

Beaverton High School Graduation Exercises Tuesday Evening

Commencement exercises of the Beaverton High school will be held Tuesday, May 24, in the high school gymnasium when 84 seniors the largest graduating class in the history of the school, will receive awards and diplomas.

The program will be as follows: Processional played by Jean Bergin; invocation by Rev. Earl Horsell; presentation of class by class president, Gene Brown; solo by Roberta Whalley; introduction of student council by Edna Nyland, ex-student body secretary; the student publications by Maxine Wuthrick, associate editor of the 1938 annual, the band drum corps, and orchestra by Bud Lehman, a four-year member; trumpet solo by John Barnes, a four-year member; boys' and girls' glee clubs by Ruth West; vocal trio by Charles Marshall, Donald Short and Lyman Webb; forensics by Laura Stader; girl reserves by Barbara Jane Fields, president; the fire squad by Byrle Sipe; Hi-Y by Layman Webb; pep club by Lois Ann Selby, Torch Honor society by Dale Birdsell; presentation of awards and diplomas.

Because of the limited seating capacity of the gymnasium, only those persons presenting tickets at the door will be admitted. Tickets may be obtained from class members.
