4-H Corn Show to be Held October 11

4-H club corn show sponsored by the Commercial National bank of Hillsboro will be held Saturday October 11 in the bank lobby.

E. N. Bressman, associate agronomist Oregon State college, will place the exhibits and determine the awards based on corn and records shown by 4-H corn club members. Awards will be made on the basis of 25 per cent for records and 75 per cent for the 25-ear exhibit shown.

The Commercial Bank is offering $60.00 in prizes covering twelve placings.

M. E. Schulmerich, assistant cashier is cooperating with W. S. Averill, assistant county agent in arranging details of the day's program.

The Hillsboro Grange is planning a dinner at which 4-H corn club members exhibiting at the bank will be guests. Speaking and other features will make up the day's program.

Volunteers Build Grange Hall at Cedar Mills

For the past four months members of Grange No. 339 at Cedar Mills have been busy constructing a new grange hall. The structure is now practically complete. It represents a value of $5,000. The work was ably directed by H. R. Findley, master of the grange. When the building is completed it will be one of the nicest grange halls in the county and is to be used for community gatherings as well as lodge purposes. Much of the material and practically all of the labor was donated.

Hit and Run Driver Strikes road Grader

A hit and run driver in a truck struck the grader standing along the Canyon road near Sylvan Wednesday of last week and tearing a wheel off. The road crew trailed the truck as far as Reedville and forced him to stop. They phoned the traffic officer, who placed the truck driver under arrest. The case was held in Judge Hedge's court at Beaverton Monday and the driver was fined $35.

Immense Throng attend New School Dedication

A huge crowd attended the dedication of the magnificent new edifice of St. Mary's of the Valley Sunday afternoon. It is estimated that between four thousand and five thousand attended the event. At 2 p. m. the structure was officially dedicated by Archbishop Howard. Thousands of people were present and listened attentively to the speaker's brief but well chosen talk.

Immediately after the dedication the building was thrown open for inspection by the public. From that time until 5:30 thousands of people were conducted through the modern and high class structure which is the latest and embraces the best in school construction.

The building was formally opened for school Monday and the old building constructed in 1896 is now forsaken.

L. R. Aldrich, of Billings, Mont., spent Saturday at the Davton Peck home. He will be joined in San Francisco by Mrs. Aldrich and they will start on a tour of the world.

The enrollment at the high school reached the 200 mark.

The football team left Friday morning at 7:15 for Tillamook to play the high school there.

Cathryn Van Kleeck Celebrates 9th Birthday

Nine little girls were entertained by Mrs. W. R. Van Kleeck Friday afternoon in honor of her daughter's birthday. Cathryn, who was nine years old received many lovely gifts. The afternoon was spent playing games after which refreshments were served.

Cars Smash at Junction

Two accidents happened at the intersection of Cedar street and Tualatin highway this week. Monday evening a Sherman, Clay Co. truck was knocked on its side when hit by a touring car. It was reported that the truck turned across the intersection without having the right of way. Tuesday evening two touring cars crashed when the driver of one was blinded by the sun. One car was practically demolished. None of the occupants in either smash up were injured seriously.

Officers of United West Side Club Attend Booster Luncheon

Geo. W. Lippert, president, and Henry L. Davenport, secretary of the United West Side clubs, and the Fourth Street Highway association, attended a noon-day luncheon at the Blue Bird Inn Multnomah, as guests of the Multnomah Boosters club Wednesday. The proposed Fourth Street Highway project was outlined in detail, as was the matter of widening the Capitol Highway through Multnomah.

Arrangements to meet with the County Commissioners relative to the Capitol Highway improvement have been arranged for at an early date. These are very important projects before these organizations, and earnest efforts are being made to obtain the desired results, whereby the congested conditions will be eliminated.

Ground Limestone Available Through County Agent

Dried prunes and hops have now been added to the list of commodities on which timely market information is being furnished to growers and others interested by the Oregon State college extension service, according to word just received by County Agent.

This information obtained by the college over a special leased wire from the bureau of agricultural economics of the United States department of agriculture, is broadcast each Thursday evening at 6:45 o'clock over the college radio station, KOAC at Corvallis Washington County growers can also receive this information direct by mail by writing to the office of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics at 610 Lewis Building, Portland.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. Geo. W. Springer pastor.

Last Thursday afternoon the ladies of the Church gave a surprise farewell luncheon in honor of Mrs. Kinsey who is leaving Beaverton to live in Portland. We will miss Mrs. Kinsey and hope that she will visit us often.

The Sunday School council met Tuesday evening at the home of I. Rice. It was a busy evening and many plans were made for the benefit of the school. We are looking forward to rally day with a great deal of enthusiasm. The 19th of October is the date set by the Sunday School and it is hoped that the Church will join in with a good home-coming day.

We are hoping to keep the attendance this fall above the hundred mark and it is the responsibility of every member to not only be present but to invite and urge others to come.

The Christian Endeavor society is gradually growing and all young people interested in the Christian work are invited to attend. A very good meeting is under way for next Sunday. We are very well pleased with the manner in which the young people support the church. Keep up the good work.

There will be regular services both morning and evening next Sunday. Morning worship will be at 11 o'clock and the evening services at 8 o'clock.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

W. B. TAIT, Pastor

Next Sunday is our Rally Day beginning at 10 a. m. An interesting program has been arranged and the public are cordially invited to come. Music by the orchestra and special singing.

In the evening the pastor will preach on "Profits and Loss."

Midweek prayer and praise service Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. All welcome.

Fire Prevention week from October 5 to 11

Governor Norblad has sent out a proclamation setting aside the week of October, the 5th to the 11th as fire prevention week. And earnestly beseeches the people, the civic, commercial, fraternal and patriotic organizations, the churches, and the press of Oregon to join in a state wide campaign to stamp out this stupendous drain upon our existing and potential economic wealth and to preach and practice fire prevention throughout the ensuing year.

ALBERT TAYLOR EPPERLY

Albert Taylor Epperly aged 67 years passed away at his home in Beaverton Monday September 29th. Funeral services were held Thursday October 2nd from Miller and Tracey Undertaking parlors in Portland with interment in the Rose City Cemetery. The ceremony was under the auspices of the Palestine lodge No. 141 A. F. & A. M.

He is survived by a wife, Carrie Epperly, was father of Mrs. Pearl Hart, of The Dalles, leaves five brothers and two grandchildren.

Try This on Your Piano

If the paper being used in the Development Edition were stretched out it would reach from Beaverton to Salem and back again. In other words more than 100 miles of paper will be utilized in the publication. This will give the readers some idea of the work now being rushed forward in this office in order to have the edition off the press by October 24th or October 31st. Although it is hoped to have the paper ready for distribution by the 24th additional copy and advertising matter coming into the office daily may hold up publication for one week. However readers are assured that the Development Edition, the most comprehensive publication ever attempted in Eastern Washington county, will be completed by the latter part of this month.

Pictures and stories from all sections of the county have been brought into the office and will be included in the edition.

G. B. Nunn and Charles B. Lake feature writers, have been visiting outlying districts and report enthusiasm everywhere they have made calls. They will be busy working day and night until publication in order to see that everything worth while will be included in the edition.

Those desiring extra copies to send to other sections of the United States should get their orders in at once. Hundreds of extra copies already have been spoken for and the surplus list is rapidly being used up.

BEAVERTON GRADE SCHOOL SHOW SO MUCH ACTIVITY

The "fire squad" in the grade school demonstrated its ability to handle the fire hose when the fire alarm was sounded Wednesday afternoon. The squad is made up of a group of thirteen boys selected from the three upper grades. Besides the business of attending to the opening of doors, connecting and running out fire hose duties of the squad include the holding of a monthly business meeting, timing fire drills, keeping the school grounds orderly, assisting in the "care, upkeep and preservation of school grounds, buildings, equipment, standards and rules" as well as raising and lowering of the flag. Bonus points are awarded to those who serve satisfactorily. Members of the squad are Carl Wolf, Glen Wolf, Oris Nelson, Billy Hocken, Henry Kamberger, George Shively, John Mason, Eugene Hanson, George Kline, Clarence Allen, Benny McCue, Carson Murray, Jack Whitten.

One of the most pleasurable as well as valuable results of school training is the carrying over into adult life, the habit of reading, with this in view a library is maintained in the grade school and pupils are encouraged to make the greatest use possible of the books. This week our collection has been increased by fifty-five new volumes, which are being equipped with pockets and charge cards and will be ready for circulation in a few days.

The wise people in the first grade carry off the honor of being first in the number of "perfect days" this week. They score 15 so are almost ready for their first holiday.

When parents want to know exactly what size clothing their children need they use a standard tape and measure. When teachers want to know how big their pupils are in their various abilities they use the "Standard Achievement Tests" which are compiled from the results of tests given to thousands of children throughout the country. The test to be used in the Beaverton system is the "New Stanford" which is rated among the most reliable of standard tests. The tests will be given twice during the year—the first time the data secured will indicate the points of the curriculum on which greatest stress should be placed thus giving the teachers the opportunity of doing the most beneficial remedial work and the later test determine the pupil's progress through the year and will be used as a basis for making promotions.

Among the classroom visitors this week were Mrs. Earl Hall and Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Venn also visited the school and Mrs. Hardman donated a splendid squash for the second grade vegetable exhibit.

The Oregon History people were disappointed in being forced to turn back to their Portland pilgrimage, last week, by a balky bus. They will make another attempt this week however.

The Boy Scouts held their first meeting in the school basement last Friday and effected their organization. Meetings will be held regularly hereafter in the same place and always on Friday night Mr. Phelps informs us.

Card Party well Attended

The Rebekah Needle Club card party in the Odd Fellows hall Friday evening was well attended. Fifty tables of 500 and one table of Rummy were played Mrs. Joe Bush won the ladies first prize and Mrs. J. A. Hays the gentlemen, while the consolation went to Mrs. Hardman and Mrs. Sheldon. H. Lewis won the rummy prize.

Old Time Friends Visit R. E. Hanna

Forty years ago the Astoria post-office force included — J. W. Hare, R. E. Hanna, Richard G. Prael and Miss Agnes Stockton. Mr. Hanna moved away. Mr. Prael and Miss Stockton were married. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Prael visited their old friend, Mr. Hanna. It was the second time they had met in the forty years. The Praels have remained in Astoria all these years and he has been engaged in the transfer business for some time.
