Trading Post

"An Irishman and a Swede" conduct the Trading Post at 354 East Broadway, Portland. They are two of a kind, the Irishman sings like Chauncey Olcott, and the Swede like Jenny Lind. This is the duet they sing: "A little cash, a little trade—And the deal is made." This firm buys sells or trades anything. They carry a stock consisting of office supplies, stoves, vacuum cleaners, etc. The post can accommodate you and it is not every day you can deal with an Irish-Swede combination.

Operations Avoided

Dr. Chan 249 1/2 Burnside, in his ad this week in this publication, gives you an idea of obtaining relief for your ailments without the necessity of an operation.

His remedies are harmless in their nature, being entirely free from drugs and poisons. Their composition is of selected medicinal roots, herbs, buds and barks, grown in the Orient. These compositions possess wonderful curative qualities and are in use by hundreds of persons suffering a variety of ills.

Dr. Chan treats diabetes, goiter, istula, scrofula catarrh asthma, lung, throat, liver kidney, blood, stomach and other ailments.

Kelly Bros. Furnaces

Located at E. 34th and Yamhill St., in Portland, is a Prominent Furnace Concern, featuring the well Recommended Gabriel Furnace

In past years man was satisfied and managed to keep warm, in a way by heat from a fireplace built within the walls of the home. First warming his back, then one side, and so on until his entire body had consumed a portion of the heat derived from his crude device.

In later years during the period of the stove for heating man was convinced that the acme of perfection had been reached from the heating standpoint.

But the Gabriel Furnace of today not only heats one room but distributes heat uniformly over the entire house, regulated at the will of the family.

The Gabriel furnace is sold in this section by Kelly Bros. of Portland. It costs less to operate, less for repairs than any other plant, barring none. The Gabriel is built to give economical service all the time and is not an experiment.

It is so well known that it adds more than it costs as a selling or
