

E. J. WARD
Former Judge
Is a Candidate
For Republican Nomination for County Judge

To the voters of Washington County, for your approval I submit the following statement:
I have been a farmer and taxpayer of Washington county for over forty years.

If nominated and elected County Judge, I will perform the duties of my office to the best of my ability. I will at all times keep the interests of the taxpayers foremost in my mind. It will be my purpose to place the county on a cash basis and to keep it on such a cash basis. I will furnish my own automobile for my public business and will personally bear the cost of its maintenance.

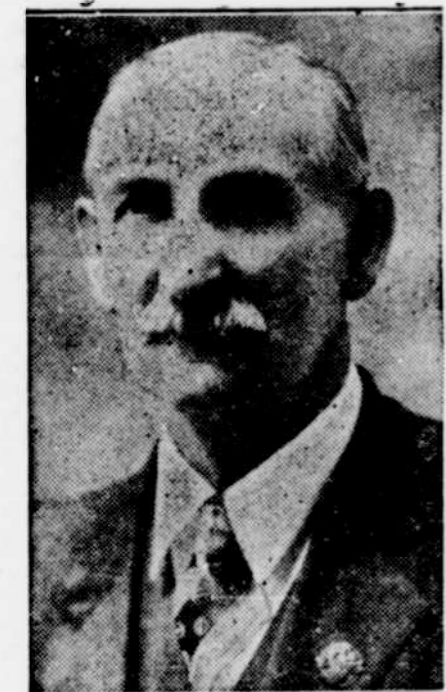

My record as County Judge from January, 1925, to January, 1931, speaks for itself. At the time I took office in January, 1925, the warrant indebtedness of the County was around $170,000. We kept the business of the County up and at the end of the year, 1925, had the indebtedness of $170,000 wiped out. The next five years of my office the county was on a cash basis. Ten months after I left office in January, 1931, warrants for the county were being discounted and it is again in debt to the amount of $65,000.

What is the matter?
The new court house and jail were built during my administration. We kept within our limit and when the buildings were completed everything was all paid.

I favor good roads, but do not believe in making them a burden on the taxpayer. The roads now built should be maintained and kept in good shape. If possible to get a special tax for roads in one road district, I am in favor of reorganizing the road districts so those who desire may vote a special tax for roads in their locality.

Slogan: An efficient and economical administration of the county's business.

Statement of G. Russell Morgan, Candidate for the Office of District Attorney

TO THE VOTERS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

I desire to take this opportunity to correct a statement made by Mr. E. B. Tongue, which appeared in most of the newspapers of this County. Mr. Tongue asserts that "It appears that there was five years' delinquent taxes on property owned by G. Russell Morgan." This statement is not correct. The property mentioned was purchased by me less than a year ago. Immediately prior to the purchase, the property had 7 seven years taxes against it, which were paid at the time of the purchase. There has never been a single year's delinquent tax on any property owned by me.

I say that it is not necessary to have a regular salaried deputy to conduct the office of district attorney of this County, if such attorney devoted his undivided attention to such office. For the last seven years the District Attorney of this County has had a deputy who has been paid a regular salary of $150 per month out of the General Fund of the County, and that means out of the money raised almost entirely by taxes. The stenographer of the District Attorney is also paid $75 per month by the county in the same manner. If nominated and elected I will devote all of my personal time and attention to the office of district attorney, to the total exclusion of all private business if necessary, and I can and will conduct such office without the assistance of a salaried deputy, thus saving $1800 per year to the taxpayers. I do not say that I will conduct the office without the assistance of salaried stenographer.

Much has been said concerning delinquent taxes. I wish to remind the voters of this county that delinquent taxes outlaw in ten years from the date of issuance of certificate of delinquency. There is no provision of our statutes which makes it necessary for any county court to direct the office of district attorney to proceed with a delinquent tax foreclosure. The county court has for years past been endeavoring to get the legal department of the county to proceed with the foreclosing of delinquent taxes. Even the county Grand Jury on November 17, 1927, adopted a resolution urging that steps be taken immediately for the collection of all delinquent taxes, and among other things stated that, "The tax collection department of the county has not been provided by the legal department with the necessary assistance to enforce the collection of said taxes by due process of law." Delinquent taxes are foreclosed by the district attorney's office in all other counties of this state, most of them when the taxes are six years delinquent, but there has not been a delinquent tax foreclosure on real property in this county during the last 24 years, with the exception of the present foreclosure in the approximate sum of $21,000. Many thousands of dollars have been lost to the county in the past, and I pledge to the voters, that if nominated and elected I will foreclose delinquent taxes regularly before the same outlaw, thus saving such taxes to the county.

Our system of jurisprudence provides for justice courts to handle small crimes and misdemeanors. In other counties, a large amount of such matters are handled in the respective justice courts, without the expensive procedure of grand jury investigation and circuit court trial. There has not been a trial of a criminal case before a justice court jury in this county for over two years. If nominated and elected I will expect to handle a large number of the smaller cases in justice court.

There is office space already provided in the county court house for the district attorney's office. It is located next door to the grand jury room, witness room and the circuit court room, and within a few feet of the law library and the office of circuit judge. The district attorney's office is a public office, and should be conducted at the court house as other county offices are conducted. If nominated and elected I will conduct the office of district attorney in the court house office space already provided for the same, but now vacant.

Sarah Anne's Cooking Class

In many homes it is the custom to have one's family or friends in to Sunday night supper. This is a pleasant habit and things will move more smoothly if preparations are made in advance. These recipes are suitable for supper, some may be made on Saturday. These recipes be prepared the day before; others that take little time and are made from ingredients likely to be on hand.

Cucumber Salad

- 1 tablespoon gelatin
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1-4 cup cold water
- 2 tablespoons onion juice
- 1-2 cup boiling water
- 1-4 cup sugar
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 package cream cheese
- Salt

Soften gelatin in cold water, then dissolve it in boiling water. Add salt, lemon juice, onion juice with the cucumbers which have been grated without removing the pulp. Let chill until it begins to set, whip with egg beater until a thick froth, then fold in the softened cheese. Pour into mold. Serve with salmon.

Tomato Sandwich Salad

Peel well shaped tomatoes. Chill. Slice in thick slices crosswise. Spread each slice with stiff mayonnaise and cover with finely chopped celery and green pepper, with a little grated onion for flavor; put together sandwich style allowing the filling to peep out the sides. Top with a spoonful of mayonnaise. Serve very cold in lettuce.

Chili Con Carne

- 1 pound beef
 - 1 tablespoon butter
 - 1 medium onion—chopped
 - 1 can kidney beans
 - 1 small can tomatoes
 - Salt and pepper
 - 1-4 teaspoon chili powder
- Cut beef into small pieces and brown with butter and chopped onion. Add beans and stir until well blended. Add tomatoes and season with salt and pepper. Add chili powder. Cook slowly for half hour.

ON OREGON FARMS

GRANTS PASS—Josephine county farmers are showing a marked interest in production of soy beans as an annual hay crop this year as a result of some remarkably high yields of beans obtained by farmers growing them during the past couple of years, reports Herb Howell, county agent.

HILLSBORO—Many farmers of Washington county are making good use of ceresan in treating oats and barley for smut this year instead of blue vitriol or formaldehyde treatments depended upon until recent years, according to County Agent W. F. Cyrus. Ceresan is used in dust or powdered form at the rate of about two ounces for each bushel of grain. This method eliminates much of the labor and time involved in the old method of treating.

ROSEBURG—O. V. Logsdon and agent. Yields on irrigated land in the Murphy district run as high as four tons to the acre, Mr. Howell says.

Waycross, Ga.—Two small boys, 11 and 13, were suffocated when a small cave in which they were playing collapsed. Dug out by their grand parents, they could not be revived.
