By Arthur A. Crosby

She doesn't approve of war. She never understood why the government would ask her husband to go away from home to fight.

Speaking of strong men, the Literary Digest reprints an item from The Field, an English publication, which follows:

Mrs. Knowlton says that there were tanks before the war—her husband was one of them.

Well, the fact that the wife mistook her husband for a burglar was no excuse for her missing him and shooting the cook instead.

We wonder which is the harder job, that of Sidney Franklin fighting the bull in Spain, or that of Daves fighting Johnny Bull in England?

These wise authorities agree that the child problem is a home problem. This is all right, but, in the first place, most of our child problems or problem children are seldom home.

Now is the time for all good men to get their umbrellas mended.

Great men said these things: Geo. Washington—"Where's my hat?" John Quincy Adams—"It looks like rain." Napoleon Bonaparte—"Button up your coat." Socrates—"I feel tired this morning." Plato—"I wonder where the cook went to." Caesar—"Order dinner for me and Cleo." Mark Antony—"Cleo, what did Caesar say to you last night?" Henry the Eighth—"Annie, why bring that up?" Henry Clay—"This quill doesn't write well." Thomas Jefferson—"Did you play that ace?" Shakespeare—"How much is this piece of beef?" General Grant—"Give me a light for my cigar." Henry Ford—"Where did I lay that pencil?"

Now we have the suggestion that children should be taken from their parents and placed in the care of experts. Well, the next suggestion is that every husband be taken from his wife and placed in the hands of experts, and every wife be taken from her husband and placed in the care of experts. In that way we shall have a perfect civilization. But who shall take care of the experts.

We see by the Oregon Voter that Oregon is a dead state, that Washington and California are alive, and that apparently there is no reason for the vitality of the two states beyond our borders and the lifelessness of our state. But no suggestion is offered of any plan whereby Oregon can be made as alive as these other states are.

That reminds us of Jimmy Brown, who went to his teacher bawling.

"What's the matter, Jimmy?" she asked.

"My folks ain't got any milk, but Billy Smith's folks have."

"Is that so?"

"Yes it's so. My folks ain't got any milk, but Bobby Green's folks have."

"That's too bad."

"Yes, it's too bad. Tommy White's folks have milk, too, though we ain't got any."

"Come," said the teacher. "Why have they milk and your folks haven't any?"

"They've got cows, and we haven't any cows," blurted the boy.

Well, the point of our argument is, if the other states are living on honey and milk, and we are living without those good things of life, suppose we make a move to get a cow and some bees.

But it doesn't matter how much more alive Washington and California are than Oregon, the Portland baseball team is more alive at present than several teams in those other states.

September 12 to be Children's Day at Fair

The members of the County Fair Board C. D. Minton, Pres., H. T. Hesse, 1st vice-pres., Robt. Banks, 2nd vice-president, and Supt. of Schools N. A. Frost, believe that the livestock, poultry, agriculture, grains, and 4-H club exhibits at the Washington county fair will fill the buildings to capacity this year and arrangements are being provided for extra space.

The following business concerns have contracted for space in the industrial section:

Portland Electric Power Co.
Portland Gas & Coke Co.
Carnation Milk Products Co.
Ireland Hardware Co.
The C. C. Store.
Pool-Gardner Lumber Co.
Washington County Bankers Assn.
Weil's Department Store.
The Argus.
Millers Department Store.
Selfridge Bros.
Hillsboro Feed Co.
Imperial Feed Co.
The Palm Drug Store.

Oregon, Washington Water Service.
K. A. Price, Radio and Electric Co.
Big "B" Radio.

Maytag Washing Machine Co.
Haley Chicken Canning Factory.
Announcement of the exhibits in the Automobile Section will be made later.

The business and Professional Women's Club of Hillsboro will sponsor and manage the annual Twin Contest.

Thursday, September 12th, is Washington County School Day at the County Fair at Hillsboro. Admission is free to all grade school children on that day and it is expected that the schools of the county will be dismissed so that children and teachers can attend. In the neighborhood of 400 or more 4-H club members will have exhibits of Sewing, Canning and Farm crops and Stock.

Several of the clubs will make a public demonstration of the way they handle calves, pigs and sheep. A program to be given in the Auditorium on School Day is being arranged and ten or more different schools will have from ten to fifteen minutes for their numbers. Music will be provided by the Tualatin School Band and the 25 piece Newberg Band. Field sports for both girls and boys will be a feature of the day and includes running, jumping, wrestling, and other events with cash prizes to the winners. N. A. Frost, County School Supt. who has charge of the School Day Program is making every effort to make the day of educational value as well as pleasure.

John Johnson

Word was received Monday of the death of John Johnson, father of Otto Johnson of Garden Home, at Rockaway.

Mr. Johnson, who was 73 years of age, was born in Germany coming to this country 54 years ago and for the past twelve years residing at Portland.

Besides the son at Garden Home, Mr. Johnson is survived by his wife, Anna Johnson, and the following sons and daughters: Ellen O. and Harry G. Johnson, Mrs. Grace Teschner, Mrs. Nettie Kimmel, Mrs. Rose Giese, Mrs. Emma Beltz of Portland; Mrs. Mary Schappert of Reedsville; Mrs. Lena Nunnkamp of Tigard; John Johnson of Metzger. A sister, Mrs. Simon Peters, lives at Oswego.

Services were held Wednesday at one o'clock at the First German Baptist church and interment was at Rose City cemetery.

HUBER COUPLE WEDS

N. A. Hamm and Viola May Sundberg of Huber, were married last Saturday by Rev. H. S. Haller at the home of Miss Cora Ware in Hillsboro. Mr. Hamm conducts the Washington Hotel barber shop while his bride is well known in the tax department of the Sheriff's office.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Frink and daughter, Betty Ann, of Seattle and Mrs. Charles Engles, of Tacoma, spent the week end visiting with their father, P. Smith. Mr. Frink is manager of the Washington Iron Works of Seattle.

18 YEARS OF SERVICE IN THIS COMMUNITY

WINFIELD E. PEGG

Winfield E. Pegg, who has often been called the "father of Beaverton" because of his close connection with the social and business life of Beaverton. Mr. Pegg has been Mayor of Beaverton four times and has held several other offices as well.

This well known personage was born in Wisconsin April 12, 1870, and in 1891 was wed to Miss Della Strain. In 1907 the couple moved to Forest Grove and in 1910 to Beaverton. Mr. Pegg's first business venture was the Bank of Beaverton where he was connected for three years and in 1913 he established the present undertaking business which he has conducted ever since.

Five children from the union of this young couple were all educated in the schools of Beaverton.

Known throughout the eastern end of the county, his unflinching tact and sympathy have endeared him to many people, who in time of sorrow and death always turn to him to care for their loved ones.

TUNNEL-HIGHWAY MEETING PLANNED FOR CHAMPOEG

To advertise the West Hills tunnel, a caravan will leave Fairvale at 10:00 o'clock Sunday, August 25, for Champoe, passing through Garden Home, Metzger, Greenburg and Tigard.

Those desiring to go are asked to join the caravan enroute.

At Champoe the meeting will be addressed by several speakers. Governor Patterson, Senator McNary, and Congressman Hawley will be present.

Every one is invited to attend the meeting, which will give an opportunity for the most effective presentation of the tunnel project.

STREET SIGNS TO BE ERECTED BY CLUB

The Kiwanis Club have placed an order for 225 markers for the various streets in Beaverton and hope to have them all erected by the first of the week. The boards will be painted blue with white lettering and will be about 20 inches long and 4 inches wide.

Plans are also underway for larger markers to be erected at the entrance to the town.

BIDS WANTED FOR DIGGING DITCH

The City of Beaverton is advertising for bids for the digging of a sewer ditch running along Front street from Watson to Angel, a length of 175 feet. Bids will be opened Monday, August 26.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MAE McKEOWN

Winifred Thoms entertained last week with a farewell party for Mae McKeown, who plans to leave soon for Missouri to spend the winter with relatives. Those in attendance were Margaret Haines, Eva Prink, Charlotte and Vera Allison, Mary Antrim, Lucille Johnston, Wilma Tuttle, Evelyn and Henrietta Hawley, Pauline Kinnaman, Dorothy Adams and Esther McKeown.

Do you know that Thyng serves Hot Dogs and light lunches.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Anderson and family of Portland, were guests at the H. L. Price home Sunday.

High Score Made By Service Dairy

Commissioner Mickle awarded the Service Dairy of Aloha a very high score of 4.1 per cent on the last test made by the dairy. Recently Mr. J. D. Mickle, dairy and food commissioner, made a special trip to Mr. Capelle's creamery to inquire and investigate how this test was always kept high. On arrival there he found everything in the most sanitary condition and quite readily put forth compliments a plenty.

Mr. Capelle has sixteen years experience of dairy work in Wisconsin and Oregon, having a state license to test cheeses, butter, etc. He manufactures cottage cheese now but plans to increase the output of different varieties of cheese as his business develops.

RUTH LUNDGREN HONORED AT PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. John Lundgren entertained recently with a surprise party in honor of their daughter Ruth's birthday. About sixty young people were present. The evening was spent in dancing and games at the close of which lovely refreshments were served. Many beautiful gifts were received.

SPECIAL MEETING HELD BY CLUB

The proper set up and proper backing makes the tunnel a reality according to Ben Riesland, at the special meeting of the Fairvale Community club at the club house Wednesday night. Mr. Riesland further stated that the tunnel will be built on a solid and sound basis. No attempt will be made to start operations until the engineers, Modjeski, Masters and Chase, determine the feasibility of the project and its final cost.

It will be definitely known that the tunnel can and will be completed before any preliminary work is started.

John W. Cullen pointed out the need and importance of roads into Portland.

A joint meeting will be held Sunday at Champoe of tunnel boosters and the Champoe Historical Highway association.

A caravan will leave the club house at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Any one may join enroute, which will be through Garden Home, Metzger, and Tigard. Each family or group will take a basket lunch sufficient for their needs.

The object of the Champoe Historical Highway association is to build a direct road from Salem to Portland. A number of important state officials are expected to attend the meeting.

The historical value of the park is well worth the drive, but a special program has been arranged for Sunday.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR MRS. WOODWARD

A surprise party was given on Mrs. B. J. Woodward, Thursday afternoon at her home. Cards were played and Mrs. Anderson won first prize and Mrs. Rhose the consolation. Those present were: Mesdames John Dobbins, McKercher, B. K. Denny, Young, Ed Boring, Fronie Hughson, Riggs, Boil, Boyd, Ernest Tefft, James Pinder, C. C. Beach, and Mrs. Woodward.

Alexander Peaches for pickling $1.25 a crate. Beach's Market.

P. M. MADDEN TAKES PARTNER

P. M. Madden has taken into his real estate business as partner, J. W. Peabody of Forest Grove, who is very well known in the county having resided on a large ranch near Forest Grove for some time.

A real estate transaction made through the Madden office this week was the trading of the R. W. Jackson place of 2 acres and a modern house to Fred Reidlinger of Portland. The Reidlinger's took possession immediately and the Jackson family moved into the Reidlinger $6000 home in Portland.

KIWANIS CLUB MEETS TO DISCUSS NEW ROAD

Tigard was well represented at the Wednesday meeting of the Beaverton Kiwanis Club, as a means of boosting the new proposed market road. R. L. Sackett, C. F. Tigara, and C. W. Noyes very ably put forth the wish of Tigard residents for this long wanted road improvement between Beaverton and Tigard, and requested that the route follow the railroad track into Tigard by way of the depot instead of Kinton as first planned.

Commissioner Livermore and county engineer La France were also present, to outline the proposed road. The latter objected to the request, stating in explanation that it would be quite impossible to develop both sides of the road as to business houses, but suggested that the road enter Tigard one block from the track, or connect with either the Greenburg, Walnut avenue or Fanno roads.

Several of the Kiwanis members plan to accompany Messrs Livermore and La France to Tigard next Tuesday to confer with the merchants. At this meeting the routes will be gone over and a definite decision made as to which will be the best route.

Next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday. This will be ladies night and wives and friends are expected to attend. The Misses Betty Jane and Mary Jane Sheldon, talented musicians of Portland will appear. They are well known here as they have been heard over KOIN several times each week.

LAST BUILDING MOVED AT ALOHA

The removal of the Aloha Lumber Company building completes the preparatory work of widening of the highway at Aloha. The building is to be placed on the back of the lot next door giving a 67 foot frontage. The dirt and rock piled on the highway is to be used to fill in the road next to the building.

W. D. Clark, division engineer for the State Highway Commission was in Aloha yesterday and awarded a contract to F. L. Hewitt to move the Huber Commercial Club building north to a new location further back from the highway in accordance with the widening program. The Huber Club plans to build a kitchen and make improvement as soon as the structure is moved.
