Cattle Abortion Control to be Explained Further at Hiteon Meeting Monday

WM. F. CYRUS
County Agent

Another explanation of the federal plan of abortion control will be made at the Hiteon school, Monday, November 26, at 8 p. m. Obligations of the dairymen and of the government will be explained in detail at this meeting. Drawing of blood samples for this test is progressing rapidly with approximately 800 cows in the southwest part of the county having been already tested and a considerable number in the east part of the county having also been checked. Dairymen generally seem to believe that the plan is one worth while taking advantage of and that there should be a benefit in eradicating this infectious trouble from dairy herds.

"College Rhythm" on Paramount Screen

Starting Thursday, November 29th the Paramount Theatre will present one of the screen's greatest college musical hits of the year. Boasting a splendid cast which includes such prominent favorites as Joe Penner, Lanny Ross, Jack Oakie, Mary Brian, Helen Mack and Lydia Roberti, "College Rhythm" will provide many laughs as well as excellent music. On the stage the "Artists and Models" revue will assure Paramount patrons of outstanding "in the flesh" entertainment. This performance was taken from one of R. K. O.'s leading revues and is headed by Margaret Lillie and George Hall, widely known throughout the United States as the laugh-provoking fools of vaudeville.

"College Rhythm" is heralded by critics as an outstanding accomplishment in musicals. And headed by Joe Penner, radio's famous fool, making his debut on the screen, the picture offers good comedy, fast music, and a clever story.

The theme is that of rival merchants vying for honors with football teams in order to gain the favor of the populace. They also pep up their stores with plenty of feminine pulchritude, singing clerks and modernistic settings. The "College Rhythm" will prove to be a gay hour and a half of entertainment.

The "Artists and Models" revue introduce such talent as Wade & Wade. European novelty stars who perform difficult and marvelous feats; the original thousand pounds of harmony who will sing any number requested by the audience; Geraldine Ross, a delightful blond personality whose dancing is par excellence; Sanna & Loomis, who tickle your ribs with their monkey shins.

Vernon A. Billon of route 6, Portland, passed away at Belding, Mich. The remains are being brought to Portland in care of J. P. Finley & Son.

Beans Behave

Of course stringless beans can't string you. And kidney beans won't kid you either. In fact it's greatly to their credit how well both these varieties of beans behave. Here are some examples of their excellent behavior even when they are all heated up.

Creamed Stringless Beans: Melt two tablespoons butter, add two tablespoons flour and stir smooth. Combine the liquor from a 10 1/2-ounce can of stringless beans with the contents of a 6-ounce can of evaporated milk and add slowly, cooking until smooth and creamy. Season to taste with salt and pepper, add the beans and heat thoroughly. Serves four or five.

Courtesy Costs Little

All this courtesy on the part of the beans has the advantage also of costing little. Here is a recipe for instance which can't possibly cost you more than a quarter to make.

Stringless Beans with Crumbs: Drain a No. 2 can of stringless beans, saving the juice to use in a vegetable cocktail, and spread the beans out in a shallow, flat baking dish. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and one-half cup crumbs mixed with two tablespoons melted butter. Place in a hot oven or under broiler until hot and crumbs brown. Serves six. And, even with a title like the following, kidney beans' behavior remains of the best.

Red Devil on Toast: Add two cups grated cheese to the contents of a can of tomato soup, and heat until melted. Add the contents of a No. 2 can peas and half the contents (one cup) of a No. 1 can of red kidney beans. Season with salt and pepper, and heat thoroughly. Serve on toast, and lay eight crisp curls of bacon on top. Serves eight.

The Bohemian Restaurant located on Washington Street at West Park in Portland, is offering their guests an exceptional treat in the form of a dinner more outstanding than in past years. Roast young turkey with dressing, cranberry sauce, and real English plum pudding with that genuine brandy sauce, if desired. Unusual Program Offered Portland Capitol Theatre Patrons Coming Week

For the week starting Sunday, the Capitol Theatre in Portland, always on the alert to give its patrons the biggest and best show value in Portland, wishes to announce that as a special attraction on the stage, it presents Billy Barty and his company, a real troupe of bonafide moving picture and stage stars.

Little blonde curly haired Billy has been seen in many an Our Gang and Mickey McGuire comedy and has played in such pictures as "Forty-Second Street," "Gold Diggers of 1933" and "Footlight Parade."

Billy has been making a personal tour of the leading theatres on the Pacific Coast and has been called back to Hollywood to take up his picture work again; but has been prevailed upon to make this personal appearance for one week only at the Capitol theatre in answer to many inquiries.

In addition to Billy Barty and Company, Moate Brooks, master of ceremonies, and his Melody Masters have arranged a musical score that is well worth listening to, and the Band Box Girls, that clever aggregation of good looking dancers have arranged routines to fit the "Going Hollywood" idea.

The screen portion of the program also offers plenty of amusement starting Sunday, when the gigantic musical comedy entitled "Dames," opens on the screen of the popular playhouse. "Dames" has something different from most musical comedies, in that it has a story with a definite plot.

There is an all star cast in the picture, headed by such notable actors and actresses as Joan Blondell, Dick Powell, Ruby Keeler, Za Su Pitta and Guy Kibbee.

All in all, the Portland Capitol offers a clean bill that will please the entire family.

"The Last Gentleman" starring George Arliss, will be shown on the screen Wednesday and Thursday, also a new Laurel and Hardy Comedy, called "Them Thar Hills." The usual Saturday midnight stage frolic will be presented along with the "Going Hollywood Idea."

Advertisers who get results know that the columns of this newspaper pay dividends.
