Thursday evening the choir will meet at the parsonage for practice. Adult forum business and social at Bell's on Wednesday evening.

Saturday of this week the Junior League will meet at the Doyle home.

On Wednesday evening of this week the Methodist Episcopal church had a pot luck supper. Dr. Harrison, district superintendent, brought an inspiring message.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Charles F. Clarke, Pastor
Sunday School will be held at 9:45 a. m., morning services at 11 and evening service at 7:30. The pastor's sermon topic in the morning will be "Why are People Religious?" A few minutes will be taken to explain the questions to be voted on in the Peace Plebiscite to be taken Nov. 10th, in the Congregational-Christian Churches. This will be explained more fully and opportunity given for questioning and remarks from the floor at the evening service. The ballots will be given out at both services and may be filled out by anyone over 15 years of age, regardless of church connections or none. Come and get your ballot and help the churches speak to the rulers on the subject of "Peace or War."

Prescriptions filled at Browns Pharmacy.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
M. Putman, Minister
Next Friday, Nov. 1, the Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. Earl Hall. By the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Hall a luncheon will be served at noon, funds for which will go to Missionary work.
