TIGARD GRANGE EN- DORSES JONES ACTION

Tigard Grange No. 148 approved and endorsed at their Wednesday March 6th meeting the action of W. A. Jones, master of Marion County Pomona Grange. He is asking an injunction prohibiting the payment of increase salary to the legislatures. The resolution reads as follows:

We upholding the action taken by the State Grange Legislative Committee and W. A. Jones, Master of Marion County Pomona Grange and Judge L. A. McMahon of Salem, who granted the injunction prohibiting the payment of increased emoluments of the Legislative Bodies.

Signed by G. H. Bailey, E. R. Stromquist and W. A. Root, Res. Committee.

TIGARD METHODIST CHURCH

Next Sunday our district superintendent will be with us both at the ten o'clock worship hour and also to address the Sunday school. The choir which was so well represented last Sunday will be present to sing next Sunday.

Palm Sunday and Decision Day comes March 24. Easter comes March 31. The Easter morning service as planned is as follows: The Sunday school will meet for a short session at the regular hour 10 a. m. At ten thirty they will reassemble with the congregation for a combined Sunday school and church service. Some of the young people will take part in the service, after which the pastor will deliver an Easter Message and receive a number of people into the fellowship of the church. The choir, under the direction of Miss Gilbert is preparing special Easter music.

TIGARD.

A Finley, of Portland, visited his mother, Mrs. J. R. Finley and sister, Mrs. Kinnaman Sunday. In the afternoon they all drove to Newberg to call on old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fix and five children of Woodburn have moved into the Kuchne house on Burnham Avenue.

Mrs. Mary Ross and little son of Newberg visited Mrs. Kinnaman one day last week.

F. A. Noyes and wife of Beaverton spent Thursday evening with his brother C. W. Noyes.

Ed Leuthi left Monday to accept position at The Dalles.

Doris Sackett has recovered sufficiently from the flu to be able to return to her classes at the union high school.

C. W. Noyes spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Sollers at Huber.

The ligaments in Ed Leuthi's right arm were torn loose last week while wrestling with Jack Williams. It will be some time before he will be able to wrestle.

Charles Meyer has rented the Bailey house and four acres through the C. W. Noyes office.

E. A. Johnson of Tonkin is very ill with intestinal flu. Dr. Bissett is attending him.

Arthur Ellison sustained a very painful cut in the palm of his right hand when he ran a nail into it, while working on the Tim Pahl place in the Bend district. Dr. Bissett attended him.

The Fluke family are now out of quarantine.

Mrs. Fraziers of Six Corners was able this week to return home from the hospital.

Mrs. F. R. Sibley was able to attend church services Sunday the first time since before Christmas.

J. W. Hassell has moved to Portland.

A. W. Norman moved to Oregon City last week.

Darroll Frowling is slowly recovering from a broken arm sustained last week in the Oregon State College gymnasium. Both bones in the forearm were cracked lengthwise.

Mrs. A. Schubring and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Biederman were joined at Monmouth Sunday by Miss Virginia Parks and all drove on to Corvallis where Mr. and Mrs. Biederman visited her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Garvin and the balance of the crowd spent the day with Mildred Wall at O. S. C. They returned late Sunday night.

Roadmaster O'Mara has a crew working on the Macadam road near Beaverton. The gravel is being hauled from Durham rock crusher. Owing to the severe frost and snow storms this winter most of the roads in the county will have to be repaired because when thawing the roads cracked leaving ruts.

Mrs. H. H. O'Kelly entertained at a very attractive St. Patrick party last Thursday the following ladies and Mesdames: Salmon, Vincent, Brooks, Christensen, Jones, Butler, Chas. Tigard, John Tigard, Ariss, Mrs. Fred Cook and daughter Ruth and Mrs. H. McDonald.

VALUABLE PIECE OF WIRE LOST

One of the most noted of the Fivesomes of Tigard lost a very valuable piece of wire Monday. It seems the wire was lying on the floor but when the owner turned around to pick it up the wire was gone. A careful search of the premises failed to reveal a trace and the poor man now believes a ghost spirited it away.

PUBLIC MEMORY

You may have been in business fifty years and the people know about it. But they forget—new customers are being born every minute and they grow up and have to be told.

A Note to Merchants

Unless you keep telling them by Advertising what you have to offer them, the fellow who has only been in business fifty weeks and who advertises intelligently will prove to you the truth of it.

YOU MUST TELL THEM TO SELL THEM

THEM DAYS ARE GONE FOREVER
