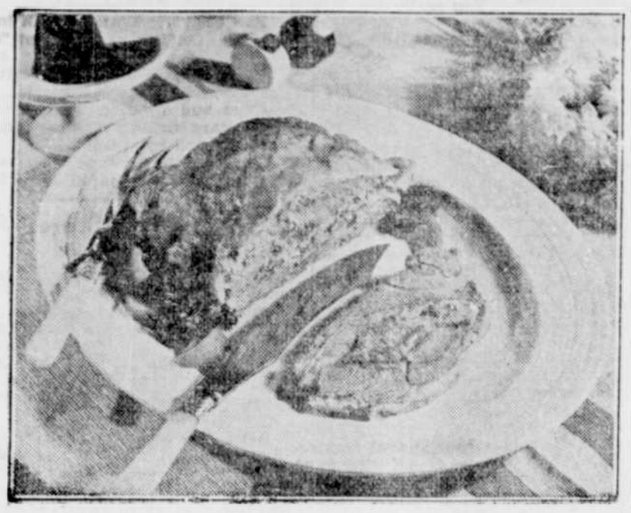
Lamb and New Bonnet Two Easter Traditions



The stuffed cushion shoulder of lamb (above) is one of the newer styles in lamb dishes. It is just as delicious as it is attractive and economical.

Leg o' lamb and bonnet new, two Easter traditions. But leg o'lamb is not the only roast suitable for this Sunday which stands out above all other Sundays of the year. You can have as much fun selecting your lamb roast as you do your Easter hat—and there are almost as many styles from which to choose. "Be your family large or small, be your budget rigid or elastic, be the dinner stately or simple, there is a lamb roast to meet your need," says Inez S. Wilson, home economist.

Spring vegetables rally valiantly to the cause when planning your Easter menu around lamb; they seem to have a special affinity for this delicately flavored meat. Fruits, as an appetizer, make an excellent beginning for the Easter dinner, or you may punctuate the meal with a fruit salad, or finish with a flourish by serving a simple fruit dessert.

In the menu suggested below any lamb roast may be used instead of the leg and the menu may be added to or taken from to make the dinner more elaborate or simpler, as one wishes.

Easter Dinner Menu

Fruit Cup Cheese Wafers
Leg of Lamb Currant Mint Sauce
New potatoes with Parsley Butter
Glazed Carrots New Peas
Pineapple Sherbet
Hearts of Lettuce Salad
Ice Cream Strawberry Sauce
Coffee Mints

In place of the leg of lamb, the cushion style shoulder roast shown in the picture will fit nicely into this menu as will any of the other lamb roasts, the recipes for which are given

Cushion Style Lamb Shoulder With Sausage Dressing

Have the bones removed from a shoulder of lamb and the roast sewed, leaving one side open for putting in the dressing. Wipe with a damp cloth, rub inside and out with salt pepper and garlic, if desired, and pack lightly with the sausage dressing.

Sausage Dressing

1-4 pound bulk sausage
2 tablespoons grated onion
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 cup bread crumbs
Salt and pepper
Stock or water

Fry the sausage with the onion and onion and parsley, stirring constantly until the meat is cooked enough so it separates into particles. Add the crumbs and seasonings and enough liquid to make a moist dressing. While hot, pack into the lamb shoulder. Sew or skewer the opening. Place on a rack in an open pan and set in a slow open (300 deg. F.) Cook until done, allowing 35 minutes to the pound of meat.

Currant Mint Sauce. Break up a glass of current jelly with a fork, but do not beat it. Add abou t 2 tablespoons of finely chopped mint leaves and a little grated orange rind.

Barbecued Lamb

Leg of Lamb
½ cup Worcestershire sauce
½ cup catsup
½ cup water
Salt
Pepper

Place the leg of lamb skin side down on a rack in a roasting pan. Cut across the meat two or three times. Season with salt and pepper. Mix the Worcestershire sauce, catsup and pour over the roast. Roast in a modern oven (300 deg. F) until done, allowing about 30 minutes to the pound. Baste the roast frequently with the sauce.

Stuffed Breast of Lamb

2 lamb breasts
½ cup sliced onions
4 tablespoons fat
2 cups cooked brown rice
Salt
Pepper

Cook the onions slowly in the fat. Add the rice and seasoning. Heat and stir so that all will be well blended.

Have a pocket cut in the lambs breasts and fill with the dressing. Tie or skewer into shape. Place on a rack in an open roasting pan. Cook in a moderate oven (350 deg. F) for about 1¾ hours.

Crown of Lamb

Slices of salt pork
½ pound pork sausage
2 eggs beaten
½ cup cracker crumbs
½ cup diced celery
½ cup chopped mushrooms
¼ cup milk
1 pinch of sage
Salt and pepper

Have a crown of lamb prepared at market. Combine sausage with cracker crumbs, celery and mushrooms Season with salt, pepper and sage. Moisten with slightly beaten eggs and milk. Season crown with salt and pepper and fill with dressing. Wrap the rib ends with salt pork. Place it on a rack in an open roasting pan. Do not cover and do not add water. Put in a moderate oven (300-350 deg F) and roast until done, about two hours. To serve, remove salt pork and decorate rib ends with paper frills, potato or carrot balls.

Forest Facts

The average cord of four-foot wood contains between 85 and 90 cubic feet of wood and bark, and from 38 to 43 cubic feet of air spaces, according to measurements recently made by the Pacific Northwest Forest Experiment Station.

Burls from Oregon and Washington hardwood trees, especially maple, myrtle, madeone and ash form an increasingly large export to European ports where they are converted into highly figured veneer to be used in furniture and cabinet making.

There are 300 board feet in a cord of small logs as compared to 640 feet in a cord of large logs. The discrepancy arises because the log scale fails to account for all the actual wood volume in small logs.
