

BEAVERTON ENTERPRISE

Established 1927

SIXTH YEAR NO. 36

BEAVERTON, OREGON NOVEMBER 25, 1932

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

Local Events and Happenings of Interest

The Congregational Mission study group met on Thursday of last week with an attendance of 23 members. Miss Juliette Carter led the devotional exercises and Mrs. J. S. Felsner finished reading a chapter of the book entitled, "Feeding China's Millions." Discussion and questions followed. A short business meeting was held at the close of the study hour and pot-luck luncheon was enjoyed at 1 o'clock. The afternoon was taken up with sewing for the needy, and four garments were finished. There will be no meeting on December 1 on account of the Harvest Festival the following afternoon and evening.

Mrs. J. H. Dobbins and small granddaughter Lois Hawley left Friday morning to spend the Thanksgiving holiday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Kelly and family in Salt Lake City.

Little Maxine Cady, pupil of Erma Taylor Sparks, played on the Piano Surprises program over station KGW Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Livermore and daughter Lois were dinner guests on Sunday at the V. B. Price home in Newberg, Or.

Thanksgiving dinner guests at the W. C. McKell home were Mr. and Mrs. Doy Gray, Mrs. F. G. Donaldson and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Spencer and son Russell of Portland.

Kenneth Hagoes of Seattle has been visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. J. Bielman, and family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Chinn and son spent Sunday in Portland and were dinner guests at the home of his brother, Ralph Chinn, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCloskey and children are dinner guests for Thanksgiving day at the home of his sister, Mrs. Nell Smith, in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bielman and children left Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with relatives in Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Wills of Tigard spent Tuesday evening at the W. R. Van Kleeck home. Dinner guests last week were Mr. and Mrs. Ora Anderson of Portland.

Mrs. C. M. Weller of Marysville, Wash., is spending the week visiting with her mother, Mrs. Viola Talbert, and brother, Dr. J. R. Talbert, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Cady entertained as their Thanksgiving guests Dr. and Mrs. George Darland of Hillsboro, Mrs. Alice Spaulding of the Eastern Star home near Forest Grove and Mrs. M. C. Hodges of Banks, Oregon. Mrs. Opal Sutton of Cathlamet, Wash., spent the week-end visiting at the home of Mrs. M. C. McKecher. James Moore, also of Cathlamet, was a dinner guest on Sunday.

The Past Noble Grand's club of the Rebekahs met at the home of Mrs. E. C. McElroy at Aloha on Friday of last week for luncheon and social afternoon.

Mrs. F. W. Livermore entertained a number of relatives and friends on Thanksgiving at her home in Huber. Those enjoying the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Livermore, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Livermore and baby Johnnie Livermore, Mrs. Ivy Syverson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Livermore and daughter Lois, Miss Madie Lawrence of Portland, W. A. Weston and daughter and son-in-law of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Uhr of Portland were Sunday dinner guests at the J. R. Talbert home.

Mrs. Moore of Portland spent the latter part of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Gore, and children.

Mrs. Essex Marsh, chairman of the Red Cross drive in Beaverton, reports that the response in membership has been excellent so far, and the Girl Reserves with Mrs. Lynn Hughes as leader are in charge of the membership drive for the remainder of the week.

Johnnie Livermore is operating a service station at Thirteenth and Morrison streets in Portland.

Mrs. Louis Hughson and children and children and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, spent Sunday visiting with relatives at North Plains and Forest Grove.

Mrs. J. W. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Denney, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Lawrence and A. M. Kennedy attended the meeting of the Matrons, Patrons, Associated Matrons and Patrons and Secretaries at Sunnyside chapter in Portland on Monday evening. This is the last visitation of the 1932 Matrons, Patrons and associates.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McIlwain of Sanel, Or., are making an extended visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. Timmer, while Mr. McIlwain is attending the federal jury in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Metcalfe were hosts on Thanksgiving day for the following dinner guests: John Peterson and son Harold, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Barne and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Tallman and Edward Campbell of Pacific university at Forest Grove.

Don't forget the annual Harvest Festival to be given by the Bethel Aid of the Congregational church on Friday, December 2, from 3 to 8:30 P. M. Tea will be served during the afternoon and cafeteria supper in the evening. The money raised will be used to pay off the church debt. The public is cordially invited.

Thanksgiving

OH, LET me linger by my fireside embers—
Thanksgiving is no day for idle roving,
Old friends, old days, old songs, my heart remembers,
Are gathered to my side for hours of loving.
I take life's book and turn its yellow pages,
Before the firelight glow I watch them brighten.
Old faces of old friends of outgrown ages,
Through windows, with me, watch the brown earth whiten.

I SEE old homesteads with their snowy thatches,
And from huge chimneys grayish smoke ascending.
I hear the welcome sound of lifting latches.
I feel the warm handclasp of hands befriending.
Oh, faces of the past, when life was living,
Come, gather 'round this board and lift your voices
Again, as yore, in one long, glad Thanksgiving,
In which the heart of youth and age rejoices!

—Fred Keller Dix.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

AUTOCRAT OF THE DAY

Come, gallant bird! Come, emperor of your kind,
And in your prostrate fortunes we shall find
The juiciest joys that ever palate felt,
Most fragrant odors that e'er nostril smelt!
And, in the gravy of thy soul, we'll sense
The fullness of misfortune's recompense—
For though you die, give all you have to give,
You die, that we, your worshipers may live!

Tigard Teachers Attend Institute At Beaverton

The first local institute and meeting of the Washington County Teachers' association was held Saturday at Beaverton.

Opening exercises were under the direction of Mrs. Georgia Snyder of the Beaverton High school. Dr. Henrietta Morris of Oregon Tuberculosis society gave a lecture on the fight of tuberculosis and made an appeal to the teachers to push the Christmas seal sale.

The business session of the association was held with Thomas R. Fowler of Tigard presiding. Thomas H. Gentle, well-known educator, gave a short sketch from a book he is writing called the "Autobiography of a Grade Teacher."

Those from Tigard attending the institute were E. B. Nedry, Thomas E. Fowler, Mrs. Myrtle Mullin, L. A. Gooding, Miss Edna Frewing, Miss Pauline Payton, Miss Iola Gooding, Miss Clara Leuthi, Mrs. Lura Nielsen and Miss Virginia Parks.

As The World Goes By

All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players.
Shakespeare.

LONGAN SWORN IN AT SALEM
Do the relative positions of those two prepositions make any essential difference in the meaning?

Morning Yawn: "Ho! Ho! and a bottle of rum!"

Eight men from Oregon have been named for the Cabinet. Strange the other two were overlooked.

One of my farmers friends is suffering from a broken back. He tried to lift 50 cents worth of wheat.

Make a better promise than has ever been made before, and the world will beat a path to your door.

"Only one dry law violator in prison."—News item. After driving on the highway we can't dispute it.

Another reform the incoming administration should tackle is a substantial reduction in the football mortality. Several spectators at the Beaverton-McMinnville game caught cold and hunger pains.

Schools are worth all they cost now just for the pleasure the kids get out of Yo-Yo.

Soon some one hundred lame ducks will be released for flotation down the limpid stream of leisure which flows thru the private preserves of party paraplegia.

Wonder how much money will change hands over the election—from the hands of Europe to the hands of Uncle Sam.

A thousand idle men of Washington County could be set to work polishing the rails of our railroad track.

Read an incredulous story of a squirrel carrying off a boy for a nut. Must have been Jiggs Junior.

Several things have gone up since the election: dough, elevators, farmers' hops and hopes, and we may confidently expect taxes to take on a fresher tone.

"Old Schoolmates Meet in Bath"—Bath, Ill. News. Did they quarrel over the towel?

Teacher Expert—Miss Webfoot, you may go to the blackboard and solve this algebraic question: State Income equals State Expenses. Find the state Savings.

Portland Symphony Will Play Sunday

One hour of glorious musical entertainment, with nine numbers on the program, awaits Sunday afternoon concert-goers who attend the second program of the Portland Symphony orchestra's matinee series, November 27. Into so short a time, it would be difficult to offer more beauty to a music-loving audience. These Sunday afternoon concerts are so attracting with interest, particularly for young people who may not so conveniently attend the orchestra's Monday evening concert series.

There is too, the tremendous price advantage which the matinee programs afford. For as little as 25 cents, one may hear these popular and at the same time classic performances.

The concert of November 27, starting at 3 o'clock, will present Wagner's prelude to Act 3, Lohengrin; Weismann's Dance Fantasia; Schumann's Trauereel (strings); Tschaiovsky's Italian Capriccio; Weber's Oberon overture; Bolzoni's Minuet for strings; Saint Saens' Danso Macabre (Dance of Death); Grainger's Molly on the shore, a British folk song, and Strauss' Waltz, The Emperor.

Perhaps the most colorful number on the program is the Dance Macabre which is a symphonic poem which is most realistic in treatment. It symbolized Death as a fiddler who comes forth at midnight and plays a jig that summons skeletons from their tombs, to join the uncanny dance until the cock crows at dawn. The xylophone is employed to imitate the rattling of bones.

The Minuet for strings is a most charming number, and Grainger's "Molly on the Shore" is a lovely thing, a typical example of the real "fiddle tune" style of music. Italian Capriccio and the "Oberon" overture are wholly delightful and provide fine balance for the program.

For all the hands that wrought for us,
For all the minds that thought for us,
For all the men who looked ahead
And saw us living in their stead;
For kindly hands that sow for us
And shining fields that grow for us,
For all the thoughtfulness of toil
And all the benisons of soil,
We thank Thee, God—and may we live
To dream and hope, to work and give,
With eyes beyond and hearts to bless
A world of so much loveliness.

Golden Anniversary Celebration of Pioneers

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gueber of Route 2 Beaverton celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home recently. They were married at Cedar Mills on November 2, 1882.

They are the parents of nine living children; R. L. Esther and Mrs. Lillian Leary of Portland; Mrs. Hulda Connell and E. E. Connell of Connell station; A. L. of Eugene, Mrs. Estelle Gray of Buffalo, N. Y. Walter and Adele at home. They are also the grand parents of nine children.

Large Crowd Enjoys High School Carnival

The sixth annual carnival at the Tigard Union High school was the best one yet. A large crowd enjoyed the delightful play presented by the Delta Theta and directed by Miss Dorothy Shaw. The name of the play was "The Knave of Hearts." Other forms of entertainment were the various concessions, including a magic room (games and stunts) and a jitney dance. Several turkeys were given to those holding the lucky numbers.

The music for dancing was furnished by a local orchestra composed of the following players: Jerry Arisa, Everett Severson, Max Lewis and Iola Gooding.

Tigard grade school was again the scene of a lively meeting for Troop 228, Monday, November 21.

Eleven boys answer the rollcall, after which the time was profitably used in study of the compass, including bearings and declination. Several games, including the use of the compass were played. An imitation campfire furnished a great deal of enjoyment in song and stories. The evening closed with the scout evening song and a promise of a visit from Mr. Sellikan and Mr. Fowler.

THANK YOU

I wish to thank the people of Washington County for the support given me at the general election. It is my hope that the confidence reposed in me may be justified by my conduct of the office to which I was elected.

DONALD T. TEMPLETON.

Our New Serial
Lady Blanche Farm
By Frances Parkinson Keyes

The tranquil New England farm was named after Lady Blanche, the fragile French beauty, whose dramatic story had become a legend among the Manning cousins and meant most to her namesake, Blanche, whose own beauty carried Philip Starr off his feet the moment he saw her. Mary, Blanche's cousin, was beautiful in a different way. Perhaps her loveliness was less apparent because she was too busy to be conscious of it, too concerned in being a good housekeeper for her father and a tender mother to her little brothers.

It took a man's way of breaking a woman's heart and a visit to a large city where other men made her aware of her own beauty to transform Mary from a simple girl into a fascinating woman. It took a world catastrophe and a minor catastrophe to bring her the happiness for which she longed.

It is a story of unusual interest, and will appeal to all of our readers...