Cakes for Picnics

FROSTED cakes for picnics without a crack in the icing!
Yes! It can be done! And here's how.

First, bake your cake. Then remove from pan, and let cool.
After that, return it to pan, wrap pan in waxed paper and tie it up securely. That's step number one.

Make the frosting a few days in advance. Put it in the ice-box in a tightly covered jar. Pack it with the picnic lunch, and frost your cake at the picnic grounds.
That's step number two.

Eat it before anyone steps on it. That's step number three.

How to Make the Frosting

Chocolate is an almost universal favorite, so we'll tell you how to make a frosting out of that. You need three ounces (one package) of cream cheese, three or four tablespoons milk, two cups sifted confectioner's sugar, two squares unsweetened chocolate, melted, and a dash of salt.

Soften the cream cheese with the milk. Add the confectioner's sugar, one cup at a time, blending after each addition. Then add the chocolate and salt, and beat until smooth.

This makes enough frosting to cover the tops of two 9-inch layer cakes, or the top and sides of an 8x8x2 inch cake, or about a dozen cup cakes. When tightly covered, it may be kept in the refrigerator several days before using.

Delicious Cup Cakes

And here is the way to make delicious cup cakes. Cream one-half cup butter and one cup sugar, and add two wellbeaten eggs.
Sift together one and three-quarters cups flour and three teaspoons baking powder, and add alternately with three-fourths cup syrup from canned pineapple.
Bake in tiny buttered muffin tins at 375 degrees for fifteen minutes.

Government

WITH drastic changes taking place in the governments of nations, much attention is turned in these days to forms of government and to discussions of various types of government. People, somewhat bewildered by adversity and untoward conditions in their personal affairs, are prone to turn to their national government either with appeals for help or with condemnation. Some are looking for safety and security in government, while others are fearing the encroachment of government control.

Christian Science has much to say about government. Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, speaks often of God's government of man. She speaks of the endowment with life and intelligence of whatever is governed by God. "God has endowed man with inalienable rights, among which are self-government, reason, and conscience," she writes on page 106 of the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," and adds, "Man is properly self-governed only when he is guided rightly and governed by his Maker, divine Truth and Love."

Through the ages mortals have sought freedom to think according to the dictates of their own conscience, freedom to act according to their own best judgment, and freedom to govern their affairs righteously without interference from others or from the state.

For a long time mortals have sought freedom from tyranny, freedom from slavery, freedom from oppression and depression, freedom from sin and from sickness. Christian Science strikes at the root of these evils, and helps weary people to find the realization of that state of being wherein man is governed by his creator—free from enslaving beliefs.

Sometimes a person is not aware of just what it is that is governing him. It may be fear of the future or grieving about the past that seems to cast a shadow over his mental outlook. It may be that some person with whom he is associated exercises much influence over him and presumes to govern his thinking and decisions. Or it may be that the responsibility for trouble and unhappiness is laid to business circumstances or family connections.

Whatever may be the seeming influence or unrighteous government, there is a way of escape and a means of correction. Christian Science gives the spiritual basis from which a person can learn how to have his thinking and his actions directed and governed by God. This alone leads him to safety and security. It demands that he look outside of human selfhood for guidance and control, as did Jesus, the master Christian.

Jesus sought beyond his human personality for direction and government. By his constant recognition of his true, spiritual selfhood, which was ever existing with God, and by his obedience to God's government, Jesus was able at all times to prove his freedom from wrong influences and unrighteous control, and therefore was able to demonstrate the true government of God. He always claimed close communion with his heavenly Father, and acknowledged the power of Mind, or God, and his unity with it. At one time, when speaking of his healings, he said, "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work."

To be "properly self-governed," then, and guided rightly, each one must be governed by his Maker, by Truth and Love. Each individual must seek the guidance of the Father, and be willing to let Truth control his thinking. Being governed rightly requires a surrender of self-righteousness, a giving up of human will, power, a forsaking of the carnal thoughts of jealousy, rivalry, hatred, and the like. This brings true freedom, which establishes both divine and human rights.

This working out of God's righteous government in his own experience helps an individual to support and encourage righteous government in his nation. Since a nation is made up of many people, the understanding of righteous government by more and more of these people will of necessity aid in bringing about improved national government.

Regardless of the vicissitudes through which the governments of nations may go, or through what changes their constitutions or laws may pass, the enlightened citizen will hold to Mind's righteous government of the individual. He will maintain and cling to the God-given rights of freedom. He will recall often the prophetic account of the coming of the Messiah by Isaiah, where it is said: "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever."—The Christian Science Monitor.
