A group of athletic events were held at the last meeting, and first place was hotly contested for. James Miller first, Jack Reeves second, Frank McGuire third, Al Galloway fourth and Bill Siddens fifth. Others trailed.

Saturday seven scouts trekked several hot and heavy miles to Lost Park beyond Cedar Mill, there to camp. However, it was necessary to return to the scout cabin, which they did by way of the Barnes Road and the rear entrance through the woods.

"Meriwether" is the subject of most scout conversations now-a-days, especially since a record number plan to attend the summer camp this season. However quite a group of boys recently completed an all-week camp at the scout cabin, mixing work with play.

Tonight's meeting is planned for 7:30 at the Camp Underwood cabin. Scouts may stay overnight.

"BOTTOMS UP" IS ROMANTIC FILM COMEDY

"Bottoms Up" described as a romantic comedy with music, will open at the Ritz Theatre on Sunday and remain for Monday night.

"Pat" Paterson, lovely English comedienne, makes her American film debut in this picture. The other members of the cast are Spencer Tracy, John Boles, Herbert Mundin, Sid Silvers, Harry Green, Thelma Todd, Robert Emmett O'Connor, Dell Henderson, Suzanne Kaaren and Douglas Wood.

The film satirizes the bluff of Hollywood. It portrays how three merry rogues and a girl with movie ambitions put on a swell front and crash the golden gates of the movie capital. The girl, who has long cherished a love for a famous movie star, soon finds herself rocketed to film fame by three rollicking companions.

The four song numbers which give promise of being hits are "Waiting at the Gate for Kitty," "Turn on the Moon," "Little Did I Dream" and "I'm Throwing My Love Away."

CHURCH OF CHRIST
