Your Birthdays by Stella

We have already in this column given a general outline of the character of persons born under the sign of Scorpio, between October 25 and November 23, according to the reading of the stars. Each constellation has its own influences and the characteristics of a person born under one constellation are markedly different from those born under another. This week Scorpios are told of what to expect regarding love and marriage.

In love as well as in friendship you are very exclusive and have strong and intense affections for those to whom you are attracted, but you are subject to sudden revolutions of feeling, and are for this reason, frequently unfortunate in marriage relations. You are inclined to be exacting and mistrustful and difficult to please. You should remember those tendencies and try to overcome them if you wish to make your marriage a happy one. You will harmonize best with those born between February 19 and March 20; May 23 and July 23; December 22 and January 19, and August 24 and September 22.

Some of the influences that affect the health of persons born between October 25 and November 23 will be told in this column next week, and the names of some famous persons born under the sign of Scorpio will be given.

Those whose Birthdays do not come between the above dates may obtain a continuation by sending the date of their birthday, and an addressed envelope, to Stella, 19 West 77, Varick Street Station, New York City.
