NEWS NOTES OF NOTABLES AND NEAR NOTABLES

Fortunate indeed were those who Monday night attended the piano recital in the Congregational Church given by Evelyn Alexander. Not yet in her teens the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Alexander.

This young girl gave a program of music, including a group by Chopin, numbers by Bach, Schubert, Macdonald, Schumann, Paderewski, and others that would have tested the musicianship of any student, these were given with true artistry and reflect great credit on her teacher Miss Beulah Cheever as well as on Evelyn.

We predict a great musical future for Evelyn and we will be proud to say we knew her as a little girl in Beaverton. Evelyn was assisted by Mrs. H. M. Barnes who gave four vocal numbers accompanied by Mrs. Dugan. Mrs. Barnes has a sweet soprano voice and her selections were greatly enjoyed.

G. B. Nunn, for the past few months connected with the Beaverton Enterprise office, working on the special edition, as well as editorial work, has left by auto for South Gate, Cal., to visit for a short while with his family who reside there. Roy Kircher accompanied Mr. Nunn as far as Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Geo. Tefft, of Hood River, and Mrs. Tefft of Eugene visited over the week end with the G. W. Tefft family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noyes were in Portland Sunday visiting with relatives.

Crews of men were busy the first part of the week clearing away the slides along the Canyon Road. Trees about ready to fall across the road, due to the earth giving away under them, were removed at the same time.

The Schraders motored to Monmouth Sunday to see their two daughters Emma and Esther, who are attending the Normal school.

Mrs. E. D. Agnell has been visiting in Salem for several days. This last week Mrs. Agnell was entertained by Mrs. Albert Mitchell, of Westover Road in Portland as a house guest.

Elmer Stipe and "Speedy" Clausen were winners in a turkey shoot last Sunday, each getting a turkey. Wm. Boyd who has been confined to his home on account of illness for the past several weeks, was able to be up for the first time Thursday.

Mrs. C. C. Beach entertained a number of ladies last Thursday to a one o'clock luncheon after which cards were enjoyed.

Mrs. T. J. Hannigan, of Portland, is spending several days with her daughter Mrs. B. A. Rhose.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Pinder, of Oregon City, were guests Sunday at the C. C. Beach home.

Mrs. E. Stipe entertained with cards and a luncheon Thursday afternoon. High score went to Mrs. F. H. Schoene and consolation to Mrs. G. Blasser.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Mulligan and Mrs. Anna Boring spent the week end visiting Mr. Boring at Hebo, where he is spending a few weeks on the farm.

Cha. Jacka has been transferred to Centralia, Wash., and will move his family there Friday.

The Beaverton town basketball team defeated the Fairview team Wednesday evening on the high school floor 50 to 19.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Walker, of Portland were Tuesday visitors at the Wm. Engleke home.

Mrs. J. D. Wilnot who is confined to the St. Vincent's hospital is reported much improved in health.

The C. J. Bismann family spent Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives in Centralia, Wash.

Mrs. B. A. Rhose, chairman if the Red Cross Christmas Seal sales, will be assisted by Meadames Robert Summers and D. C. Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Erickson were dinner guests Thursday evening of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Nelson, of Portland in honor of Mr. Nelson's 75th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Nelson is Mr. Erickson's sister.

Mrs. B. A. Rhose, Summers, E. Stipe, F. H. Schoene, G. McCornick and H. Hudson attended the Daughters of the Nile, as witnesses to the initiation ceremony conferred on Mrs. J. R. Talbert.

Miss Beverly Spear has been home for several days with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ward of Kinton were guests of her brother, W. R. Van Kluck, and family Sunday.

Factions Hold City Caucus Same Night

A most unusual coincidence in the history of the City of Beaverton took place last Monday evening, when the two factions of the town held their city caucus at identically the same time.

The regular caucus was called to order in the high school by Mayor Erickson, Dr. J. R. Talbert was elected as temporary chairman and F. W. Livermore, Jr. as secretary. After much balloting, A. E. Wilson, at the present time councilman, was selected as candidate for the mayorship, W. H. Boswell and J. W. Sprague, councilmen, for two years and Frank J. Dietsch, recorder.

Although most of the voters of the city were at the regular caucus meetings, the citizens caucus which was held at the Commercial Hotel, was attended by enough persons to endorse A. E. Wilson as Mayor, Frank Dietsch, recorder, Geo. Hughson and G. P. Fordney councilmen. Earl Fisher acted as chairman and Martin Doescher, secretary.

Beaverton Merchants Sponsor "Build-Up" Program on Radio

Beginning Friday evening, November 21, 1930, from 6:15 to 6:45 the Farmer's Radio Service club will present a Build-up program for the city of Beaverton.

This program is made possible and sponsored by the live wire men of Beaverton.

The Farmer's Radio Service club is an organization built up and sponsored by the farmers of the state of Oregon for the purpose of advertising the farming communities and their products, as well as the individual merchant.

This service is rendered to stimulate interest among local residents and dealers, as well as advertise the local community by giving present advantages and business opportunities through broadcasting over the radio.

This program will be presented by Sibyl and Jack of the Farmer's Radio Service club each Friday evening over station KTER in Portland, Oregon, from 6:15 to 6:45.

Elmer Stipe Attends Dealers Meeting

Elmer Stipe was in Portland Monday attending a Chevrolet Dealers meeting. Tuesday Doy Gray accompanied him to the Multnomah Hotel where they enjoyed a noon luncheon and in the afternoon a splendid program at the DuFwin theatre, comprised of an elaborate stage presentation and a movietone, which was used to outline the sales methods now employed in selling autos.

Entertains Young Friends

Miss Dorris Whitford entertained a group of her friends at the home Mrs. F. Cady, the occasion being her 14th birthday anniversary. Among those attending were Rhoda Thynge, Jean Kline, Helen Cavens, Dorothy Baldwin, Donna Ray Howard, Violet Bixby, LaVern Dean, Helen Whitford and Doris Whitford. Included in the refreshments served was a lovely birthday cake. The hostess was the recipient of many gifts.

Signal Tower Torn Down

A crew of men were busy this week tearing down the signal tower on Lombard at the O. E. tracks. This building was constructed 19 years ago and as many as three men were needed on a day and night shifts. Due to the increase in bus travel train service has been practically abandoned, so the tower is no longer needed.

Error in Phone Number

Through an error in our Development Edition the complete phone number of Gertrude Ulrich Ryan, the vocal teacher, was not given. The number is Broadway 9788-J-4. Those wishing more complete details about Mrs. Ryan's course should call the above number.

PRESIDENT LIPPERT ANSWERS THRUST AT UNITED CLUBS

The Editor:

In the edition of the Argus of the 13th, instant, under the heading of and in the article covering the Chamber of Commerce meeting, I notice reference made to certain gentlemen taking a verbal thrust at the United West Side Clubs. Will you give me space to set forth the side of the Clubs, and to get to your readers the facts?

Dr. Lampkin is quoted as "thinking less of the organization each meeting" and that he "thought the organization was promoted largely as a real estate selling scheme".

In the first place, I as President, and having presided at every one of the fourteen meetings, have seen Dr. Lampkin present but once. He, therefore, had little opportunity to observe what took place. In short, he is ill informed. His only appearance was at Forest Grove, October 14th, where he dwelt on his pet hobby, the so-called Base Line Road from Portland to Hillsboro.

That meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the matter of a highway to the coast, more immediately from Forest Grove to the beaches, and the doctor, although called upon to assist in the discussion of that subject, saw fit to detour to his pet hobby and project. The matter was laid over to the next meeting of the club, to be held at Multnomah, and will there be again taken up. All this upon proper motion and passage.

The doctor thinks the organization is solely organized for the promotion of "a real estate selling scheme". Never once has that matter ever been referred to at any of the fourteen meetings. Let him produce the evidence, for, in discussing these matters, one should predicate his remarks upon facts and not theories. If ever there was proposed a "real estate" scheme in these days of hard times and high taxes, that Base Line proposition is one. That road may be one that we will one day have, but not now when the present Tualatin Highway can be utilized. There are many who feel that now is not the time to construct an expensive road to the north of the present highway. This highway, constructed through sparsely settled community as it will be, smacks strongly of real estate activity.

The doctor fears that the United West Side clubs are working for a separation of the part of this county and annexing it to Multnomah county. Let him look into the history of the matter. Let him again get the facts before complaining. I respectfully refer him to E. J. McAlear, the Hillsboro representative, who was present at the Garden Home meeting and who knows what transpired. Let me say, however, that there is discontent and that if the doctor and one or two others over at Hillsboro keep agitating this matter, no one knows what the future geography of Washington County may be.

The United West Side clubs were organized for the purpose of developing and advancing the wonderful Tualatin Valley. No one who has regularly attended the meetings and who has heard the public utterances of the President, can reach any other conclusion. We were instrumental in getting a reduction of certain bus fares. Our united effort brought the results. We were instrumental in getting the Terwilliger coasted with non-skid material, and for the first time in eighteen years we had no accident on that busy highway. We fought for concrete on the Canyon Road as against black top, one of the things the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce wanted. We demanded of the Fourth Street right-of-way, for which they wanted $197,000.00, be turned over to the City of Portland, and just today we read that they have actually turned it over gratis. We are fighting that that be converted into a highway, thereby relieving the Terwilliger of the heavy traffic. All these things, and others which space does not permit me to recite have been under our surveillance and we fought for them. When some critics were enjoying themselves elsewhere. Does this look like a real estate activity? Are these not things that are beneficial to the Valley and that spell development? Do these in any way indicate that

School Census Completed

The school census for school district No. 107 has been completed by the clerk, Mrs. J. Welch, clerk of the school board. The report shows there were 148 girls, and 187 boys ranging from the ages of 4 to 20 residing in this district.

Correspondence

Editor Enterprise:
Dear Sir: After 26 years of service as a rural mail carrier out of Beaverton postoffice I am retiring from the service on account of ill health. I entered the service September 15, 1904, and have served the route continuously up to the present I have enjoyed my work all during these years even the horse and buggy days, and it is with regret that I must now leave the service where I have spent 26 years of my life. During that time I have traveled nearly 300,000 miles. My motto has always been "service with a smile" which has made me many friends and I shall miss my daily call past their door way. I wish to thank them all for their assistance in making my work pleasant.

Beaver Theatre Has New Manager

Due to the ill health of Mr. Freeman the Beaver Theatre at Beaverton will be under new management commencing next week. C. J. Beach of Beach's Market, who has for the past few years been operator at the theatre, will have complete charge of the running of the house.

"Sunnyside Up" has been chosen as the opening feature next Thursday evening. This picture is the screens first original talking, singing, dancing musical comedy, starring the theatre goers favorites Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, who are termed as movie lands greatest lovers. A news reel of the worlds latest happenings has also been selected in conjunction with the main picture.

Mr. Beach is well known in Beaverton and vicinity, having resided in Washington county for a number of years, and his biggest aim is to give the public the best entertainment available. He plans to select all pictures shown in the local house, personally following each one with the latest out.

Admission prices have been placed at 25c for adults and 10c for children.

County Proportion of Tuberculosis Deaths Remain the Same

While Washington County's population has been on the increase there has not been a corresponding increase in her tuberculosis mortality according to a report by the Oregon Tuberculosis Association. However, 63 deaths from the cause have occurred in the county in the past five years, State Board of Health figures show, despite the fact that tuberculosis is both preventable and curable disease, particularly if discovered early and placed under competent medical care.

At the present time at least 90 active cases are in the county, the association estimates, basing its figures on authoritative studies made by the National Tuberculosis Association.

A case-finding program was launched this year by the tuberculosis association in several counties in an effort to locate heretofore undiagnosed cases and get them under local medical care. Jackson, Benton, Coos and Deschutes counties joined in this campaign, through their county Medical Societies and County Public Health Associations, where these organizations existed, and with the aid of county nurses and health officers.

The annual sales of tuberculosis Christmas Seals which finance much of this work will begin in the county the day after Thanksgiving.

The association supplies leaflets and pamphlets on the prevention and control of tuberculosis and maintains an advisory service on community health problems, both of which services are free for the asking. Communications should be addressed to the Oregon Tuberculosis association in the Fitzpatrick Building, Portland, Oregon.

Seven Point Joins The Force

Meet the new member of our family—face to face. It is called Seven Point and is the very latest wrinkle in newspaper type. Notice how much easier it is to read; how much it dresses up the pages of the paper and makes the use of your reading glasses almost unnecessary?

With this issue of your paper the new type makes it bow into your home. Beside aiding you in reading it will aid us in putting more news on each page, for the new type while more legible than the old is a bit smaller and packs more of a wallop.

Since publishing our first paper here we have tried to do everything within our power to please our patrons. We've tried to make each issue newsy and fair and interesting. We've also watched the mechanical end of the business and have dressed up the paper just as we've dressed up the news. Perhaps, we haven't a great publication—but we do have a clean, newsy unbiased paper that is devoted to the best interests of our locality.

We hope you like the new type.

UNITED CLUBS URGE WIDENING OF PRESENT TUALATIN HIGHWAY

The 52 communities included in the United West Side clubs were all well represented in the 300 persons, who gathered last Tuesday evening at the Multnomah school house, for the regular monthly meeting. The club especially jubilated the donation of the $197,000 right of way by the Southern Pacific to the City of Portland, for use as a highway.

City Engineer Laugaard, stated that he is confident that the balance of the roadway as far as Bertha can be obtained without difficulty. This would give the necessary connections in order to develop this stretch into an arterial highway, to carry the heaviest traffic. The proposed roadway is to be 100 feet wide, with a grade much less than any leading from the City of Portland, eliminating many curves. This project would not only be a benefit to Multnomah, but would effect the growth of the other districts in this vicinity.

A rising vote of thanks was extended to Commissioner Barbour for his interest and help in the matter and every speaker on the subject gave the United West Side clubs much credit for the realization of the gift, as an attempt had been made for years to put this project over. The club was asked for its support in future developments and the organization assured it without compensation.

The resolution, put over from the last meeting at Forest Grove, in regard to the widening of the Tualatin highway from Beaverton to Forest Grove was passed on at the meeting Tuesday evening. The club insisted that the work be commenced as soon as possible in order to relieve the unemployment problem, during the winter months.

Another resolution with reference to a proposed new highway to be known as the Baseline Highway, about one mile north of the present Tualatin Highway, was killed unanimously. After a most impressive talk by J. E. Giladoff of Huber, the general thought of those at the meeting was that to construct a highway so close to the present one would be absolutely unnecessary. With the widening of the valley road traffic could be handled without taxing the taxpayers for a parallel highway so close.

The program rendered was one of the best ever sponsored by the committee and included a very fine accordion player, Mrs. Aimee Kennedy, of Portland the Bixby Orchestra, of Multnomah and Edward A. Brown, representing the City of Portland club, who told his famous story of "kissing the Barney Stone" Geo. Bissell, of the Portland Trade Council, expressed his appreciation of the monument to labor.

This meeting was the largest gathering ever held at Multnomah.

Geo. W. Lippert presided at the meeting in his ever present witty and gracious manner.

School Census Completed

The school census for school district No. 107 has been completed by the clerk, Mrs. J. Welch, clerk of the school board. The report shows there were 148 girls, and 187 boys ranging from the ages of 4 to 20 residing in this district.
