

Hi Football Squad defeats Parkrose Team 55-0

The third game of the season in football ended with a big score for Beaverton High School eleven defeated Parkrose on the latter field 55-0.

The High School team found it very easy to run away with the ball from Parkrose and continued doing so all through the game.

This game was Beaverton's first out-of-town game this season and although away from their home-field the boys have proved that they are "out to win" all their matches.

Touchdowns were made by Alfred Wismer, Bob Wright and Ross Hart.

Girl Reserves Report

The Girl Reserves organization is busy this week with plans for a party to be held Friday evening, October 23.

The party will be a masquerade with a Halloween background and will be held at the home of Beate Johnson. Games will be played and refreshments served.

The members of the club, this year will sponsor the decorating of the Girl Reserves' room in the High School. The room, to be decorated by the Interior Art class, will be open to all the girls of the school.

Last week the staff of editors was elected for the scrap book, which is being made by the girls. The staff is: Editor in chief, Irene Hanson; asst. editor, Dorothy Lewis; Humor editor, Magdalena Boekli; and sports editor, Blanche Haines; and drama and society, Hortense Cleland; classes, Lucille Nelson; business manager, Audrey Wallis; cartoonist, Eleanor Zureher; cover, Irene Feagy and Verna Toelle; advisor, Miss Gladys Kinnear.

The making of the scrap book is the girls' major project of this year.

Seniors Elect Staff

The Senior class met October 12 to elect a staff for the Annual. The staff members elected were: Editor Noma Brown; asst. editor, Stanley Cornils; advertising mgr. Lebert Wilson; circulation mgr., Ross Hart; business mgr., Van Brown; asst. business mgr., Herbert Mason.

After this able staff was elected the president, Oliver Kauppila, selected the following Annual salesmen; Lucille Nelson, Hortense Cleland, Bob Wright, Charles Tutlock, Arthur Anderson, Evelyn Hawley, Erwin Keehn, Rose Kamberger, John Motheral, Mabel Behm.

The class this year has proved very capable of electing and selecting students to fill positions and it is their desire to continue the good work as they have started it.

A special meeting of the Sophomore class was held Thursday, October first to discuss the Freshman reception.

The reception is to be held as a Halloween masquerade, Friday, October 30, at 7:30 o'clock in the High School auditorium.

Invitations are to be extended to all Freshmen and Sophomores. These invitations and ten cents are necessary for admittance to the reception.

Another subject brought before the class was the confinement of Robert Rose at St. Vincent's hospital. Robert has been ill with appendicitis. It was decided that one class should send him a bouquet of flowers. A bouquet of dahlias were sent to him Saturday.

Freshman Class News

The Freshman class held a class meeting October 14 for the purpose of electing a sergeant-at-arms, which resulted in George Klein being elected.

We also appointed annual salesmen, they are as follows: Vera McElroy, Charles Martin, Arthur Wickstrand, Vivian Jeffries, May Morgan, Mabelanna Gambella, Rhoda Thyn, Amelia Vrlcak, Harold Huff, Genevieve Johnson, Georgia Belle Kamberger. Noting that the Freshman class of 1931 is the largest in the history of the Beaverton High School we hope to lead in the annual sales contest.

Beaverton Grade School

L. R. Dean, who is chairman of the school board this year, made an inspection visit at the grade school this week. He was especially interested in looking over the fire escapes and equipment.

Another meeting of the pupils interested in 4-H work is to be held in the high school auditorium Thursday afternoon at the close of school.

The fire squad is getting some good practice fire drills this week. Certain boys are appointed as members of the fire squad with duties consisting of keeping fire fighting equipment in order and handling it in case of fire. Drills are held at irregular intervals with neither pupils nor teachers being informed that a drill is to be held and the affair a very realistic air. Other duties include opening of coors and ascertaining that all pupils are out of the building.

Some years ago the legislative powers of Oregon decreed that twenty minutes each day should be devoted to physical exercises. How these twenty minutes are to be administered is left to the discretion of the teacher and is governed by local conditions. Sometimes games are the most suitable form of relaxation. At other times regular calisthenics are given. In the fifth grade the pupils are really enjoying learning Walter Camp's very popular "Daily Dozen". They have been given the opportunity of performing to the accompaniment of phonograph records and quite justify the remark made by a visitor this week that "Their rhythm is beautiful."

Arrangements have been made for four soccer games to be played by grade school boys in the near future. Two are to be played with Hillsboro and two with Corvallis, which means two games on the home field and two abroad.

Interest in Indians and the "Honor Owl" vie with each other in the first grade. Indian life is being studied and the sand table is full of tepees made by the young people in this room but the Owl—... wise bird alights each day on the desk of the boy or girl whose work and conduct have been most commendable and there he stays until a whole day has passed.

Bonus points may be earned by satisfactorily filling the position of school musician for six weeks. Two people work together on this task—one with a triangle and one acting as pianist. The present musicians are Dorothy Baldwin and Donna Rae Howard.

Many green pots in windows indicate Miss Davies stronghold. In fact plants are always the trademark of her domain. Her office holds a lovely fern and numerous hyacinth bulbs prepared for winter blooming.

Many an automobile that should have delivered thousands of extra miles is hastened to the discard by the corroding, metal-eating ravages of acid gasoline.

The process of corrosion is slow but sure. It attacks the cylinder walls, the pistons and piston rings, the valves and valve stems, the carburetor needle valve, the crankcase... all metal parts with which it comes in contact.

No wonder your car loses its snap and pep and power, uses more gasoline, costs more for repairs and upkeep as it grows older!

But it is no longer necessary for you to use acid gasoline. You now have an infallible acid test that positively proves the absence of metal-eating acids. It is the violet color of
