FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

N. P. JOHNSON

VOTERS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY you will soon be called upon to nominate officers for the various county and state offices, and it is for you to make the decision as to whom you consider best fitted for the various positions.

I feel that with my years of experience in construction work, and being able to estimate costs of construction whether it be roads, bridges or buildings, I am in a position to serve the county as County Commissioner in a manner that will be to the best interests of the taxpayers and county at large.

Certainly Washington County needs to move forward, with all its resources and next door to the largest city and port of the state we are still fifth in population, when we should have been second place at least.

Are we going to move forward, or remain where we are?

Direct and well maintained routes of transportation, of which we are at present in great need, are essential for the development of any community city county or state.

For County Judge

The results of my services as County Judge of Washington county during the past term justify me in asking for reelection.

Washington County in one of the few Counties of Oregon which has no bonded indebtedness. I have always advocated the plan of "paying our way as we go;" and that our tax money should be expended directly in behalf of the public rather than to pay interest upon bonded indebtedness. The Washington County Court House was not constructed until the County had money in the bank to make full payment.

Our road program has been carefully worked out, and we are beginning to obtain results. I submit that it is not good business to take a chance on disturbing our present program by changing personnel of the County Court.

I have devoted full time and attention to the office and in addition to County matters, have been called upon to look after the probate work of the County which runs into thousands of dollars. I point with pride to the fact that every decision made by me in connection with estates which have been appealed to the higher courts have been sustained.

I ask for the support of the voters of Washington County upon the basis of my record, and I promise to continue to exercise my best efforts in behalf of all of the people of the County and to render conscientious service.
