appointed manager of the new branch, which will provide better service facilities for east side Dodge owners.

A complete stock of parts and a staff of factory trained mechanics will be maintained under C. L. Pigg, service manager.

Mr. Shipley came to Portland in 1930 to take over the Dodge franchise. At that time he had 35 employees. His business has increased until he now employs more than 100 persons. Six months ago he enlarged his west side quarters by adding a separate truck department at Southwest Fifteenth avenue and Alder street.

Later Mr Shipley contemplates a truck salesroom on the east side, thus providing sales facilities on both sides of the river for Dodge and Plymouth cars and trucks.
