HEARD AT RECESS

It Doesn't Vanish

Clifford A: This vanishing cream is a fake.
 Mr. Sackett: How come?
 Clifford A: I've used it on my nose every night for two weeks, and it's just as long as ever.

Do We Hear

Mrs. Nielsen: Use the word "banquets" in a sentence.

Leonard B: When the band quits the music stops.

It Came Out

Adeline L: They say if there is anything in a man, travel will bring it out.

George B: You tell 'em; So I found out the first day of my sea trip.

BENEFIT DANCE PROMISES TO BE GREAT SUCCESS

The dance being given Saturday for the benefit of the Tigard Baseball team promises to be a great success if the advance ticket sale means anything. The Tigard Athletic Club is sponsoring this affair to raise money to put the baseball team in the league and buy their suits and necessary equipment. The T. A. C. hall floor over the 20th Century has been put in fine condition and the music will be furnished by Carl's five pieces you have heard so many times over KXL with Carl Schamoni as director.

TIGARD GRADE GIRLS ARE REAL CHAMPIONS

Going through the season without a defeat, and beating schools with several times our enrollment, the Tigard grade girls can justly lay claim to a championship rating. They twice defeated Milwaukie Junior high school champions of Clackamas county and Newberg, champions of Yamhill county, and all Washington county teams. Coach L. A. Gooding and the players are entitled to generous praise for their splendid work.

KATHERINE MALSOM
