METHODIST CHURCH

J. J. PATTON, Pastor

Bible school meets at 10 a. m. One of the best resolutions that any person, man, woman or child can make is to profoundly pledge themselves that they will be present at every Sunday morning Bible school meeting of their church during the coming year unless unavoidably prevented from going. Public worship and pulpit messages at 11:15 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning theme "Consolation in Knowing that We have Eternal Life." Evening theme "The Reward of Following Jesus." Rev. and Mrs. A. Lee Aldrich who conducted services in this church last Sunday are at the present time in a "Church Loyalty" campaign in the Oak Grove Community church near Portland. The place and time for the beginning of meetings in Beaverton will be announced in the near future.

Next Sunday we are all going to bring our basket dinners. We will have our regular annual meeting of the church membership. There will be reports from every department of the church.

A Small Boy's Dream
