Newspaper advertising serves two purposes, and that's why it is successful. It promotes sales impulses and directs the buyer to the particular seller.

Chilled Fruit Soups

OUR grandfathers used to say, "There's nothing new under the sun," and believed it. But in this modern generation, we have discovered that there are a great many new things under the sun. Even in our cooking, we are constantly inventing new dishes such as our ancestors never dreamed of. And many of them are improvements over most of the things our ancestors ate. What could be better, for example, than a chilled fruit soup on a sultry evening? Here are a few recipes:

For Hot Days

Iced Mint Fruit Soup: Smooth one teaspoon arrowroot to a paste with a part of two cups cold water, then add to one-half of a No. 2 can crushed pineapple together with remainder of the cold water, and one-half glass mint jelly. Cook until slightly thickened, stirring to prevent lumping. Serve very cold, garnished with a sprig of fresh mint. This serves six.

Red Cherry Soup: Mix two teaspoons of cornstarch with two tablespoons cold water, add to it juice from a quart can sour pitted cherries, one cup cold water, two tablespoons sugar and one tablespoon lemon juice. Cook until thickened stirring to prevent lumping. Chill. Serve very cold, with a few cherries garnishing each cup. This serves six.

Sliced Apple Soup: Cook together gently contents of a No. 2 can apple sauce, two and one-half cups water, one tablespoon brown sugar, ten whole cloves, one stick cinnamon, one-half lemon sliced, eight seedless raisins, until the raisins are tender. Chill. Serve with a slice of the lemon and a raisin garnishing each cup. This serves eight.
