All Coney Islands have their roller coasters but none can surpass The Oaks Park zip in action this year. Faster, giddier and more thrilling than ever before, its hectic steel pathway offers the greatest thrill on earth to the patron this year. Everybody says so—and then re-ride the fool thing just to unwind the zip zipped into one by a tour of its course.

Tickets at the zip box-office this season are 15 cents and if you don't get $1.50 worth of speed in the 90 second trip, you ain't human. It is so, too, to lay in a pint bottle of Sloan's Liniment in your picnic basket, too, before you climb aboard as those switchbacks, spinning curves and triple loops will claim your bones as gravitation does its stuff. It tosses you upward, scoots you down twists you this way and irons you in that and you enjoy the process. The zip is a pin—and we don't mean maybe.
