Observations of a Loafer

Have you noticed that a cold, frosty night is usually followed by a sunshiny, balmy day? "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." "Look up, lift up," the depression is breaking. Stocks are up fourteen points. Money is coming out of the old socks. The Hibernia bank has reopened.

Cutting wages to relieve taxation is futile. It simply reduces the wage earner's ability to pay his taxes. It is a short-sighted gesture toward economy that gets no lasting results. What we need to-day is to retain our standard of living, our standard of wage earning, and shift the burden of taxation where it belongs—and that is, where there is an ability to pay. On incomes and expenditures, and not on homes and wages.

Oregon kiddies hail snow with shrieks of delight; many of us older. Did you ever see the treasure ones with a shrug of the shoulders in snow? In the book of Job we find this question: "Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow?" Five thousand, eight hundred and fifty snowflakes were examined under the microscope. They showed 5,850 intricate and marvelous geometric designs, no two alike. Melting snows from the Abyssinian highlands gave the inexhaustible treasure house of Egypt to the ancient world. Valentine Salad: 1 package lemon flavored gelatin, 1 cup boiling water, 1 teaspoon Pure Vinegar, ½ cup juice from can of Royal Anne Cherries, ½ cup cherries, cut in halves; ½ cup Mayonnaise Salad Dressing, ½ cup whipped cream, canned pears, red vegetable coloring. Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add vinegar and cherry juice. When mixture begins to thicken, add cherries. Fold in mayonnaise salad dressing and whipped cream. When firm, cut in squares and place a square in a nest of lettuce for each person. On each square of salad place a half of canned pear that has been soaked in pear juice, in which a small amount of red vegetable coloring has been dissolved, and cut in heart shape. This gives the pear a deep pink color without changing the flavor. Serve as a dressing, mayonnaise salad dressing into which has been folded an equal part of whipped cream.

Valentine Dessert: 1 package cherry, raspberry or strawberry gelatin, 2 cups boiling water, 6 slices pineapple, 6 Maraschino cherries. Dissolve gelatin in boiling water and pour into shallow pan, having gelatin mixture about ½ inch deep in pan. Chill thoroughly and allow to set. Arrange paper doilies on small plates. On each, place a ring of pineapple that has been thoroughly drained. In the hollow of pineapple, place a cherry. Over the pineapple ring, place a heart shaped piece of gelatin, cut using a heart cutter. Serve at once with or without whipped cream.
