TIGARD HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The winners of the popularity contest sponsored by the Hi-Spots last week and the prizes awarded them were:

Most beautiful girl, Juanita Fiske, box of candy, with compliments of Kruger's confectionery; most handsome boy, Clark Williams, shaving set, from Tigard Pharmacy; most popular girl, Cecilia Frison, box of stationery from Carlson and Sherk's, Sherwood; most popular boy, Douglas Leedy, flashlight from Tigard Electric Shop.

These winners were announced and the prizes awarded at the close of a clever skit given by the Hi-Spots staff last Thursday afternoon.

The skit was a court scene with Iness Bross, editor, as queen; Douglas Leedy, assistant editor, as king; and the rest of the staff as their retinue. After the king and his wise men (Sidewise, Lengthwise, and Otherwise) had settled several vexing questions, the court was entertained by the following:

Lady Suzanna, harpist, Suzanne Johnson; Mme. Human Shank, opera star, Irene Benson; Samson the Great champion strong man, Bill Fisher; Edward Tootenhorn, Esq., trumpeter, Edward Finley; Tweedleedun Twins, musicians, Patsy and Helen O'Neil.

The herald then read the queen's proclamation, announcing the winners of the various prizes. Besides those elected in the popularity contest, the tallest, largest, most bashful, etc., were named, their prizes being furnished by Talent's Variety Store and Schubring and Biederman's.

After the program Thursday, Miss Wesch, commercial teacher, awarded typing pins to the following:
