Rev. Willard P. Anderson, Pastor

In the midst of poverty, unrest, sorrow and uncertainty, there is one who cares. He will give "beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness." Just remember there is a personal savior who has a personal interest in you. "Cast all your cares upon Him, for He careth for you."

Do you have a place where you regularly worship? If not, come and worship with us. We assure you a friendly welcome.

C. W. Springer, Pastor

One month of the attendance contest with Hillsboro Church of Christ is past. Last year we won the banner, but it will require the united effort of every member to accomplish this again this summer. Remember the time of the Bible school is 9:45.

The young people will hold an ice cream social on the church lawn Friday evening if the weather permits. Everyone is invited.

In the absence of Mr. Springer, Mrs. Springer will fill the pulpit Sunday, both morning and evening. The topic of the morning sermon will be "The Book of Remembrance." In the evening the topic is "Peace in Chaos."

We wish to extend an invitation to members of the Methodist Church to attend our Sunday School and church when there are no services in your own church. You will find a hearty welcome there and will soon feel at home.

The patient today is weakened suffering from many complications. The accumulated ills of years cannot be healed in a few weeks or months.
