Wednesday so that every student will get a present. The basket ball team will play the alumni on the high school floor Thursday night in a practice game. The girls will play the alumni girls as a preliminary to the boys game.

Beaverton high school has enjoyed a very successful season, winning 6 football games, losing 2, tying 1. Beaverton has a total of 175 to opponents 53. Under the able leadership of Mr. Cox they have successfully defended the orange and black goal post. The team consists of Bennett, manager, Wright, Harrison, Dean, Marcot, Landauer, Zuercher, Coward, and Mr. Cox coach, Wisner, Barry, Burn, James, Underwood, Shannon, Zimbrick, Brand, Beach, Rosser, Russell, Boring, Welch E. Hornrich and H. Hornrich.

VIEWERS APPROVE ALOHA ROAD THROUGH ALOHA

County Surveyor Earl Hobbs, Tom Connell and C. P. Syverson, who were named by the County Court as viewers for the proposed road recently petitioned for to extend from the termination of Wheeler avenue north to the Base Line road, came to Aloha Monday and made a careful inspection of this proposed improvement. They were accompanied over the new road by a good delegation of local residents, who supplied considerable information bearing on the project.

After the above item was in type and just before going to press, a telephone message from Hillsboro advises that the viewers held a final meeting in the office of the county surveyor yesterday and made their report to the county court recommending that the road be accepted.

SANTA WILL BE HERE FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Santa Claus will be at Dietsch's Hardware store Friday and Saturday, afternoon, and children can see him if they are accompanied by their parents on Saturday they will receive a present.

There must be lots of boys and girls in Beaverton who have not seen Santa Claus this year and here is your chance to see him.

HIGHWAY WILL BE PATROLLED ALL NIGHT TO COUNTY LINE

Beginning January 2nd, the highway from Portland to the Washington county line will be patrolled all night by from four to six police cars, under charge of Sheriff Hurlburt. During the day four police on motorcycles will be on duty.

After two cars drove off the highway on Tervilliger boulevard early Tuesday morning deputy McFarlane made a report to sheriff Hurlburt asking him to send a communication to Chief of Police Jenkins requesting him to have the boulevard sanded during the frosty weather.

COMMUNITY TREE ATTRACTS ATTENTION

Beaverton's illuminated Christmas tree which was made possible by public spirited citizens has received much comment from those passing through the city as well as local residents. It can be seen for a long distance up and down the highway blazing forth with colored lights and attracting wide attention. The decoration of the tree was done by Mr. Kamberger after Elmer Stipe Dewey Drorbaugh and Wallace Brown had erected it on the intersection of Watson Street and the Highway.

The following contributors made possible this happy Yuletide illumination: Bank of Beaverton, L. K. Dean, J. W. Sprague, S. Mapes & Son, D. Drorbaugh, W. M. Manning, Geo. Thyng, C. J. Stevens, J. C. Talbert, Studio Barber Shop, Mikes Shoe Shop, C. E. Mason, E. Grandgeorge, Beaverton Enterprise, E. M. Smith, J. E. Rossi, Beaverton Review, H. A. Alexander, Mary Summers, A. E. DROVE AWAY—DID NOT PAY FOR GAS

A certain service station in Multnomah was bilked of 4 gallons of gas in a very neat manner last Monday morning. The motorist came to the station and said he was out of gas and wanted enough to get his car to the gas station and have the tank filled. He received the gas and drove the car up to the station and the unsuspecting proprietor started filling the tank and by the time four or five gallons had been pumped into the tank the man stepped on the starter and drove away nearly pulling the hose off the pump. The startled service station man in trying to save the gas hose forgot to get the license number. The sheriff's office was notified but no trace of the motorist has been secured.
