HOME POINTERS

(School of Home Economics O.-S.-C.)

When buying lamb for roasting, it is economical to buy a whole shoulder or leg, even though that is more than is needed, because the roast lamb is one of the best meats for slicing cold.

As many a housewife has found to her sorrow, an egg which has been preserved in water glass explodes when cooked in the shell.
This is no reflection on the quality of the egg, however, explains the home economics department of the Oregon State college. It is simply caused by the fact that the egg, being coated with water glass, the steam, caused by heating the water in the egg, is unable to escape through the pores and, naturally, explodes. This can be prevented by pricking the end of the egg with a pin before cooking.

Cold lunches, carried day after day, are never very attractive, but an element of surprise will add a great deal of interest to little Billy's school lunch, says the home economics department of Oregon State college. One wise mother accomplishes this by including a surprise package containing a few nuts, raisins, dates, figs, a special cookie or tart, animal crackers, or some other favorite article of food. The "surprise" of course, is always to be saved till last.

Crystallization does not spoil honey, or even indicates that it is of poor grade, points out the home economics department of Oregon State college, although some varieties of honey crystallize more easily than others. Low temperatures or sudden changes of temperature tend to cause crystallization. Honey that has crystallized can be liquefied by placing the jar in warm water or putting the honey in the top of a double boiler.

HITEON

Hiteon began early to celebrate Hallowe'en when the Misses Grace and Mabel Behn entertained their friends Saturday evening at the home of their uncle H. L. Robinson.
The house was appropriately decorated and the guests came in fancy masked costumes. "Spooky" games were enjoyed by all and especially the "dead man's parts" which were passed around accompanied by numerous squeals. A lovely lunch was served at a late hour. Those present were: Misses P. Line West, Lucille Hite, Evelyn Hite, Ruth Halderman, Helen Halderman, Ethel North, Vivian Nelson, Elizabeth Struthers, Helen Godfrey Irene Hansen, Grace Behn, Mable Behn, and Messrs Connie West, Joe Flint, Robert Hulland, Melvin Hansen, Wilbur Hansen, Vincent Olson, Lowell Kahler, Henry Metzentine, Lloyd Metzentine and Kenneth Struthers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carlstead and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carlstead of Powell Valley were Sunday callers at the L. M. Davies home.

Mrs. Innes had the misfortune to fall down the basement steps last week hurting her side quite badly.

Mrs. J. W. Meats gave a birthday dinner Sunday for her son Joseph.

The Misses Ruth and Helen Halderman are visiting at the H. L.
Robinson home.

Henry Davies asked the first and second grades to his home Sunday to help him celebrate his seventh birthday. The following children spent the afternoon playing games and enjoyed the birthday lunch with the cake and seven candles. Hazel Olson, Dorothy Ditley, Betty and Gladys Anbian, Buddy Hite and Archie and Henry Davies.

Mrs. Cora Metzentine entertained the Rebecca club Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Anbian and family have moved on the Webber tract.
This adds another pupil to our school.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bacon and Curtis Bacon of Bull Run were Sunday dinner guests at the Struthers home.

Annual DAD'S DAY at Oregon!

HAZELDALE

The Hazeldale Literary society held a very enjoyable closed meeting on Tuesday evening, October 24.
The president, Mrs. Lemmon, appointed the following committees: Open meeting, Mrs. J. Douglas, Mrs.
Max Berger, M. C. Prink; closed meetings, Miss Jean Smith, Arthur Syverson, Emie Matheral; social committee, Mrs. W. P. Brooks, Mrs.
Matheral and Mrs. H. Schoene.
Plans are under way for a dance to be given by the society in November.
Organization of a glee club was started under the direction of Mrs.
Clifford Prink. The social part of the evening was very successfully handled by Mrs. Durban, Mrs. Douglas and Eddie Berger. The school house was prettily decorated for the occasion with black and orange streamers and large Jack-o-lanterns.
Readings were given by Miss Laura Ramsby and Miss Jean Smith. Mrs.
Clifford Prink sang a solo. A novelty number "Ghost Walk" was presented by several boys, assisted by Mrs. Prink and Miss Smith. Hallowe'en refreshments, consisting of pumpkin pie, doughnuts and cider were served by the committee. The next meeting will be open, on November 12. It will be "Hogan's Night" and promises to be interesting and entertaining. Mrs. C. Birds-ell will be the soloist. Remember, open meeting, Tuesday, November 12 at 8.

Eddie Berger left Sunday for Timber, Oregon, where he will be employed in the Southern Pacific round house.

Miss Jean Smith is now convelescing at her home after a serious illness last week at St. Vincent's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cameron, J.
C. Smith and Jean Smith, attended the concert of Harry Lauder, comedian, at the auditorium in Portland last week.

A large crowd attended the meeting at the school house on Friday evening regarding electric lights. A representative from the Portland Electric Power company of Hillsboro, gave a talk. A line has been proposed from the Hazeldale store to the Aloha crossroads and south from there to the Beecher Doughty property.

Mrs. Houseman, who is making her home with her brother, Arthur Mills, fell last week and broke her wrist.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kittrell of Portland were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Griffiths on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. VesBany had as guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. M.
Pizer and family of Molalla, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Taylor and Willard Livermore, of Portland.

The Hazeldale school will be closed Thursday and Friday, October 31 and November 1, on account of the Teachers Institute.

Miss Eleanor Warner and Mrs.
Howard Jones of Portland spent the week end with Miss Grace Ayers.

Miss Grace Ayers entertained a group of her friends with a delightful Hallowe'en party on Saturday evening. Four tables of bridge were in play. The rooms were very prettily decorated in a novel way and the Hallowe'en idea was carried out through the evening. A large black cat and a witch with her cauldron of brew were features of the decoration. A life sized ghost with a Jacko-lantern in hand welcomed guests at the gate. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess. Several of the guests were teachers from Rose City Park school, where Miss Ayers has taught until being transferred to Multnomah this year.
