

BEAVERTON

Miss Balder of Portland, is staying with Mrs. Geo. Stitt for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hughes left Saturday for Tacoma to spend several days visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McFarlane.

Mrs. Chas. Hansen entertained the Daphne club with a luncheon at her home in Portland Thursday. Mrs. V. A. Wood and Mrs. Forest Howard were in attendance from Beaverton.

J. R. Kellogg, who is with the CCC boys at Mist, Oregon, was home for several days last week with his family at Westdale.

Mrs. B. K. Denney visited Tuesday with Mrs. R. B. Denney.

Mrs. T. A. Teulona of Mt. Rose Colorado, visited Mr. and Mrs. Otto Erickson the latter part of last week. Mrs. Teulona is a childhood friend of the Ericksons.

Roy Martin, who has been in the D. S. hospital at San Francisco, for the past month, returned home Saturday much improved in health.

Earl Evans and Bill Stump drove to Lake Lytle Friday, where they will spend several weeks improving Mr. Evan's property at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper, of Portland, were Sunday callers at the home of Mrs. Julia Cooper.

Francis Livermore and James Lewis attended the A. C. W. A. meeting at Hillsboro Tuesday evening.

Gus Dessinger and Henry Nelson left Tuesday for Lake Lytle, where they will hunt duck and fish for salmon for several days.

Mrs. Frank Noyes is confined to her home with intestinal flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Hansen motored to McMinnville Sunday, to visit at the Johnson home. The Johnsons are Mr. Hansen's cousins.

Miss Merza Halsten returned home this week from Oakland, Cal., where she has been employed.

E. Dailey is quite ill at his home with intestinal flu.

The West Slope Young People's Bible class met Saturday night for the regular weekly meeting. The usual large number were in attendance. W. E. Garnett spoke on the seventh chapter of Genesis. The class closed with a short business meeting. Sunday afternoon the young people conducted services at the Union Gospel Mission. The meeting was led by Harriet West. The sermons of the evening were delivered by Douglas and Kenneth Taylor. The special musical numbers were: "Will Your Anchor Hold" sung by Eileen Garnett, Cathryn Denney, Genevieve Carter, Harriet West, Kenneth Taylor, Arnold Garnett, B. Denney, D. Taylor and "Silent Night" sung by the class. Margaret West read the scripture. The meeting was closed by Mr. Garnett. The young folks enjoyed a pot luck supper at the McMinn home at 5 o'clock.

The annual Harvest Festival of the Bethel Congregational church was a great success. More than 140 were served at the dinner. The bazaar was well patronized and orders, which will be filled as soon as possible, were placed for more articles. Mr. Finley showed two reels of his famous nature pictures which were much enjoyed. Mrs. F. G. Donaldson was chairman of the festival.

Only 10 days until Christmas. Use the gift guide on page four for your shopping list.

Beaver Chapter Order of Eastern Star held their annual election Wednesday evening. The following officers were elected: Worthy Matron, Viola Nielsen; Worthy Patron, Geo. McGreen; Associate Matron, Emma Garrish; Associate Patron, Raymond Perry; Secretary, Margaret Denney; Treasurer, Hazel Byfield; Conductress, Myrtle Felsner; Associate Conductress, Bertha Williams. Brief remarks were given by each of the elective officers.

The retiring Matron Vivian Laurence gave an excellent farewell talk to her officers. Andrew Kennedy, retiring patron, also made a short talk and presented Mrs. Laurence with a gift.

The Beaver Social club also held election of officers as follows: President, Miss Margaret Peterson; Vice-president, Mildred Carr; Secretary, Ethel Phelps.

Cobb & Waite have leased the Foley farm at Elmonica to W. A. Campbell and the F. D. Peck house to Mr. Hugget a Tillamook ex-dairyman.

Friends were shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Dayton Peck's mother last Saturday in California. She arrived there, called by the serious illness of her father, who is still ill, in time to see her mother before she passed away.

Mrs. Grace Norma announces the marriage of her daughter Donald Perkins to Kenneth Nelson of Shelton, Wash.

Twelve of the 13 officers of Beaverton Grange were installed in a joint installation of Tigard, Beaverton, and Ladd Hill Granges at the Tigard Grange Hall Wednesday evening, Dec. 6. The installing officer was Arthur Brown of Salem, state grange deputy.

Mrs. W. R. Van Kleeck, Mrs. M. C. McKercher, of Beaverton, and Mrs. H. M. Sammons of Tigard, assisted in the installation. Four other members of Beaverton grange were present. A short interesting program was given.

Genevieve Carter, assistant steward of Beaverton grange was unable to be present and was installed at the regular meeting Saturday by the master Mrs. H. F. Downing.

Miss Mabel Richter, Helen and Ethel Merritt visited Miss Ann Kama in Hillsboro Sunday.

It will be the TALK of the TOWN!
