Poultrymen to Picnic Sunday at Kent Farm

Poultrymen of Washington County and their friends, will picnic Sunday, August 12, at the W. M. Kent farm east of Dilley. Everyone attending should bring a good basket of lunch. A short program will be held immediately following the lunch with H. E. Cosby, of the extension service, the principal speaker. Games and sports will take up the rest of the day.

There is no substitute for newspaper advertising for economical and efficient results. Newspapers go into the homes, not the gutters, and they go into the homes of people who buy as invited guests.

Camp Merriwether is over for its ninth season. Satisfactory emblems were given to both local scouts who were on the ship. Also at Sunday's Court of Honor at Camp Gene Brown received Scout Life Guard award and the Canoeing merit badge. James Miller was awarded the badge in Junior Red Cross Life Saving, Scout Life Board and the Rowing merit badge.

Without a close rival scout Russell Hulett won the sports events in last meeting's program. Orin Zimmerman was second, Jack Reeves third. On the short hike during the meeting the leader succeeded in convincing two of the scouts that they were entirely lost, and it was very good practice in orientation. Even the discovery of the North Star did not help them, apparently, for they had the feeling of being LOST. Don't try it sometime.

The troop will hold its August overnight hike starting tomorrow afternoon. Further announcements will be made at tonight's meeting at the grade school at 7:30.

General Petroleum Expands Activities in Oregon

C. J. Barnes, Beaverton branch manager for General Petroleum, announces that the company has increased its activities by appointing a real estate manager for the Oregon division and an industrial salesman; and that, at the close of the longshoreman strike, sales of Mobilgas and Mobilol turned so sharply upward that the total volume of business for July was virtually normal.

A real estate department has been established and D. C. Brees, formerly Portland district manager, has been made manager for the Oregon division. He is expected to visit this territory soon. Thad Vreeland, formerly manager of the fuel oil department, succeeds Brees as Portland district manager. Both are Portland men, with 10 years of service with General Petroleum, west coast affiliate of the Socony-Vacuum Oil company.

The new industrial salesman is James A. McGowan, who has been prominently identified with the oil business in the Pacific Northwest for the past 10 years.

FOR ALL THE WORLD TO LOVE!

An Angel of a baby who'll steal right into your heart!

With one of the largest and most imposing casts ever assembled for a motion picture production, "Stand Up and Cheer" will make its appearance on the screen at the Ritz Theatre Sunday and Tuesday, August 12-13-14. Among the stars names that stud the roster of players are Warner Baxter, James Dunn, Madge Evans, Ralph Morgan, Shirley Temple, Nigel Bruce, Arthur Byron, John Boles and Stepin Fetchit. In the supporting cast are a number of famous entertainment personalities, among whom are Sylvia Froos, Jimmy Dallas, "Aunt Jemima," Mitchell and Durant and Nick Foran.

The story is that of a Broadway theatrical producer who is called upon by the President of the United States to help restore prosperity by reviving the spirits of the people through a gigantic amusement campaign. With the cream of the entertainment crop at his disposal, the producer puts on display the most lavish amusement units ever produced.

Among the thousand and one wonders in the picture there are hundreds of dazzling girls, a vocal chorus of 500, 1000 players, 335 scenes, 1,200 wild animals and 5 bands of music. From this assembly of players, scenes and music, come five breath-taking spectacles and five authentic song hits that all give promise of being the dance tunes of the world for 1934. Advance reports on the film indicate that it is one of the most elaborate undertakings Hollywood has ever endeavored to create.

HERE ARE SOME CHEERING FACTS

to think about during August:—America still stands out as a leader among the sixty older nations of the world . . . American people like to stand on their own feet . . . They prefer to help others rather than to be helped . . . Self-reliance and abhorrence of pauperism are American characteristics . . . The people of the U. S. A. are a sound, safe risk . . . More factories are running than are shut down . . . More men and women have jobs than have lost them . . . More people are solvent than have sought relief . . . More communities are paying their bills than have defaulted . . . Industry and business are anxious to get going and make jobs for unemployed . . . Banks are sound and have the public confidence . . . This bank is in excellent condition and invites you and your friends to make it your headquarters for the future . . . You are assured friendly, personal attention to all banking details when you bank here.
