ST. CECILIA CHURCH

Rev. J. M. O'Neill, pastor.
Week-day mass 8:20 a. m.
Sunday masses, 7:45 and 10 a. m.

BETHEL CHURCH

April 14th is Missionary Sunday in our church. The morning theme will be "Missions-or an Inspiration". The loose free will offering will be dedicated to home and foreign missions in the Sunday school and church service.

Bethel church is uniting with the four Protestant churches of Beaverton in the four union evangelistic services which begin in the Nazarene church on Sunday, April 14th. All members are urged to attend this special services and unite in this practical demonstration of Christian Unity. The evening meetings will be omitted in this special series of union church services but all other activities meet at the usual time.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

A special effort is being made for a large attendance next Sunday. A special musical feature will be presented by Zelma and Elsworth Hooker, playing the piano, accordion and the banjo. They have been heard over the radio in Beaverton by a few; now hear them without the radio. You will want to hear this. They will play at the bible school hour which begins at 9:45.

The morning sermon is on "God's Dynamite."

The C. E. will meet at 7:00. Something different—Come, young people. Union services of all four protestant churches will be held at the Nazarene church this Sunday evening. These will be worth your while. Welcome.

Oscar A. Cooper, pastor
