Senator Steiwer Highly Interested in Tariff on Lumber Products

Oregonians who are interested in the lumber industry—which includes about everybody in the state—are aware that the United States Senate will vote on the proposal to place a tariff on lumber products and logs about June 1st. On the success of that move depends whether the logging camps and the lumber mills will reopen or remain closed down for an indefinite time.

Lumbermen are fully advised that Senator Frederick Steiwer is making a great fight for the imposition of a tariff of from $3 to $5 per thousand feet, a committee of Oregon lumbermen having been sent to Washington for the hearing on the Steiwer amendment. They are fully aware of the opposition to such a tariff in certain Eastern regions.

In these circumstances it is plain that Oregonians should give Senator Steiwer a huge vote of confidence at the primary election on May 20—just a few days before the Senator shall open up his fight for lumber on the floor of the Senate. By so doing, the Senator's hands will be strengthened in the battle in June. He can use the election returns from Oregon to convince Senators from Eastern states that our people want a lumber tariff, and want it now.

Every lumberjack out of a job, every longshoreman, every employe of lumber carrying ship concerns, every mill man—every business man who sells supplies to such people—can help this situation by joining in giving a huge plurality for Steiwer.

It is just plain horse sense to do this.

4-H Club Summer School Scheduled for June 13-25

June 13 to 25 is the date set for the 1932 4-H club summer school held on the Oregon State College campus, Corvallis. Any 4-H club member is eligible to attend this two weeks gathering of club members says W. S. Averill, assistant county agent.

Board and room this year will cost $13 for the two weeks. Club members will furnish their own bedding, toilet articles, athletic equipment and clothing.

Washington County had the distinction of having the largest delegation at the 1931 session with 72 boys and girls in attendance.

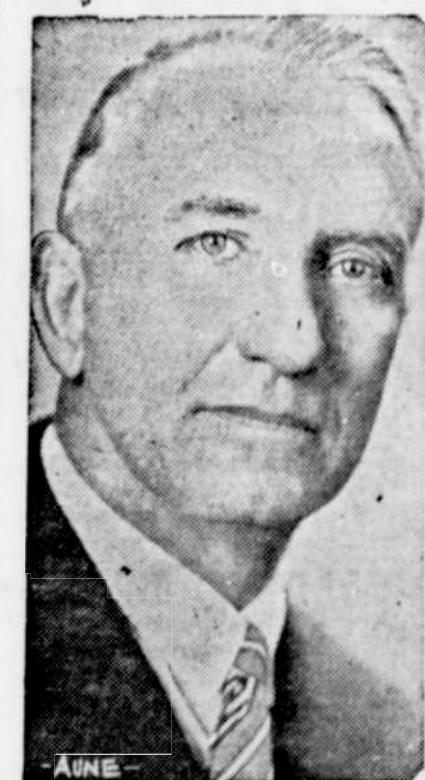

During the summer school session boys are housed in the new men's dormitory and girls in Waldo and Kidder halls. Forenoons are given over to classroom work under the supervision of regular college instructors. At 1:30 each day an assembly is held with prominent speakers on the program. These assemblies are broadcast each day over Radio Station KOAC.

Following assemblies the afternoon is given over to supervised athletics for both boys and girls, followed by swims in the tanks of the men's gymnasium and women's building.

Evening programs are arranged either by club members or those in charge of the summer school and include picture shows, programs and parties.

Chaperons are provided from the counties having club members in attendance, Washington County being allowed two women and one man. Last year Mrs. Margaret Simon, of Hillsboro, Mrs. Juanita Kasch, of Rosedale, and W. S. Averill were chaperons for this county.

Juvenile Grangers Help the Needy

A Juvenile Grange in New England composed of youngsters a dozen years old or less, made quite a reputation for themselves and exemplified the real Grange spirit, by staging an elaborate minstrel show and turning over the entire proceeds to the unemployment relief work of their community.

A packed house greeted the performance and the elaborate program was put on wholly by the children, with the Juvenile master as the interlocutor. Members of Juvenile Granges are everywhere taught the duty of helpfulness and in their ritualistic forms, the significance of kindness and charity is strongly impressed.

DONALD T. TEMPLETON
Candidate for Republican Nomination For County Judge

When the County Court, in keeping with its economy program, became the purchasing agent for all County departments, the savings thus made far exceeded the original estimates. This is but an example of the economies that have been introduced in the management of County affairs in the past year. A careful conservation of County funds is the surest safest way to reduce taxes. Your vote for Donald T. Templeton for COUNTY JUDGE will insure a continuance of this program.
