

ALOHA NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Long, of Portland, visited the H. C. Sivard family Sunday.

Robert Teschner broke his right wrist Monday while cranking the family car.

Mr. Emmerson cut his left hand quite severely Monday while chopping wood at his home.

Mrs. A. Slovic, of Portland, is visiting her son J. S. Slovic and family.

Margaret Slovic is planning on spending the week end with her grand mother, Mrs. A. Slovic in Portland.

Mrs. M. F. Clark who has been very low with the flu is improving.

Miss S. Emmerson is recuperating from the flu. She was ill when she returned home from North Dakota the day before Christmas and has been sick ever since.

Harry Sidwell left Sunday for Canada to visit with his mother.

Ed Norgard picked up a life preserver on the beach near Cannon Beach Sunday and turned it over to the Coast Guard to try and find if it was lost overboard or if there had been a wreck at sea. He reported it was very warm on the beach and he went out without his overcoat.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonlokke are occupying the Hanley cottage at Cannon Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ketchum of Salem were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Buck this week.

H. C. Harting had four ribs broken a week ago Saturday when his car was overturned at Oswego. At the approach of the new bridge there the auto skidded on the frosty pavement and rolled down a 40 foot embankment, wrecking it beyond repair. Mr. Harting has just recovered from the shock and is around again.

Mrs. Frank O'Connor of Reedville was operated on for appendicitis at the Smith hospital last Saturday.

Work was started this week on the road from Timber to Cochran Washington County appropriated $25,000; Tillamook $5,000 and the people of Wheeler are doing the work. When this road is completed it will leave only seven miles more to be completed from Cochran to the coast.

The Richfield Company thru their local agent F. R. Johnson gave each gas station a clock set in the spokes of a wheel of an automobile.

L. Ryggert is again employed at the Gerrow garage.

ALOHA-HUBER SCHOOL

Little Charles Maxey was taken sick at school Tuesday and he is now at home suffering from the flu. Dorothy Hagen of the first grade attended a funeral in Portland Tuesday.

Margaret Wolfe, Albert Schlottman, Fay Saxton, Boyd Phipps and Elizabeth Teschner who have been sick with the flu are now back in school.

Friday was "Toy Day" in the primary room and the children brought to school toys which they had received for Christmas. At noon Mrs. Pulver surprised them by bringing birthday. Then Mrs. Beattie came a lovely birthday cake with seven candles on it in honor of Billy's in with candy and popcorn for the children in honor of Bobbie's seventh birthday. So the little folks decided that Friday was a very jolly, happy day.

The first graders have some new silent-reading games which they are enjoying very much. They also have a sand table depicting life in the far north among the Eskimos and polar bears. It makes one shiver just to see the snow and ice.

Sewing Club number one met at the school house Tuesday after school. They are making very neat looking needle cases of velvet lined with silk. Mrs. E. E. Tuttle is the leader.

Katherine Lehnerr returned to her class in the third grade Monday after an absence of a week. She had the flu.

Jack, Clarence and June Bettis, Willie Schlottman and Jack Baker returned to school Monday after a week illness with the flu.

Eugene Schwinof is ill this week.

The children are lavish in their praise of the delicious soups served at the school.

State examinations will be held this month the exact date to be announced later.

Certificates of achievement have been received for the rabbitry club, boys camp cookery and the girls cookery class.

The Lehnerr family were all ill with the flu during Christmas week except Professor Lehnerr.

The first year cooking class met at the school house Tuesday.

Rosalie Reed and Eva Wolf returned to their studies in the seventh grade Monday after several days absence.

Mrs. Mack and Miss Grund are now staying with Mrs. Alice Wheeler during the week.

Victor Nunnenkamp was ill this week.

The third grade are making geography booklets.

Dick Benjamin spent the week end with his grandmother in Portland.

If the teachers were able to direct their classes better Monday afternoon it was because they all partook of a lovely warm mince pie which Mrs. Kearney brought for their lunch.

COUNTRY STORE EVERY WEDNESDAY AT CAPITOL THEATRE

Beginning Wednesday, January 9, the Capitol theatre at Multnomah will put on a Country Store Show every Wednesday. They will feature J. M. Hens with his free bazaar. Merchandise galore will be given away.

About 100,000 volumes are now in the University of Oregon library collection, which is growing steadily.

MULTNOMAH

Several young friends of Paul Wiedemann enjoyed dinner at his home Saturday evening after which they attended a theatre party at the Capitol Theatre in honor of his birthday anniversary.

Paul Rising was ill again Monday and had to return to his home. He had the flu and has not fully recovered.

Mrs. Ellis is slightly improved this week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Putman and daughter Margery were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pat McNary Friday.

Harry Burke expects to return from the hospital this week.

Mr. ightfoot, who has been ill for six weeks is slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kaegles and family of Portland were guests of his mother, Mrs. Kaegles, Sunday.

Russell Doescher dislocated his right thumb last week while playing basketball. This is the second time he has hurt this member. Dr. McMurray set the thumb.

Arnetta Cadouneau dislocated a finger on her left hand this week when she fell. Dr. McMurray attended her.

Mrs. Ehle is recovering from the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Kyder, of Portland, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Persells Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ruring are recovering from a severe attack of the flu.

The Young Ladies Missionary Society of the local church met at the home of Miss Helen Friedli this week.

E. A. Scovell and family spent Sunday with Bob Meyers and family at Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Pem Gault entertained at bridge Saturday evening at their home on City Avenue. Those enjoying their hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Small, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Priest, Dr. and Mrs. G. O. Forbes and Mr. and Mrs. L. Gatch Bolton. The family prize for the highest combined score was won by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis.

The January meeting of the Multnomah Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the school Wednesday afternoon, beginning with the tea hour at 2:30 in charge of Mrs. L. Wiedemann. Pupils of Miss Thompson's room will give a varied program. Mrs. G. V. Bolton, program chairman announced a speaker will also be on hand.

At the executive board meeting Tuesday afternoon those present were: Mrs. C. A. Woodworth, president; Mrs. Lola Childs, Mrs. Frank Dudley, Mrs. B. H. Branch, Mrs. G. V. Bolton, Mrs. Charles Colvin, Mrs. A. M. Doerner, Mrs. E. E. Dill, Mrs. George England, Mrs. A. Bracken and H. B. Brookhardt, principal. Plans were discussed for giving a luncheon and card party soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Pem Gault entertained Friday evening the members of a Portland bridge club to which they belong. Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. George Bendshadler, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Rainey, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Teggart, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dehnison and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson.

Mrs. C. A. Donnally was hostess to the morning study group Wednesday.

Gideon Sloan has resumed his studies at Oregon State College at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hurn and family have returned from a visit with Mrs. Hurn's parents and her sisters in Oakland.

Little Marian Lewis has been ill at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Marlatt for several days the past week.

Mrs. Glenn S. Ehle, sister-in-law of C. G. Ehle, passed away in Oakland, Saturday after an illness of about two years.

Richard Cook has returned to Corvallis after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Cook and sister Jane.

Mrs. C. G. Ehle, Mrs. Pem Gault and Mrs. I. E. Putman will attend the classes for leaders in the Girl Scouts at the library each Thursday morning, conducted by Miss Mary Ferguson. This will be a training class for leaders in second class work.

Archie Wolf, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Wolf, is at the Good Samaritan hospital where she was operated upon for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Courter entertained with a dinner and bridge party at their home in Portland Tuesday in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Courter, Mrs. C. W. Craig and A. I. Adamson whose birthdays are on the same day, other guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Guerin, Mrs. A. I. Adamson, C. W. Craig and Mason Craig.

Mrs. John Schomacker has a turkey hen that has laid 53 eggs since October 1 and is still laying. Mrs. Schomacker claims this a record for this time of year.

The regular meeting of the Fairvale Community club will be held Monday night at the club house. Officers for the coming year will be elected.

Mrs. Esther Hanson who has been quite ill was taken to the Multnomah hospital last week.

ORENOMAH CHAPTER, O.E.S. HOLD INSTALLATION MON.

Installation ceremonies of Orenomah Chapter, No. 141, O. E. S. were held in the Temple Monday evening. John A. Grant, retiring patron being master of ceremonies. Mattie J. Shrader, retiring worthy matron was the installing officer and she was assisted by past matron, Lois M. Cook as marshal, Lita Berry as organist and Carolyn Jack as chaplain. Violin numbers were played by Miss Charlotte Cobb, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. S. A. Cobb, and readings by past matron, Hazel Neen Loomis were also much enjoyed. Little Helen Moeding, daughter of the worthy patron, was the very efficient flower girl under the direction of Mrs. C. G. Ehle and Mrs. Pem Gault.

A past matron's jewel was presented to Mattie Shrader by John Grant, on behalf of the Chapter, and he in turn was presented with a past patron's jewel. Loretta Leedy presented the officers' gift to the matron and Edna Berry to the patron. Flowers and other gifts were also presented to the new officers, as well as the installing officers.

Charles F. Colvin, worshipful master of Orenomah lodge, No. 177, A. F. & A. M. offered new year's wishes from the lodge and asked for the continuance of the spirit of cooperation which has always prevailed between the two bodies.

MASONIC LODGE AND SOCIAL CLUB TO GIVE PARTY

The opening social event for 1929 in Masonic circles in Multnomah will be held in the Temple Saturday evening, January 19. The lodge and Social Club will cooperate in the plans for this party and Crystal Adamson, president of the Social Club has appointed the following committee: Edna Berry, chairman; Edith Wood, Mabel Colvin, Loretta Leedy and Edna McConnell. The committee from the lodge consists of John Grant, chairman; Oscar Svenson, Royal Berry, and E. E. Dunlap. Admission will be thirty-five cents and it is hoped all members and friends will avail themselves of this opportunity to get together for a social evening.

BURGLAR SECURES $20 IN CASH AND CIGARETTES

Jacks Barbecue at Hillsdale was entered Sunday night and a carton of cigarettes stolen, also the Johnson Motor Co. was broken into and $20 was stolen. Early Monday morning Arthur Brown, of Multnomah, aged 18, confessed to both crimes. He has already served 21 months in the reform school.

FIND STILL IN THE BASEMENT

Frank McCall was arrested late Friday night by Deputy Sheriffs following a raid on his home in the Capitol Hill district. The officers say they found a 80-gallon still in the basement.

RAISED WINDOW, LOOKED INTO BURGLARS FACES

Friday night, Mr. Scott who lives on 29th street Multnomah, went to bed but found that he could not sleep. At last he jumped out of bed and, without switching on the lights, went to the window and raised it quickly. The window did not make any noise and peering into the yard he looked into the faces of two men just outside, who evidently were just getting ready to jimmy the window. They did not wait to hear what Mr. Scott had to say but ran.

Mr. Scott is employed at the Edwards Furniture store and had been down town helping to take stock for several nights and luckily was home when the visitors decided to call on him.

A Delicious Food

A food for protein; a food for mineral salts; for calcium and phosphorus; all the essential elements for health and strength are found in good cheese. And all the essential elements of good cheese are found in Kraft Cheese.

KRAFT CHEESE

KRAFT-PHENIX CHEESE COMPANY

PIANOS and fine furniture keep their rich finish with O-Cedar Polish. It cleans as it polishes—with speed and safety. 4-oz. bottle, 30c; 12 oz., 60c.

CARL'S BARBEQUE

C. F. WEST, Prop.

Now open for Business

LISTERINE THROAT TABLETS

Antiseptic
Prevent & Relieve Hoarseness
Sore Throat
Coughs

Made by
Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., Saint Louis, U. S. A.

COUNTY REPRESENTATIVE WANTED

Make from $10 to $25 a day selling an electrically illuminated house number that can be seen from your car on the darkest night. A child can install it on your own house in 15 minutes. Send $4.00 money order for sample, giving us your own house number. Retail at $7.50.
SPHINX CORPORATION, 130-32-34 So. Western Ave., Los Angeles, California

Mission Bell Service Station

RICHFIELD GASOLINE

SHELL-UNION

For a Nice Juicy BEEF STEAK

Call

BEAVERTON 0818

CITY MEAT MARKET

THEM DAYS ARE GONE FOREVER

(A New Tune Each Day

