ALOHA FULL GOSPEL MISSION
Clifford W. Noble, Pastor

These are busy days. Spring is coming. The jonquills and daffodils are blooming. Easter will soon be here. Folks everywhere are digging, plowing, garden time. Another year rolled by. But listen, brother, sister, you are one year nearer eternity. The cares of this life are apt to turn your soul from God. Today is the day of Salvation, now is the accepted time. Jesus says "Come unto me all ye ends of the earth and be saved."

Were you at our morning service last Sunday, if not you missed a treat. The choir sang "The Holy City" and so well was this enjoyed there are requests that they might give it again. We shall try to have them do so on the morning of April 9. The orchestra led the Sunday School in the devotional exercise. There was 145 present. Dr. Mulbetch of Portland in a most delightful and instructive way demonstrated the evils of alcohol when taken into the system.

The trustees and officers of the church met at the pastors home Monday night and arranged for the appointment of a nominating committee in order to have a report placed before the church at the coming annual business meeting.

The Round Table class met at Mrs. McGregor for practice on Monday night for their entertainment to be held March 29th. Intense interest is being manifested in the pastors morning talks on Prophecy. Some remarkable facts were outlined of future prophecy about Jerusalem last Sunday and next Sunday morning the message will be about Anti-Christ "Who is He?" "How will we be able to tell when He shall appear?" "What part will He play in world wide events?" This subject is of great and important interest to all Bible students. We shall be pleased to have you in our service. At 7:45 Rev. Redmans message will deal with the Prisoner before the Judge. The evening subjects are leading up to the death of Christ and preparing the thought for resurrection glory.

Our Easter service will be of a very special character both morning and evening. In our Cantata at the evening service we expect to have about 32 voices and this will not only be a wonderful service but is also a credit to Aloha. Few communities of this size could produce such a message in song. The title being "The Thorned Crowned King."

May we see you next Lord's Day at our services?
For Zions sake I will not hid my peace, and for Jerusalems sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.
