Hummers were sold at a special student body meeting November 6. The Torch Honor skating party was the subject of discussion.

The Torch Honor society held its annual student skating party at the Oaks rink, the night of November 6. High school students were admitted at a special rate. Buses furnished transportation.

Oratory and song were the crowning attractions of a student body meeting November 10. The students gave the pledge to the flag after which they bowed their heads for a few moments in reverence for those students of Beaverton High school who were killed in the World War. Dale Birdsall gave an anti-war talk. Paul Patterson, an ex service man, gave the students an idea of the aims and purposes of the boys who went "over there." Lyman Webb followed with an anti-war oration. Coach Cook sang several songs. Mr. Webb commented on the Beaverton vs Forest Grove football game.

The Tri-Y organization honored the Girl Reserves by an informal party given in the High School gymnasium, November 13.

Beaverton played Forest Grove on the Pacific University football field, Armistice day.
