Mary Pickford To Visit Portland

Beginning Monday, May 27, Mary Pickford will appear in person at the Broadway Theatre in Portland, starring in "Coquette," the play which won her the coveted Academy Award, and which also gave her first place as the most popular dramatic actress on the air in the 1935 Radio Editor's Poll just completed.

Miss Pickford has not appeared upon the stage in a full length play since she was a Broadway star early in her career under the banner of David Belasco. Her return to the legitimate stage will undoubtedly add further triumphs to those already won by her on the screen, radio and as an author, thus completing the cycle of her versatility.

Miss Pickford is supported by a distinguished cast of players including John Milner, Hugh Enfield, Gavin Gordon, John St. Polis, Glen Boles, Gay Seabrook, Ann Kirby, and Gaylord Pendleton. The Portland engagement is set for six nights with matinees on Thursday (Decoration Day) and Saturday.

This unusual dramatic value, coupled with delightful moments of comedy make an ideal entertainment vehicle.

For the benefit of persons desiring to order seats by mail, arrangements have been made at the Broadway Theatre to fill mail orders promptly at the following scale of prices:

At night, the main floor (Orchestra) first 18 rows, $2.75; balance main floor, $2.20; first 10 rows balcony $1.65; the next six rows, $1.10; remainder of balcony, 55c. The matinee schedule: entire main floor, $1.65; first ten rows balcony, $1.10; remainder balcony, 55c. The prices include all taxes and every seat in the theatre is reserved. Mail orders should be addressed to the Broadway Theatre and accompanied by remittance to cover ticket charge. A self-addressed envelope should also be included.
