

ALOHA NEWS

ALOHA
John Wirrick, who recently came here from Hood River, bought the Aloha Variety store from H. G. Ingraham, who with his family, moved to Anacortes Washington.

Mr. Wirrick has lived at Hood River since babyhood. His father George Wirrick, is a steam engineer for Oregon Lumber Co.

Mr. Wirrick has had considerable experience with the merchandising line, though it is his first venture in the variety store business. He considers this a good field for such an enterprise and is prepared to meet any city prices. He handles General Electric materials and many articles not heretofore stocked at this store. Mrs. Wirrick and their daughter Mary Ellen, 10, will be here about July 1st.

E. L. Sanders, Aloha Safeway store manager, put in his vacation building his new house on the 2 1/2 acre tract he purchased a few months ago through the offices of C. J. Stickney realtor. With two good husky helpers quite a start on the new house was made. Mr. Sanders says he is arranging for the family to move in about June 25th.

C. J. Stickney sold a one acre tract at Elanton and Hennessey streets to Jake E. Sonnen this week. Sonnen is farm manager at St. Mary's college and will build a small house on the property in the near future.

Walter Klatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Klatt of Aloha, is in a hospital at Balboa, in Panama Canal region. A letter to his parents states he has been in the institution about a week, but his condition is not serious. Walter is in the merchant marine, this being his fourth year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Klatt and son "Billie" visited coastal points over the week end, having a very pleasant outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brown and son Ernest and daughter Virginia Lee, who came here from Slome, Arizona, about two weeks ago to visit at the home of Mrs. Brown's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Utterbach, on Elanton street have decided to remain here until September and possibly longer. He is a truck driver and wants to get work in that line.

Cecil and Delbert Utterbach of Los Angeles, arrived by stage Monday evening to be at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Utterbach. Mrs. Utterbach is in a hospital at this time undergoing medical treatment.

Funeral services for the late John S. Evans of Aloha, were held Saturday June 4 at the Portland Crematorium. He was 74 years old.

Services were held Saturday at the Porges Chapel in Beaverton for U. G. French, husband of Mrs. Clara B. French, well known real estate woman of West Slope. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Elma Bales of Texas; Sherman French, Muncie, Ind.; 3 nieces of Indianapolis, Ind. Interment was in West Hills Memorial Park.

A. W. Dant, brother of Mrs. Lowry of Aloha was in town Wednesday calling on friends.
Dr. W. D. Huntington drove to White Salmon Thursday to attend a business concerning his 150 acre farm which he intends to sell in the near future.

HILLSDALE

This is words composed by Helen Volckers of Hillsdale and adopted by Hillsdale Community club as their song. The tune of "Little Brown Jug" is used.

HILLSDALE

We're a brave little army of a faithful few;

We find work in Hillsdale to do. A little community of friendly folks Where the children grow into sturdy oaks.

We stand for Hillsdale one and all, We want our school where the trees are tall.

We're a brave little army of a faithful few;

We find work in Hillsdale to do. We're a brave little army, says the 4-H We grow prize roses for sweepstakes We are legion to our Community club And we do our bit with flowers and shrub.

We stand for Hillsdale, one and all, We want our school where the trees are tall.

We're a brave little army of a faithful few;

We find work in Hillsdale to do. Two sweepstakes winners from Hillsdale Rose and Flower club awarded scholarships to the 4-H summer school at Oregon State college, by the Royal Rosarians. Florence Elink, City-wide Grand Sweepstakes winner; two full weeks scholarship for the best rose beds. Theodore Raz sweepstakes award for best rose bed; one-week scholarship. Caroline Jacobs also wins scholarship. Hillsdale can well be proud of its 4-H clubbers effort.

Five Rose and Flower club members left for Corvallis Monday, June 6 for a two weeks stay. Mrs. H. F. Hult is leader of this club.

Robert Bingham of Hillsdale, and Miss Hazel Johnson of Portland, were married on Saturday afternoon.

The newlyweds left Sunday morning for Ogden, Utah for a short wedding trip and will reside in Hillsdale upon their return.

Mrs. Gertrude Jones, and her daughter Mrs. K. Donahue and granddaughter spent a few days at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Noakes and two sons Jim and George from Salem visited Mrs. Noakes sister, Miss Bertha Schwerdtmann, Saturday, a week ago.

The Walter Zahler home on Idaho street is receiving a coat of paint on the exterior.

The Jim Buckingham family are new residents at Hillsdale. They reside at 6508 SW Capitol highway.

Dinner guests at the Harold Meler home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. M. Meler, Mr. and Mrs. E. Parsage, Mrs. Parsage and Miss Laura Meler. The occasion was in honor of Harold Meler's birthday.

Pompey Romine has had some papering and painting done on the interior of his Duplex on Capitol Highway and Nebraska st.

Harold and Edna Meler, Harold and Florence Edwards and Mrs. Reichle, plan to leave Saturday for Taft on a fishing trip.

Residents of Hillsdale and water were happy to learn that they may users of the Bertha Water district use an extra one hundred cubic feet of water during the months of June, July and August for the same rate.

The Merry Cookers visited Battleship Oregon on Thursday June 2. It proved a very enjoyable and educational trip for all the girls who attended. Those who made the trip were June Schwinoff, Beverly Zahler, Dorothy Findley, Beverly Collins and Barbara Trappe, together with Mrs. Brownstein and Dick Brownstein.

Maplewood School Election Tuesday, June 21

The Maplewood school district will hold their election of officers Tuesday June 21 at the auditorium of the school. A director and the clerk to be elected. Mrs. Jewel Stoups is the present clerk, having served since organization of the district two years ago. H. Lindeman is the outgoing director and he has given very good service over the year he has served. The average attendance in the school is 60. There also is a very good kindergarden at this school.

Might just as well start Construction now

You and your family do not have to put up with the old house any longer so you might just as well talk the matter over with VINCENT and get the new job started. Only a little while and you can be living in the fine home of your choice.

"God the Preserver of Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday June 12.

The Golden Text is "As birds fly, so will the Lord of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will preserve it" (Isa. 31:5).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For the Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord will give grace and glory; no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee" (Ps. 84: 11, 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is the Life, or Intelligence which forms and preserves the individuality and identity of animals as well as of men" (p. 550).
