How's Your Health?

By Dr. Virgil MacMickle
Fever, which not so many years ago was looked upon as a dangerous symptom that should be suppressed, is now recognized as one of nature's favorite method of combating disease. True enough, it was so recognized many centuries ago in ancient Greece by Hippocrates, "father of medicine." But, as has happened in the case of so many other worth while discoveries, this was lost sight of for many centuries. Fever instead of being recognized as the ally of the body was looked upon as one of its worst enemies. Recently, however, the benign role of fever in the body's battle with disease has again come to be understood. So much valued is it now that science has gone to great lengths in bringing about the artificial development of fever in a number of diseases in which the body itself does not produce a fever. For instance, in the treatment of paresis, arthritis, and a number of other non-febrile diseases, it is now common practice to develop a temperature in the body, by means of electrical energy, of as high as 107 or 108, or even higher degrees, and to maintain it there for from three to eight hours. And the results have in many cases exceeded our fondest expectations. And again, in the treatment of sinus and antrum infections this electrical heat, used to produce a purely localized fever, right in those same cavities, has proved to be one of the surest and most satisfactory means of handling these refractory ailments. And of course the electrical treatment of sinus and antrum infections if done by an expert is not only utterly painless but actually pleasant—a tremendous contrast to the painful and mutilating old time surgical procedures.

The lawyer is one of the most valuable adjuncts to the community. Unquestionably as is the truth of this statement, he is usually the last to receive credit for it, in the minds of the community at large. The constructive service rendered by the lawyer is unsurpassed by that of any other business or professional man. His is the duty of upholding the laws for the safeguarding of modern civilization, and it is to him that credit is due, and should be given, for a great many advantages. One of the leading lawyers of Portland is Alexander Sweek. He is generously possessed of those attributes that make up the typical modern lawyer, of high ethical standards. The truth of this is evidenced by the large number of clients he is able to serve satisfactorily and capably, leading them safely through the tantalizing mazes of the law, in all its intricate phases. This is the type of lawyer who does a good deal more than merely conduct a practice which he finds lucrative. He performs a public duty, altho the nature of his practice is more or less private. And in addition Alexander Sweek is one of the most public spirited citizens in Portland, so what more could be asked of any man.

Heads of corporations—leaders in the professions—say that to succeed quickly to you must first look the part. "You may be capable," they say, "you may get along well with people, yet if you do not look able, you handicap yourself."

To you who are on your way up to an important executive position, perhaps to a business of your own, we repeat the words: "It will pay you to look the part now." Regular pressing and cleaning will help you look able, will keep your suits shapely and new looking, will help you have that $10,000 look, no matter what your income is today.

Allyn's Cleaning and Dyeing Establishment gives prompt service and turns all work out in the latest styles. Another feature that appeals is that when they clean a garment it is not only thoroughly cleaned, but it does not come back with a disagreeable odor.

If it is not possible for you to take your work in personally, we suggest that you take advantage of the parcel post service, and you will be surprised how quickly and satisfactory it is today.

will be taken care of and returned to you.

Allyn's will pay return postage on cleaning mailed to them.

Reliability, reasonable charges and expert work have caused the patronage of this firm to steadily increase since it first started operations.

Allyn's Cleaning & Dyeing Establishment has been fitted with the latest equipment, so that they can handle all classes of dry cleaning in the most satisfactory manner. Every garment left with them is given their best attention and this fact has enabled them to build a reputation that covers a wide territory. No work is too difficult to handle and they make a specialty of ladies' garments, while they also have a list of men whom they do work for that includes those who realize that proper cleaning of suits and overcoats will mean longer life, in addition to better appearing garments.

It is an established fact that a properly cleaned garment will wear longer for Allyn's Zowie Garment Cleaning process livens the woollens and makes them wear resisting; thus a garment they clean will not only look better, but wear longer.

Cornell Goat Dairy

West Barnes Road BR. 4310 Portland, Ore.

People should demand the products of this Company, as it is a local concern and is deserving of your patronage.

This up-to-date concern is a very prominent institution which has aided in the upbuilding of this section and renders a valued and essential service in the furnishing of their dairy products. A well known concern under the capable management of Mr. Blatter, who is conversant with every feature of the business.

"Goat Milk is ideal for youngsters and for people afflicted with digestive disorders," said Mr. Blatter when explaining the principal advantages of goat milk. A goat is more nearly the same weight as a human being where a cow is much heavier and a new-born kid is approximately the same weight as a new-born baby, therefore goats' milk is richer and more nourishing than a cow's milk because cows milk bulks more. Goat milk is also more easily digested than a cow's milk, being digested in about 24 minutes, while cows milk takes two and a half hours to digest. Goat milk is an alkaline drink and cows milk is an acid drink.

The Cornell Goat Dairy is one of the most modern and sanitary in the north west. The milk cooling house is located adjacent to the milking house and after the goats are milked, the milk is cooled and ready for delivery.

Certified milk buckets are used in the milking operation and everything is kept in the strictest of sanitary conditions. Even the bottles are double-capped with germ proof caps.

Visitors are welcome to the dairy at any time, and they are invited to try a glass of goats' milk to compare the difference. A very interesting pamphlet "What is the difference between cows' milk and goats' milk," can be had by writing or calling at the Cornell Goat Dairy. Not only is it better for their health, but it tastes better doctors prescribe it for their patients.

In making this review, we are glad to compliment the growing business this concern is conducting and to say that this firm will greatly aid in the development of this section of the state.
