Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25¢ at drug stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

LEGUMES FOR LOW COST MEALS

In almost every economical meal planning guide, dried beans and peas are served frequently. The reason is that legumes, including beans and peas of all kinds are inexpensive very filling and have special food values which may be lacking when certain foods are out of reach.

Legumes, unlike most of their vegetable sisters, are remarkable for their protein content. Not only are they a rich source of this muscle-building food essential, but their protein also resembles that found in the animal sources—eggs and meat. Too, legumes have protective qualities for they supply some calcium and vitamin B.

Scalloped beans with tomatoes, baked beans with ground left-over meat, black-eyed peas, used in salads with shredded cabbage or carrots are some of the many ways of utilizing these versatile vegetables.

The following legume dishes are delicious as well as unusual.

Baked Onions Stuffed with Beans
Cut large onions in half, simmer in lightly salted water until almost tender. Lift the onions out and remove the center rings, chop and mix with cooked or canned beans, to which melted butter and seasonings have been added. Season to taste with salt and pepper and fill the onion shells with the mixture. Sprinkle buttered bread crumbs on top and bake in the oven until onions are tender and brown.

Split Pea Soup

1 pit of dried or split peas
1 quart boiling water
1 small bunch celery
1 bunch parsley
1 quart rich milk or thin cream
2 small onions

Salt and pepper to taste

Wash the peas in cold water, removing those that float. Soak overnight in enough water to cover (1 qt.). Then drain off the soaking water and cook the peas slowly until tender in one quart of boiling water. In the meantime, the onion, parley and celery may either be ground or chopped fine and added to the peas. Cook together until tender. Remove from fire and run soup through a sieve or colander, adding salt and pepper to taste. Bring soup to a boil once again. Just before serving, add the cream or milk which has been scalded.

Ribbon Bean Loaf

1 cup navy beans
1 cup kidney beans
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons butter
1/2 cup buttered bread crumbs

HERE THEY ARE

HAVE you ever wondered how many foods are canned in any large quantities? Here is the list. Your grocer can get you any of these foods which he does not happen to carry. The letter E opposite a food indicates that it is packed in sanitary enamel-lined cans and thus retains all of its natural color.

plans call for putting gates in the dike and allowing the water to come in at high tide on the higher ground, which can then be distributed over the lower parts of the fields. The two projects involve about 150 acres of land, which will be used for dairy cattle pasture.

Landplaster Helps Alfalfa

DALLAS — Landplaster increased the growth on the second cutting of alfalfa on the Ora Lantz farm in the Greenwood community four inches higher than where no plaster was used, Mr. Lantz reported to County Agent J. R. Beck. Treble Phosphate, however, gave no apparent improvement.
