Girls League are Given Surprise Party

TIGARD—Members of the Girls league at the high school were pleasantly surprised with a party planned by Alice Gregg, girls advisor; Margaret Olson, president; and Helen Schmeitzer. Four Christmas trees covered with candy canes was a part of the surprise and the canes were distributed to the girls after they had played games.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McDonald were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edwards Sunday, December 16.

A. H. Vincent of the First Bank of Tigard, was elected vice-president of the Washington County Bankers association, at their meeting held at Hillsboro, Wednesday, December 12.

In a hard fought game on the Sherwood court, Monday night, Bradford Clothes, inter-city leader, took the game with Sherwood by score of 41 to 23 but it was a nip and tuck affair with a battle all the way.

Sherwood started out and gathered two baskets before the Cloisters got started but smooth passing and working of several plays put them in the lead. Bradfords center had about four inches reach on Gaddis, Sherwood center, but only got about the tipoffs. He was effective under the baskets in the first half and accounted for a number of the visitors scores.

It was a real battle with two eliminated from the game with fouls. Fouls resulted from a desire to check close and keep the play up. Geenan for the visitors was high point man with 12 counters. Gaddis led the locals with 7. The loss puts Sherwood in the .333 column with 1 win and 2 losses. Jorgenson was referee. Sherwood plays Neighborhood Thursday night on the local floor.

A wedding of interest to Tigard people will take place Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rankin when Miss Edna Smith becomes the bride of Loren Whitehead. Invitations are out to the various relatives and friends. Miss Smith has been complimented at several various pre-nuptial showers.

Mrs. John Tigard had a pleasant visit from her sister Mrs. Fanny Smith last week. She is living in the middle west.

Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold entertained with a dinner Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Evans of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. Christensen, Albert Christensen, Mrs. Elizabeth Vincent and Art Vincent.

Civic interest was brought to the surface early this week when a petition was taken around to the different business houses with a request to the state highway commission to gravel the siding along the highway through Tigard.

Although the highway department is seemingly buying land on either side of the business district, there has been no mention or action taken on buying of property in the district. As a consequence, the highway commission has let the gravel edge along the road get into pitted condition with some holes as much as three to four inches deep. Serious damage could result to a car that accidentally got off the road into one of the holes. C. A. Donnally was the sponsor of the petition to the state highway department.

Crow's Caw Called Musical

Many persons who are perfectly familiar with the caw of the common crow fail to recognize its love notes and its conversational abilities when it is ministering to its young. In early spring or late winter the crow often gives forth quite musical sounds.

VIENNA CHOIR BOYS

The singing boys of Vienna, that charming juvenile choir, comes back to the United States for its third American tour this autumn. The boys sailed on the Ile de France, October 29, arriving November 6. They started immediately on a tour which will take them to the Pacific Coast and back.

In the long history of musical innovation in this country, there has never been anything quite like the Saengerknaben. Their fresh young voices their assured musicianship and instinct for tonal balance and color, their delightful air of spontaneous childhood, has captivated audiences all over the country. "They are charming, they are naive, they are unique" wrote one New York critic. Other comments follow:

"The ensemble tone of the choir is one of rare beauty."

"Singing their way a score of boys from Vienna are seeing America. Time was when Josef Haydn and then Franz Schubert were of their order. More than 400 years of history, most of the Hapsburg variety, are behind the Vienna Saengerknaben."

The choir, as last year, is under the direction of Martha Reynolds. Tickets at popular prices are on sale at J. K. Gill & Co.
