SHAHAPTA-MAPLEWOOD FLOWER SHOW HUGE SUCCESS

Many Ribbons Won by Entries—Plan to Hold Show in June

Tulips, huge colorful, glowing ones and pale, stately beauties greeted you as you entered the Maplewood Sunday school building last Saturday where the Shahapta-Maplewood Garden club had arrayed the room like a fairy flower garden with its first annual spring flower exhibit.

Tables down the sides of the room and through the center were filled with baskets, vases and bowls of flowers. The tulips attracted the most attention. Grenadier, a wide open flower as large as a tea plate, was like a flaming sunset. There were Darwins and Cottage tulips in a number of varieties fully five inches long.

The $5 worth of gladiolus bulbs, donated by C. G. Ehle, for the best vase or basket of tulips of one kind and color were won by Mrs. Steve Claghorn. The $3 worth of tulip bulbs, donated by Mr. Ehle, for the most artistic basket of mixed flowers were won by the Multnomah Garden club. An assortment of perennials, donated by Fred Borsch, for best bowl of anemones were won by Mrs. A. I. Adamson. Another assortment of perennials, donated by Mr. Borsch, were won by Jimmie Butler for his pansies.

Beeman won a blue ribbon on her luncheon table exhibit which was very attractive with its center floral decoration of blue for-get-me-nots and apple blossoms, ivory damask cloth, ivory dishes with a wide blue band trim and ivory candles.

Mrs. Royden Wheeler won a red ribbon for her luncheon table. Red ribbons were also won by Mesdames J. J. McCuen, E. C. Thayer, J. D. Claghorn, A. I. Adamson, H. J. Macdonald, J. H. Odonald, H. L. Clarke, Baker, N. R. Keyser and Margaret Hanson, Margaret Wendlund, Margaret Newell.

Commercial growers who had displays were William H. Borsch and Son, George Butler, E. J. Berneche and Son, Fair Oaks Bull Gardens of Woodburn, Oregon, and A. H. Wendlund.

48 registered for entry and many exhibited in the different classes at the close of the show flowers were taken to the sick and shut-ins in the neighborhood and the Veterans hospital by Mr. and Mrs. F. Beebe.

The plant and seed sale with Mrs. Robert VanLone chairman, cleared $10. The proceeds will be used towards paying the expenses of the June show which the club plans to hold, with Mrs. J. D. Claghorn and the same committees in charge of arrangements, after the Rose Festival at the home of Mrs. J. D. Claghorn at Shahapta station.

An exhibit will be sent to the Portland Rose show by the Garden club.

ANOTHER CALF CLUB FORMED IN COUNTY

Sam Hult, Washington County Guernsey breeder, last week organized a Guernsey calf club. The five members of this club have Guernsey calves. They elected Edith McCabe, president, Curtis Hult, vice-president and Dwight Hult, secretary. The other two members are James Robinson and Robert Wilson. Mr. Hult is the local leader.

Two other calf clubs have been organized recently, announces W. F. Cyrus, assistant county agent. The Helvetia-Jackson Club, led by J. L. Vatchelder, and the Washington County Holstein Club. The Helvetia-Jackson club has five members. The Holstein club has six members, all owning pure-bred Holstein calves.

E. A. Griffith, cashier of the North Plains Commercial Bank, has offered five dollars in gold to the highest scoring calf club boy or girl in the Helvetia-Jackson Club and the Rock Creek Club.

There are now over 220 4H club members in Washington county enrolled in livestock and crop club work. No more livestock clubs will be organized after May 15. Club-organized after that time will not have time to complete the work for one year.

CHILDREN COOPERATING IN BEAUTIFICATION WORK

Schools are being enlisted in the Beautification week campaign and Roy Cannon, county school superintendent is visiting all his schools to urge cooperation. C. S. Stowe, chairman of this territory is also visiting the schools and Community clubs.

The Fairvale school, where the principal Mrs. Florence Haaves, has trained the pupils so not even a scrap of paper can be found on the grounds is receiving high praise. The Multnomah Boosters club has a boy to keep up paper picked up on the streets.

Mrs. C. B. Lewis is sponsoring the campaign in her district, West Portland and Taylor Ferry Road, Mrs. W. A. Gill the Shattuck and Maplewood district and Mrs. C. E. Grelle, Green Hills.

A dog riding in the machine of C. S. Stowe caused an accident on the Terwilliger Boulevard Saturday that wrecked the car and injured the passengers.

Mrs. M. L. McConnell, Portland, driver of the car run off the highway and hit a lamp-post when the dog jumped from the rear seat to the front seat.

Mrs. Stowe, wife of C. S. Stowe, suffered chest injuries and had to have several stitches taken in her head and knee. Another woman riding in the car, whose name was not learned, was thrown from the car and sustained two broken ribs. Mrs. McConnell is a sister of Mrs. C. B. Lewis was badly bruised and shaken up.

Two baby girls were ushered into this world by Dr. Mason the last week. On May 10 a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Emery L. VanKleeck, of Route 3, and on May 15, a girl arrived to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Hynning, of Clackamas, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jack Davies. "OREGON MOTHERS" FORM STATEWIDE ORGANIZATION

"Oregon Mothers" gained a place on par with "Oregon Dads" when they formed their own statewide organization, similar in purpose to that of the dads, while on the campus for the annual Mothers' Dad Week-end and Junior Week-end, May 10, 11 and 12.

Mothers of Oregon students from Multnomah all belong to the new organization. Those from Multnomah who were here on the campus for the many week-end functions included Mrs. N. Berry.

Mrs. Walter Cook, Portland, was elected president of the organization at a mothers, sons and daughters banquet, held Saturday evening, which was attended by 1025 mothers and children. Mrs. John Runyon, Roseburg, was elected vice-president; Mrs. Wilson Javett, Eugene, secretary. Executive committee members are Mrs. J. F. Hill, Mrs. C. D. Bodine, Mrs. Herman Schade, Mrs. Wallace Shearer, Mrs. Treve Jones, Mrs. Frank Heitkemper, Mrs. W. B. Crane, Mrs. George Peters and Mrs. Phil Metschan, all of Portland; Mrs. W. J. Seufert, Roseburg; Mrs. Emil E. Judd, Roseburg; Mrs. Charles Hall, Marshfield, Mrs. Colon Eberhard, La Grande, and Mrs. Ray Logan, Seaside.

The mothers showed even greater enthusiasm than the dads, who organized here a year and a half ago. The banquet was the largest in the state outside Portland and taxed the facilities of the Gerlinger building.

"The Development of your children is our joint concern," said Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president of the university. The development and perpetuation of home ties and influences is of tremendous importance if the university is to nourish those ideals that must permeate student life in the educational process to produce the best results. We look upon the mothers to aid in keeping intact these influences and in building such an atmosphere here.

Mothers, university and students were represented in talks at the banquet. Vespers services, teas and other events were arranged in honor of the mothers on their visit.

So successful was the combined Mothers Week-end and Junior Week-end that this may be an annual affair hereafter. Annually, mothers will be invited to the campus on Mothers' Day to receive the warm tribute of their sons and daughters and the university.
