Worth Telling Again

George Ade tells this story on himself. He was sitting with a little girl of eight. She looked up from her book on fairy-tales and said: "Does m-i-r-a-g-e spell marriage Mr. Ade?" "Yes, my child," was all he found to answer.—Wall Street Journal.

Martyr to Mode

Doctor—"Have you any idea how your wife caught this terrible cold?" Husband—"I think it was on account of her coat." "Too thin, eh?" "No, it was last winter's one and she didn't wear it."—Bennington Banner.

Leading a Better Life

A State health officer in Virginia relates in The Survey the story of a farmer who was delivering vegetables to a public sanitarium. A patient saluted him. "You're a farmer, ain't yuh?" The farmer allowed that he was. "I used to be a farmer once" said the guest of the State. "Did yuh?" "Yes, Say, stranger, did yuh ever try being crazy?" The farmer never had, and started to move on. "Well, you oughta try it," was the ex-farmer's parting shot. "It beats farmin' all hollow."—Christian Register.

Farm Electricity Aids in Thwarting Thieves

The shotgun and the dog are giving way to outdoor lighting systems and electric burglar alarms as protection against petty thieves and night prowlers who cause such heavy losses of farm property each year. The agricultural engineering department at Oregon State college finds a strong demand for an alarm or protection system which is cheap and effective in reducing this farm hazard.

Yard and flood lighting systems, with a control switch at the owner's bedside, often prove valuable in frightening away night prowlers. One well-known Oregon woman uses a 100 watt bulb, backed by a powerful reflector, fastened high on the windmill. Another Oregon farmer goes still further and has mounted on his house top a large search light similar to an auto headlight. From inside the house he not only can turn on the light but can also turn the rays in any direction. Many farm women can reach out from their bedrooms and make the electric lights gleam in the poultry house.

Another popular method of reducing farm losses from theft is the burglar alarm systems, which is quite as effective especially when combined with flood lighting. When the system is set for the night a bell rings in the house if any door or window is opened in the building or buildings thus protected. The owner then snaps on the flood lights and picks off the intruder with his twenty-two Or, if the owner prefers not to be disturbed he may locate the bell in the chicken house, or elsewhere, and its ring will in itself usually frighten the thief away.

There are various kinds of systems, and their value usually depends on the cleverness with which the alarm circuits are installed, the agricultural department finds. Several commercial concerns are handling such farm equipment, or a person handy with electrical equipment can do a creditable job himself. The agricultural engineering department will be glad to supply further details to anyone interested.

Corn to be Grown in Polk County

DALLAS—Corn will probably prove to be one of the best crops in Polk county this year due to the shortage of hay and pasture. It will be used for green feed for stock, for making silos, and for ear or shelled corn feed. J. R. Beck, county agent, recommends Minnesota 13 or Golden Glow as the two best varieties, with McKay Yellow Dent ranking third best. The seed supply of the latter variety is said to be limited however.

BUFFET MEALS SIMPLIFY SUMMER ENTERTAINING

THOSE who must entertain, or who ordinarily enjoy it, begin to lose enthusiasm when the warm weather rolls around, especially those who are without servants. It was probably someone in such a predicament who conceived the buffet meal. It is not only the simplest way to dine a group of people, but it also has the charm of informality that is welcome at this time of year when everyone feels like relaxing after the more formal events of the winter. There are three good reasons why a buffet luncheon or supper is so easy: the guests wait on themselves, a minimum of silver and dishes is used, and the food can be prepared hours in advance and stored in the refrigerator until serving time. When you have an automatic gas range and refrigerator, preparation is still further simplified. When everything is ready, the food can be taken from the refrigerator and reheated on the gas stove.

No dish requiring knives is correctly served at a buffet meal, so none are included with the necessary silver laid out with the plates which are placed at one end of the table near the main dishes. The menu should include one or two main dishes, either hot or cold, several kinds of sandwiches or hot buttered biscuits, relishes and nuts, a choice of beverages, and a dessert. Cold meats and salads are good choices for warm weather, although creamed or scalloped dishes are always suitable. Pastry, frozen desserts, or fruit with little cakes or cookies are good choices for lessert. Below are recipes for some appropriate dishes for buffet meals.

Chicken Mousse

1 tablespoon gelatin, 1/2 cup water, 3 tablespoons butter, 3 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 2 cups milk, 2 cups finely cut chicken, 1 cup cream, watercress or parsley.

Soak gelatin in water. Melt butter, stir in flour and seasoning. Add milk gradually and stir over fire until thick. Add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Add chicken and cool. Whip cream and fold into cooled mixture. Turn into mold and place in gas refrigerator to set. Turn out and garnish with watercress or parsley. Serves 12. Minced ham or other meat may replace the chicken.

Molded Sea Food

1/2 tablespoon gelatin, 2 tablespoons cold water, 1/2 cup celery, cut fine, 1/2 cup pimiento, 1/2 tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 tablespoon flour, 1 tea spoon mustard, cayenne, 2 egg yolks, 1 1/2 tablespoons melted butter, 1/4 cup milk, 1/4 cup vinegar, 2 cups shredded lobster or crabmeat, cucumbers, sour cream dressing.

Soak gelatin in cold water 5 minutes. Add celery and pimento. Mix dry ingredients, add egg yolks, butter, milk and vinegar. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Add gelatin mixture and stir until dissolved. Pour over fish and mix well. Fill mold, chill in gas refrigerator several hours and serve with cucumbers dressed with sour cream dressing.

Sour Cream Dressing

2 teaspoons sugar, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon mustard, 1 egg, 1 cup sour cream, 3 tablespoons vinegar.

Mix dry ingredients. Add egg slightly beaten, sour cream, and vinegar. Cook in top of double boiler until mixture thickens, stirring constantly. Remove from fire and cool to room temperature, then place in a closed jar and store in refrigerator.

Frozen Shrimp Omelet

3 eggs, 3/4 to 1 cup flaked shrimp, salt and pepper.

Wash and clean shrimp and flake with a fork. Beat yolks of eggs until thick and lemon-colored and whites until stiff. Add shrimp to the yolks, season to taste and fold into the whites. Place in freezing tray of gas refrigerator and freeze. Serves four to six.

Vegetable Supper Salad

1 package lemon-flavored gelatin, 2 cups boiling water, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup chopped celery, 1 cup shredded cabbage, 1/2 cup grated carrot, 1 green pepper, chopped.

Dissolve prepared gelatin in boiling water. Add vinegar and salt. Place in refrigerator until mixture begins to thicken, then fold in celery, cabbage, carrot, and green pepper. Turn into mold and return to refrigerator until ready to serve. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Serve with thin slices and cornucopias of cold meat. Any desired vegetables may be used in this recipe.

Ham Salad in Tomato Cups

6 medium sized tomatoes, 1/2 cup chopped celery, 1 teaspoon vinegar, 4 tablespoons mayonnaise, 1 cup minced ham, 1/2 cup chopped nuts, 1/2 teaspoon mustard, 1 hard cooked egg, chopped.

Wash tomatoes and remove centers. Combine chopped ingredients. Add vinegar to mayonnaise and combine with chopped mixture. Fill tomatoes and place in refrigerator to chill. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise and garnish with cucumber slices.

LARGEST FAT MAN

Joe Raggio of Philadelphia is considered the world's largest fat man. He weighs 750 pounds and has not been out of the house for fifteen years because he is too big to get through a doorway. He eats 12 pounds of spaghetti each day and 7 pounds of hot dogs, 1 gallon of coffee, 3 quarts of ice cream and 60 to 70 hard-boiled eggs. It takes 8 yards of cloth to make his pants and 5 yards for his shirt.

Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt Principal Speaker at Mother's Day Meeting

The great events of this world are not revolutions, and economic conference and banking reforms. The great events of this world are babies.

The most important people in this world are not soldiers, and statesmen and bankers. The most important people in this world are mothers who are called upon to bring into existence a new generation.

So it is fitting that on Mother's Day we honor mothers. It is even more fitting that on this day we should take steps to make motherhood safe for them, as it is agreed by leading authorities that at least half the 16,000 women who annually die in childbirth could be saved by adequate maternity care.

A meeting aimed to help remedy the situation is scheduled to be held in New York City May 12th with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, as principal speaker. A number of outstanding medical authorities and educational leaders are to be on the program. Emphasis is to be placed on two important steps to be taken. First, people should understand that much depends on the choice of the doctor, and select one known to have had experience in maternity cases. After selecting him, parents must trust his judgment, and not try to prevail upon him to make painless a process which cannot always be made free from pain without increasing the risk of infection and other undesirable complications. Second, if a hospital is chosen, it should be one of high standards, such as those approved by the American College of Surgeons, for despite the fact that each year finds more women going to hospitals, there is no corresponding decrease in the mortality rate. In fact, many authorities believe it is safer for a woman to have her baby at home, if conditions there are suitable, unless the mother's condition requires special care.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY
