Church Services

CHURCH OF CHRIST G. W. SPRINGER, Minister

Next Sunday morning there will be an installation of teachers at the Sunday School hour, in addition to the regular service.

The Christian Endeavor officers held a business meeting at the minister's home last Friday evening. The committee chairmen were requested to present a written working program at the next regular business meeting. This will make it possible to outline all of the Christian Endeavor work in advance and thus help to secure its success.

Mr. Springer will speak next Sunday morning on "Why Men Miss the Mark." The evening topic will be "Walking with God."

BETHEL CONGREGATIONAL Rev. Charles F. Clarke, Pastor

Judging by her remarkable growth during the past twenty years, I can predict what Aloha will look like at the end of the next twenty years. It will be a city of at least 10,000 It will be a square mile of beautiful and modern residences. There will be a dozen blocks of substantial and prosperous business houses and factories. Happy payrolls will flow from the latter. All streets will be paved, curbed and parked. The city will own its light plant and water system. There will be parks, golf courses, and a commodious community house. A modern school building of twelve to twenty rooms and several fine churches will attest Aloha's intellectual and moral health. Some Aloha boy (or girl) now in college will be mayor. A committee from the Community club will meet each incoming train, sing "Aloha" and hang leis made of home-grown flowers around the necks of visitors to our fair city. The Aloha News will be a daily and still holding its leadership in Washington County. Within twenty years I predict that the sack of tin cans at the Red and White corner will be gone.

Portland Loan Co.

An Oregon Corporation Licensed by the State of Oregon, Endorsed Note Loans, Furniture Loans, Salary Loans and Auto Loans 306-307 Dekum Bldg S. W. Cor. 3rd and Washington Sts., Portland, Ore.

This well known concern was established to meet the needs of the people in unexpected emergencies. Loans are made on household goods, etc., without embarrassment to anyone.

This business is conducted on a high plane by men of high financial ability; capable business men and highly respected in the community.

But few men have known the time in their lives when they did not need a quick loan to meet some emergency. An accident occurred in the family; someone dependent upon them took sick unexpectedly; a trip incurring rather heavy railroad fare was necessary. These times seem to come during the days when an individual is struggling financially. Few situations are more embarrassing and more trying than when one needs money and it is not available. Perhaps you lived in a strange community at the time. The bank didn't know you. The only recourse is to go to some friend—and few of them are accommodating at that time—or to stand the humiliation of accepting charity.

All of their loans are granted in this way: You may need money hurriedly. A loan is secured by a chattel mortgage on any of your personal property or against your salary. This is a confidential, dignified transaction. You need not humiliate yourself by going to a friend and admitting that you are in need. You need not place your name in the files of a charitable organization.

A loan service such as this one is a real asset to any community. Its success, of course, is due to the high character and the financial ability of the men who direct its course of affairs. They are individuals known and trusted by everyone in the community. The rate of interest charged is reasonable and consistent with the risk. The men are not interested in anything but a fair margin of profit.

This company is operated under the supervision of the state and provides a place where honest people can borrow any amount up to $300 without any embarrassment. They make no inquiries of your friends, relatives or trade people. You can get the amount you need today and have all the time necessary for repayment in small monthly payments arranged to suit your convenience. You pay only for the actual time you keep the money.

Medical Arts Pharmacy

Located in Medical Arts Building, 10th and Taylor, Portland, Oregon, Phone BEacon 2154, Center in the Drug Prescription and Druggist Sundry Trade of this Part of the Country Bonded Prescriptions.

Medical Arts Pharmacy is one of the most popular stores in Portland. The prescription department is under able management and the most careful attention is given to this careful of the business, for all branches of a drug store this is one of the most important because of the fact that the lives of many people are dependent on the compounds.

They have a full line of drugs, chemicals, druggists sundries and practically every proprietary medicine known. These are all secured from the best houses and are pure and tested. The fact that the management had a thorough training in the profession makes them careful in the filling of all prescriptions to see that the compounding is correctly done. Proper directions are attached and everything is highly recommended by the physicians and well patronized by people from miles around.

The first requisite of any successful business must be courtesy, then quality at the right price must be offered. This has been the above firm's policy. They have directed their efforts to the end that their store might be the headquarters for anything in the opto-pharmacy line.

Every department of the Medical Arts Pharmacy is most complete and the wants of the people are taken care of in a manner that is to be commended by all who have had business dealings with them.

Fairfield Coffee Shop

Located in Portland at 429 Stark St., is one of the Most delightful Places in which to Eat. The Best Food is Served and Service is Unexcelled Featuring a 35c Turkey Dinner Tuesday and Saturday, served from 11 a. m. to 8 p. m.

The Fairfield Coffee Shop, at 429 Stark St., has gained a name that has spread far and wide as a place where both the local and traveling public can more than satisfy their demands in the matter of obtaining food. The menu consists not only of the prime necessities of life but many delicacies are offered that are inviting and tempting to the taste of the most fastidious.

Drop in when you are in Portland for one of their 35c lunches or famous dinners. They make a specialty of sandwiches at prices that will surprise you. Club breakfast are from 25c up. Cleanliness is one of the outstanding features of this modern cafe and is not confined to the tables and silverware that are brought to the attention of everyone but it extends to the kitchen and those places only frequented by the management of the place and his assistants. The food is prepared in such a way that to the uninitiated the thought at once comes that there never was such a good place to eat. Poor restaurants are not the exception by any means and it is a pleasure to have such a modern and up-to-date place as this to refer a stranger to. Every precaution is taken to make it the best in the community.

The proprietor has made a special study of the restaurant business and consequently is striving to give the local people something a little better all the time. He has arranged his place so that the service is prompt and courteous. We take great pleasure in complimenting him on the high order of his place and refer it to our readers without hesitation. They are open until 2:30 a. m.

Pacific School of Beauty Culture

Located in the Morgan Bldg., 364 1/2 Washington St., Portland, Ore., is an institution where students of Beauty Culture receive Thorough Training which Fits them for Highly Paid Positions. Have an established large Patronage where Excellent Instruction in this Art is Given Under the Direction of Julia Stall.

In compiling a business review of Portland, we felt that it would not be complete without a word to the fair sex, inasmuch as this institution is of especial interest to women. The management has built up a business which ranks with the best in its field for in results it has acquired a reputation that many more pretentious establishments might very well envy; fruits of long years of training in laboratories of well known chemists where were studied the chemistry of Beauty Preparations and Beauty Culture until the science was mastered. This knowledge is now placed at the disposal of the numerous students who are learning an interesting and profitable profession. New pupils are constantly being admitted, for the tuition fee is nominal. Girls from all parts of the state are in attendance.

The curriculum includes shampooing, hair dressing, permanent waving which they feature, Scalp Treatment, Oil Treatment, Singeing, Bleaching, Dyeing, Hand and Arm Moulding, Manicuring, Facial Massage, all the Face Pacs. A beauty parlor is operated in connection where advanced students under supervision do permanent waving for patrons at reduced prices. This method of teaching provides the practical experience for operators advancing in their work and at the same time gives the public an opportunity to secure beauty work at student prices. All phases of the art are included with permanent waving as their specialty.

The instruction provided by the Pacific School of Beauty Culture, is thorough and complete in every particular and all possible effort is made to turn out students whose future professional work will reflect creditably to the teachings of the school. While the School cannot guarantee to place students in positions at the conclusion of their studies its affiliations with professional beauty establishments make it possible to place many of those who have shown genuine aptitude for the work.

Full information pertaining to instruction and fees may be obtained by writing them without incurring obligation or phone BEacon 0643, Portland.
