ALOHA BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Our Bible school meets at 9:45 A. M. every Sunday, L. Barber superintendent. Our school is always well attended to enjoy this service.

The orchestra was in attendance and there was plenty of good singing. Divine worship at 11 A. M. and 7:45 P. M. Last Sunday the pastor, Rev. W. H. Redman, gave a very interesting and instructive message on the subject of "Christ, the Healer." He will continue next Sunday with "Christ, the Physician." At the evening service next Sunday the Young Peoples' Society will take over the singing and all except the message, which will be given by the pastor. He will discuss war and peace and will give personal experiences in the world war. We expect a good attendance of old and young. Our church service last Sunday was enlivened by special singing by the choir. We congratulate the choir and are looking for another treat next Sunday morning.

Crowds attended the social given by the B. Y. P. U. last Friday evening.

On Monday evening every one enjoyed the Halloween get-together party in the gym.

The Queen Esther circle is planning for a great time at their dinner and bazaar to be given in the gym November 18, at 6 P. M. Look for further notice.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Rev. Charles F. Clarke Pastor
The regular services will be held next Sunday and everyone is invited to participate. The day starts with Bible school at 9:45 with classes for all ages from the beginners to the adults. Morning worship with sermon by the pastor at 11 A. M., subject being "A Moral Equivalent for War;" at 7:30 his topic will be "Getting the Goods," the second sermon on the parable of the prodigal son. The Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:35 and also the Scrooby society.

METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

George F. Gordon, Pastor

The special meetings being conducted by the Clark evangelistic party is growing in interest and attendance. You will greatly appreciate the type of service these people render. "No finer group of evangelistic singers to be found in the country" is the word that follows the Clarks from place to place. Mrs. Clark preaches a convincing gospel message that will touch your heart. You should by all means hear these messages and hear the excellent program of music.

Services each evening except Saturday at 7:45. On Friday Mrs. Clark will speak on "Desperate Faith for Desperate Days." Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the sermon subject will be "Our Astonishing God."

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

One of the prettiest Halloween parties was the celebration of the 18th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Olds (Lapretta G. Walker), at the Old Meadow farm residence of Mrs. Olds' mother, Mrs. Rachel F. Walker, Saturday evening, where Mrs. Olds has spent her entire life and who is loved by all who know her.

The beautiful old home was prettily decorated with scarlet cut leaf oak and ferns and flowers. The evening was spent in music, vocal, piano and violin, and games. A gypsy fortune teller created much merriment in telling thrilling adventures and fortunes for those seeking advice. Also a mock wedding was held and several tables of 500 was played. Refreshments consisting of cake, sandwiches and coffee and cider and doughnuts. Many handsome presents were received as well as the good wishes of all. Guests were Mrs. Rachel F. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Hosmer Selforth, Mr. and Mrs. Doy Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Mr. and Mrs. H. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nelson, Ralph and Janet; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Sparks, Mr. Sweeney, Miss Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Weed, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Fallner, Mrs. Austin, Mary Wooden, Mr. and Mrs. Boy and Lore, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Berst, Helen and Winifred; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plinkiwit, John Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thelan, Adline and Fannie; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Myer, Miss Irene Cleland, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Erb, Fred and Marie; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Old.

The latest thing to be patented is a bullet-proof shirt that will stop a revolver shot at five paces. The final test, however, will come when it is sent to the laundry.
