

THIS IS YOUR BIG OPPORTUNITY

LOOKS LIKE THE NEW ENCLOSED CAR AND BIG CASH GIFTS WILL GO FOR LESS THAN WAS REQUIRED IN OLD "PIANO and RING" CONTEST

Judging from present indications, these big prizes are going to be given away for less votes than are usually required when a jitney, a sewing machine, a phonograph, a wrist watch or a small diamond ring are given.

Publication of the first count today does not mean that nominations are closed. Far from it. The campaign is only starting. There are more candidates who have not accomplished anything than there are who have. The campaign is hardly under way yet. Certainly some candidates have not gotten into their stride yet. Live, earnest energetic candidates—subscription getters—can enter now and WALK AWAY from slow-going entries. Speed, pep, work—subscriptions will win.

PRIZES GO FOR LITTLE

That is the honest truth. Votes turned in so far would not justify one of the old-time piano, sewing machine and ring campaigns. The lack of interest manifested by candidates in general is not only regrettable, it is appalling. It is ridiculous.

LET FRIENDS DO WORK

Here the Tualatin Publishing Co., is putting over $3,000 in handsome prizes. And some who have entered are content to stand by and let their friends cast votes for them.

In fact, more votes have been cast in some instances by the subscribers themselves over the counter in the Beaverton office than most of the candidates have turned in.

This means that friends who would subscribe or renew anyway in the natural course of business come to the office, pay their subscriptions, cast their votes for their friends. Some, too, are coupon chasers who would rather spend profitable time looking for coupons when one subscription would offset a whole flock of coupons. Of course that is perfectly all right. The Tualatin Publishing Co. desires business and business makes the votes—either from subscriptions or coupons but they also want to see candidates manifest some enthusiasm themselves in their own election.

It takes more than friends to win. It takes work. Work means subscriptions. Subscriptions mean votes. Votes mean prizes.
